

Odds and Ends.

A copy of the first edition of Charles Lever's works lately sold in England for $1,375. A young woman has gone crazy over Spiritualism. The chances are that she did not have far to go.

Stranger: "What time is it, please?" Scientific man (absently): "What do you want—sun time, mean local time, or standard time?"

Miss La Mode (looking into Farmer Fleece's garden): "You asked me to stop some day and see your fine lettuce heads, heads. Are these they?" Farmer Fleece: "Them's 'um."

Minnie: "I am sorry I ever got that hat. I think it makes me look a perfect fright, don't you?" Minnie: "Oh, no, not a perfect fright. You know there is nothing perfect in this world."

Henrietta's gone to Halifax, gum, gum, gum Louise is at the singing-school, hum, hum, hum!

Tom is in the melon patch, mmm, mmm, mmm! Bill is in the bar room, rum, rum, rum!

A love of Justice.—"Where did you get that cake, Annie?" "Mother gave it to me." "She's always giving you more'n she does me." "Never mind, Harry; she's going to put mustard plasters on us to-night, and I'll ask her to let you have the biggest."

A new "society manual" gives thirteen ways of popping the question. The average man could never think of even one stereotyped "way" when the critical moment came, if the girl were pretty and he wanted her very much. It is a kind of warfare which does not give premeditated action much of a show.

Some young men of this city recently built a boat in a cellar, and when it was completed they found they could not get it out through door or window. They are now debating whether it would be better to pull the house down or to flood the basement with water.—Ez.

An attraction at the Saratoga depot last Sunday was a St. Bernard dog, which weighed 250 pounds and carried a life insurance of $2,000. Its owner, Mrs. A. G. Gordon, travelled all the way from San Francisco on the baggage car in order to take proper care of her pet, who wears a leather collar and a black ribbon. They were on their way to Lake George.

Are Your Hens Healthy?

Owing to extreme heat, moisture and other causes, there has been much dullness and disease among poultry the past summer, and especially among chickens and young pullets expected to lay this fall and winter. For this reason it would be a great mistake to kill off all the old hens when the moulting season is at hand and the hens have stopped laying, get fat, and seem to be eating their heads off; because it is a fact that a year old hen, if properly cared for, helped in the moulting season to get her new coat quickly so she can be got to laying early, will lay more and better eggs than young pullets, particularly if the old hens are weakened by diarrhoea, cholera, gapes, etc. Many people have learned by experience that Sheridan's Condition Powder given once, daily, in the food, will supply the needed material to strengthen and invigorate sick chickens or moulting hens and get them to laying earlier than anything else on earth. Mrs. Edwin Brown, East Greenwich, R. I., says: "I could not do without Sheridan's Condition Powder when hens are moulting. It is the only thing that keep them healthy. I use it for gapes and diarrhoea, for when chickens are small they often droop and die. To a pint of clabbered milk I add a teaspoonful of the powder, mix well, and let the chicks eat all they will once a day; it does seem to be just what they need, they soon become so vigorous. People laughed at me when I began to use Sheridan's Condition Powder, and I had no idea I should win a premium. They laugh best who laugh last, however. I got more eggs than any of my neighbors, and some of them had over 100 eggs. We hatched 66 chickens from 77 eggs, obtained while forcing our hens to lay with your powder; so you can see there was no trouble about eggs hatching." I. S. Johnson & Co., 22 Custom House Street, Boston, Mass. (the only makers of Sheridan's Condition Powder) will send, post paid, two 25 cent packs of Powder and their Poultry Raising Guide for 60 cents. The book alone costs 25 cents. For $1.00 a large 2 1/2 pound can (regular price) and book; six cans $5.00, express prepaid. Send stamps or cash. Interesting testimonials sent free; also, for 5 cents, a sample copy of the best poultry paper published. d6i w11
