LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

It PAYS to read our ads.—Beer Bros. St. John's Lodge, I. O. G. T., will suspend its regular meeting in order that its members may attend Mr. Geggie's lecture tomorrow (Tuesday) evening.

St. Dunstan's Cathedral.—A sermon dealing with the evils of intemperance will be delivered on Tuesday evening next at half-past seven, by Father Hopper. The sermon will be well worth hearing.

Lecture.—Rev. A. L. Geggie lectures tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Baptist Church. Silver collection in aid of the Industrial school in connection with the W. C. T. U.

Y. M. L. A.—The "At Home" and entertainment in connection with the Y. M. L. A., of St. James Church tomorrow evening promises to be a grand affair. A first-class programme of vocal and instrumental music is being prepared.

St. Peter's Hall.—Rev. John Brvan, M. A., Rector of St. Paul's Church, will deliver a lecture upon "Things which interested our Forefathers," illustrated by beautiful stereopticon views in St. Peter's Hall next Tuesday evening. Arrange to attend.

"At Home".—Be sure and take in the "At Home" at St. James' Church New Hall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. You will spend a pleasant evening by doing so. Refreshments, good vocal and instrumental music, and other attractions. Admission only 20 cents.

Police Court.—This forenoon John Carroll was fined $12 or 60 days imprisonment for assaulting police-sergeant Bradley Lawrence Hennessey, for drunkenness, was fined $5 or 30 days. George Chilton, for violating the Militia Act, was fined five cents and costs. The case against John Kodd, charged with violating the Liquor Regulation Act, was adjourned until November 1st.

An Old and Well Tried Remedy.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

The Best of Friends Must Part.—Although we like Charlottetown and its generous citizens, we leave you next week. Our business calls us to other portions of the Island, as we must advertise every town so those who have not heard the Southern Pictouanians sing their plantation melodies and shouting songs, or seen John Fenton, the Irish comedian and dancer, in his Irish songs and dances should attend our evening concerts this week in Market Hall. Remember the last week to buy Mexico at the advertising price—$1 for 50c. On sale day and evening in the Hall. Free concert tonight to adults. Positively our last week.

Suggestion for the McDONALDS.—In view of the great and increasing number of the McDONALDS in this and adjacent counties, we hold it is about the time that that practice of giving every second male child of that ilk the christian name of John, Alexander, Angus, Allan, Ronald or Donald, should be curtailed. These are good names, undoubtedly, and have been borne by countless generations of worthy and often heroic men; but the too frequent repetition of these names nowadays, especially in country districts is the cause of much confusion, not only to postmaster but others as well.—North Sydney Herald.

Marriage This Morning.—The marriage of Mr. Alfred E. McEachen, the well-known and popular young boot and shoe merchant, and Miss Katie Wright, was solemnized at St. Dunstan's Cathedral at an early hour this morning. The interesting ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Morrison. The bride was attended by Miss Mary McQuaid, and the groom was ably supported by Mr. Joseph McAuliffe. The bride was the recipient of very many beautiful offerings on the auspicious occasion, and THE EXAMINER joins most heartily in the many good wishes that go out to the happy young couple. The wedding tour will include a visit to St. John and probably some of the leading cities of the neighboring republic.
