

Team Victory All The Way Says Manager Fred Haney

By JOE BRADIS
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Casey Stengel, manager of the American League all-stars, made no excuses for his team's 5-4 loss to the National League all-stars Tuesday at Forbes Field.

"Don Drysdale of Los Angeles showed us a lot of stuff. I guess he was the best pitcher of the afternoon."
"Just a few feet"
"We lost the game by only a few feet. If Nellie Fox and Harvey Kuenn had straightened out those drives in the ninth you'd be talking to the winning manager, not the loser."

Both Fox and Kuenn hit long fouls into the stands. Fox then singled, took second on a wild pitch before Kuenn fouled out to end the game.

Lions Defeat BYC Juniors 3-2

Barry's Lions, behind the four-hit pitching of veteran moundsman Art Ballem, last evening defeated Danny Mac Cormack's Junior BYC crew by a score of 3-2.

The Juniors were held scoreless till the sixth inning when Mike O'Brien, the losing pitcher, hit a double with one man on.

Park, Tracadie Capture Tilts

Tracadie and the National Park chalked up victories in softball action at the National Park diamond.

Sparks Stops N.Y. Scrapper

HALIFAX (CP) — Young Blair Richardson of South Bar, N.S., chilled Wally Wilson of Toledo, Ohio at 1:01 of the second round here Monday in a scheduled 10-round middleweight boxing match.

Rotary Blasts Legion 12-3

In the Summerside Little League last night the Rotary romped to a 12-3 victory over the Legion.

SPORTS FRONT

DOMINION DAY at Summerside, folks flocked to the raceway to witness the holiday card presented by the 20 new owners of the western driving park.

The large number of patrons didn't answer the question that was in the minds of race promoters. These promoters were asking the question "has interest in harness racing declined here on Prince Edward Island?"

HERE AT CHARLOTTETOWN DRIVING PARK, rain and cold had plagued almost every card since the season got underway. The "crowds" were small and the park officials were taking a financial beating on almost every program.

EVERYTHING WAS IDEAL for racing. No better night will be served up this season. And the horses co-operated with the weather conditions with the kind of a race card that would be difficult to equal anywhere.

It was a betting crowd that was on hand Monday night and the mutual staff were kept on the hop right through the evening. It was by far the greatest mutual "take" of the season, including the big day at Summerside.

TONIGHT another sizzling program is lined up for the Driving Park. Feature event will be that AA pace with seven starters ready to do battle. This gives every promise of being one of the best events yet presented at the local racing track.

CASY STENGEL is the first man to admit that the New York Yankees are not the same club that has dominated the American league for the past ten years.

CASY WAS in a talkative mood. "It scares me when they hit baseballs over the fence," he moaned as he scratched his back on the dugout wall. "I don't have fielders that tall to catch balls heading for the stands. The biggest trouble is that my pitchers are not going nine. If these fellows had some arms I could understand the way they've been pitching, but they don't."

SWEDEN IS GOING wild over the new heavyweight champion of the boxing world, Ingemar Johansson.

THE WELTERWEIGHT championship of the world is on the line Friday night when champion Don Jordan tangles with Danny Meyer.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

In our notes on Saturday we made mention of Hawkins Hoss winning the Class "A" Pace at Foxboro, Mass., in 2:04 2/5 — the fastest mile of the night, but we didn't give any credit to the driver of our native son (Walter Found) horse. He is Clarence Hanson, a Bishop of the Mormon Church, and he is held in very high regard. Prior to coming East, Hawkins Hoss won four races at the Bay Meadows track, California, and one of them was in 2:02 1/5; it is a mile oval.

Like many others, we were delighted and rather surprised Friday night when Horace Willis, co-owner with George Henderson of Montreal, brought the 11-year-old pacer, Sir Joseph, home in front of a good field in 2:10 and 2:11. He has been racing since a two-year-old, but seems as full of spirit and keenness as ever.

Horace Willis had top driving honors for the night — two wins with Sir Joseph and one with Argonaut, a four-year-old pacer by Argot Pointer, owned by Mr. Willis, dam Shirley H. Temple, which was bred and is owned by Dr. Temple Hooper who is temporarily employed in Western Canada.

Argot Pointer, p. 2:07, with only a few opportunities, has proved himself quite a sire of speed.

