Mission Priest

These Christians, who strive despite the cunning and cruelty of Communism to remain faithful to God. Surely it must be a consolation for you to know, that in God's good time, He will, in return for the great and noble sacrifices of His missionaries and their loyal subjects, replace the sickle and hammer with the Cross—the Red Army with brigades of white-robed faithful and the evil of hate with the spirit of love.

OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE

An Older Boys' Conference will be held in St. David's United Church, Georgetown, P. E. I., from Friday, Nov. 27 until Sunday evening Nov. 29th, under the direction of Rev. W. A. Paterson, and assisted by several leaders. This conference will be made up of boys of teen-age—13 and up— from Eastern Prince Edward Island—All of King's County and including Charlottetown and East.

The boys who attended the Conference last year in Montague will remember the fine fellowship and good discussions and particularly the banquet and the stunts and yells; and they will be anxious to come again. Much of the same activities will be in store for the boys again but we shall have new stunts and new yells; and new enthusiasm to attain to the red badge of the group.

Hospitality will be provided by the homes in Georgetown, and the boys are asked to register with Christopher Hartman, who will act as Registrar. Registrations should be accompanied by $100, which will also look after the banquet. It is advisable to register at least three days before the opening of Conference.
