

PARLIAMENT OF CANADA. Debate on the Corn Duties.

(Special correspondence of The Examiner.)

MR. POPE'S ARGUMENT.

In moving to place corn on the free list, Mr. Pope claimed to speak in the interests of farmers, especially those of the Eastern provinces. He said we had a valuable market in England for pork, cured hams and bacon, and that to increase that trade we should have free corn.

teaching the farmers to turn their attention to other lines in which they can raise cheap food for feeding cattle and developing the trade in that line, must have good effect. There was no good reason for bringing in corn duty free.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

SUPPLEMENTARY ESTIMATES.

A Brush Over the Coal Bill.

OTTAWA, Feb. 18.

The supplementary estimates amount to $1,954,654. They include $46,274 for the transfer of the Government's London business to the Bank of Montreal; $42,000 for printing voters' lists; $67,100 for the militia; $25,000 for the re-building of the St. John Custom House; $27,500 for a quarantine hospital at Halifax; $6,000 for the same on Partridge Island; and $50,656 for the improvements at Grosse Isle, $10,000 for a quarantine wharf at Lawlor's Island, and $35,000 for the same at William Head; $15,000 to pay the expenses connected with the Behring Sea Arbitration, and $10,000 to pay the costs of litigation over the Manitoba school question; $13,000 to complete the payments on account of the Cape Tormentine harbor contract.

There was a lively skirmish in the House of Commons over the action of Messrs. Weldon, Wood and others, in asking the Governor-General to prevent the consummation of the Nova Scotia coal deal. Mr. Mills, of B. H. Shawell, called attention to the action of Weldon and others, which he characterized as a proceeding contrary to the principles of parliamentary and responsible government.

Dr. Weldon admitted that he and Wood, McNeill and McDougall, of Pictou, had called upon the Governor-General to call his attention to a certain matter which they regarded as a danger threatening the Imperial interests, and claiming that they had the right to do so as British subjects. They did not approach His Excellency to offer advice, but to give information.

The Corbett-Mitchell Prize Fight.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.

The pugilist Mitchell and his party met Wm. Brady, Corbett's manager, and party. Mitchell covered Corbett's $10,000 deposit for a match for the heavyweight championship of the world. Mitchell accepted all the conditions laid down by Corbett. The fight was arranged to take place the second week in December next, before the club offering the largest purse. Five cane gloves will be used. A 24-foot ring was agreed upon, and the fight must be a finish. There can be no postponement.

Arrested!

BELFAST, Feb. 18.

Edward Samuel Wesley Decobain, formerly member of Parliament for the east division of Belfast, was some time ago expelled from the House of Commons because he fled the country to avoid trial upon a charge of unnatural practices. He was arrested yesterday at his residence.

A GREAT JUST ARRIVED,

—AND— Mighty Sale!

We have bought the entire Stock of MESSRS. PATTON BROS., consisting of General Dry Goods and Carpets.

The Pattons are hard workers, energetic and obliging, honest as the sun; but through the desire of the strong to crush the weak they have had to retire, not, however, before they were the means of revolutionizing the prices on several lines of goods, for which the public should ever be grateful to them.

They did not intend to close up so soon, but through the misfortune of Messrs. Geo Carter & Co. by the late fire, they have sold out and rented the Store to them, in order that they may at once resume their Seed business, which is so important at this season of the year, thus showing their big-heartedness and kindly feeling towards the unfortunate.

The Stock is one of the largest ever thrown on the market, and must be sold, so everyone may be sure of getting bargains.

The Stock includes 30 pieces Black Cashmere and Merinos, 200 pieces Colored Dress Stuffs, 80 dozen Shirts and Underclothing, Carpets, Curtain Poles, House Furnishings of every description, Fancy Goods, Men's Felt Hats, Fancy Ties, and a good assortment of all kinds of goods found in a first-class Dry Goods establishment.

We most respectfully request everybody to call and have a look through. No trouble to show goods, and if you do buy it won't cost much. One man's misfortune is another man's gain.

Mr. Charles Patton is now in our employ, where he will be happy to see all his old friends, and bring your friends with you.

Remember, it is very seldom you can get such a chance to secure Dry Goods, Carpets, Clothing, etc. The goods are all fresh, as the boys have only been in business for about one year and a half. Come one and all to the Great Bargain Sale.