A SECOND SLOWER. Cyril Smith can be counted on for a win at nearly any race meet, and Friday night at Charlottetown he was out in front with Eddie Hoosier, a ten-year-old pacer whose record is 2:12 1/5, and he won the "C" Pace in 2:13 1/5 — just a second slower than his record.

Monday night's races at the Charlottetown Driving Park will be remembered as one of the best early-season programs ever held there. The classifications were excellent, and the drivers gave all they had to make the night a success.

When the writer sold out his interest in the plant to the present shareholders it was largely because of the fact that Dr. Lantz, H. J. Kennedy, Cecil Stewart and others were taking over, and it has been a pleasure for me to see the Association growing bigger and offering better opportunities for exhibitors and harness horsemen, and all parties who make displays or show at the annual fair.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

When the writer sold out his interest in the plant to the present shareholders it was largely because of the fact that Dr. Lantz, H. J. Kennedy, Cecil Stewart and others were taking over, and it has been a pleasure for me to see the Association growing bigger and offering better opportunities for exhibitors and harness horsemen, and all parties who make displays or show at the annual fair.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

Her Majesty The Queen will be a visitor to Fredericton Raceway on July 28, where a $2,000 free-for-all will be on the program. Tomorrow night, at Fredericton, ten of the fastest pacers in the Maritimes have been entered in the fourth renewal of the $2,000 Walter Dale Memorial Pace, headed by Mighty Lee 2:04 1/5 — the fastest horse in the Maritimes to date at Charlottetown. He is owned by Willard MacDonald of Summerside and Rankine MacLaine of Charlottetown.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

Other entries in the Walter Dale include Abbeland 2:06 3/5, Sep Hanover 2:08, Walter Rogcroft 2:06 1/5, Kabla Byrd 2:05 4/5, Congressional Boy 2:08 2/5, Mighty Conn 2:03 3/5, last year's winner major's King 2:04, and the pair from the Valley Stables — Hal's Mae 2:06, and Hal's Man 2:07 2/5 — both of which finished 1:2 in the $2,000 (Dr.) H. MacAllister Memorial at Saint John, N.B., on July 1st.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

Other entries in the Walter Dale include Abbeland 2:06 3/5, Sep Hanover 2:08, Walter Rogcroft 2:06 1/5, Kabla Byrd 2:05 4/5, Congressional Boy 2:08 2/5, Mighty Conn 2:03 3/5, last year's winner major's King 2:04, and the pair from the Valley Stables — Hal's Mae 2:06, and Hal's Man 2:07 2/5 — both of which finished 1:2 in the $2,000 (Dr.) H. MacAllister Memorial at Saint John, N.B., on July 1st.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

Other entries in the Walter Dale include Abbeland 2:06 3/5, Sep Hanover 2:08, Walter Rogcroft 2:06 1/5, Kabla Byrd 2:05 4/5, Congressional Boy 2:08 2/5, Mighty Conn 2:03 3/5, last year's winner major's King 2:04, and the pair from the Valley Stables — Hal's Mae 2:06, and Hal's Man 2:07 2/5 — both of which finished 1:2 in the $2,000 (Dr.) H. MacAllister Memorial at Saint John, N.B., on July 1st.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

Other entries in the Walter Dale include Abbeland 2:06 3/5, Sep Hanover 2:08, Walter Rogcroft 2:06 1/5, Kabla Byrd 2:05 4/5, Congressional Boy 2:08 2/5, Mighty Conn 2:03 3/5, last year's winner major's King 2:04, and the pair from the Valley Stables — Hal's Mae 2:06, and Hal's Man 2:07 2/5 — both of which finished 1:2 in the $2,000 (Dr.) H. MacAllister Memorial at Saint John, N.B., on July 1st.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

Other entries in the Walter Dale include Abbeland 2:06 3/5, Sep Hanover 2:08, Walter Rogcroft 2:06 1/5, Kabla Byrd 2:05 4/5, Congressional Boy 2:08 2/5, Mighty Conn 2:03 3/5, last year's winner major's King 2:04, and the pair from the Valley Stables — Hal's Mae 2:06, and Hal's Man 2:07 2/5 — both of which finished 1:2 in the $2,000 (Dr.) H. MacAllister Memorial at Saint John, N.B., on July 1st.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

