Three Strikes Against Tito

Favorite target for Russian venom, Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito received his third bitter attack by top Reds within six weeks. New-end "warning" was delivered by Soviet's vice-minister for war Marshal V. D. Sokolovsky, above, on occasion of seventh anniversary of Bulgaria's liberation by Red army. Charging Tito with deliberately seeking to create tension in Balkans, Sokolovsky declared that there was no doubt the Tito regime will be destroyed, for "there is coming to an end the patience of peoples of Yugoslavia, tortured and plundered by clique of Tito".