Other entries in the Walter Dale include Abbeland 2:06 3/5, Sep Hanover 2:08, Walter Rogcroft 2:06 1/5, Kabla Byrd 2:05 4/5, Congressional Boy 2:08 2/5, Mighty Conn 2:03 3/5, last year's winner major's King 2:04, and the pair from the Valley Stables — Hal's Mae 2:06, and Hal's Man 2:07 2/5 — both of which finished 1:2 in the $2,000 (Dr.) H. MacAllister Memorial at Saint John, N.B., on July 1st.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

Other entries in the Walter Dale include Abbeland 2:06 3/5, Sep Hanover 2:08, Walter Rogcroft 2:06 1/5, Kabla Byrd 2:05 4/5, Congressional Boy 2:08 2/5, Mighty Conn 2:03 3/5, last year's winner major's King 2:04, and the pair from the Valley Stables — Hal's Mae 2:06, and Hal's Man 2:07 2/5 — both of which finished 1:2 in the $2,000 (Dr.) H. MacAllister Memorial at Saint John, N.B., on July 1st.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

Other entries in the Walter Dale include Abbeland 2:06 3/5, Sep Hanover 2:08, Walter Rogcroft 2:06 1/5, Kabla Byrd 2:05 4/5, Congressional Boy 2:08 2/5, Mighty Conn 2:03 3/5, last year's winner major's King 2:04, and the pair from the Valley Stables — Hal's Mae 2:06, and Hal's Man 2:07 2/5 — both of which finished 1:2 in the $2,000 (Dr.) H. MacAllister Memorial at Saint John, N.B., on July 1st.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

Other entries in the Walter Dale include Abbeland 2:06 3/5, Sep Hanover 2:08, Walter Rogcroft 2:06 1/5, Kabla Byrd 2:05 4/5, Congressional Boy 2:08 2/5, Mighty Conn 2:03 3/5, last year's winner major's King 2:04, and the pair from the Valley Stables — Hal's Mae 2:06, and Hal's Man 2:07 2/5 — both of which finished 1:2 in the $2,000 (Dr.) H. MacAllister Memorial at Saint John, N.B., on July 1st.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

Willie Mays' Triple Gives National League 5-4 Win

By JACK HAND
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Willie Mays' 438-foot triple to the ivy-covered right-center field wall in the eighth inning gave the favored National League a 5-4 victory over the American League Tuesday in the 26th all-star baseball game.

After Chicago's Early Wynn, the American starter, yielded a first-inning homer to Milwaukee's Ed Mathews, he settled down and allowed no more scoring during his three-inning workout. Rye Duren New York Yankees' fireballing relief man, whirled through three shutout innings, fanning four and leaving with the score tied at 1-1 after six innings.

Mathews' homer was his first in four all-star games. Kaline, who hadn't played in a week after undergoing corrective surgery for a fractured cheekbone, had expected to play only three innings. But he stayed around long enough to smash a fourth-inning, 3-2 pitch over the wall in left field about 390 feet away.

The Nationals broke the tie by ripping into Jim Bunning of Detroit for two runs in the seventh. After Ernie Banks of Chicago collected his second double, Bunning retired the next two batters. Then Del Crandall of Milwaukee, bounced the first pitch into center, scoring Banks. Bill Mazeroski of Pittsburgh singled to left scoring Crandall, but was out trying to stretch his hit into a double. ROY FACE'S STINT

Face, winner of 12 straight and 17 games over a two-year span as a relief pitcher, toyed with the side in the seventh and racked up two easy outs in the eighth before Nellie Fox of Chicago singled. Harvey Kuenn of Detroit walked and Vic Power of Cleveland singled to score a run.

Then came the most dramatic moment of the game, the appearance of 40-year-old Ted Williams of Boston as a pinch-hitter. Ted looked at three balls and a strike and finally walked to load the bases.

Gus Triandos, the Baltimore catcher, unloaded a double down the left-field line scoring Kuenn and Power and putting the American League ahead 4-3. Antonelli came in to walk pinch-hitter Sievers, then made pinch-hitter Sherm Lollar of Chicago hit into a force play to end the inning. Antonelli gave way to pinch-hitter Boyer in the eighth as the Nationals rallied again and manager Fred Haney of Milwaukee brought in Chicago's Don Elston to close the door of the American League in the ninth.

Elston had a little trouble. After retiring the first two men, Fox sent a screaming-line drive into the stands, barely foul. Kuenn also lashed a ball down the left-field line that just went foul before he popped to Boyer for the game-ending out.

It was close enough to add new interest to the second all-star game, to be played in Los Angeles, Aug. 2.

"It was a team victory all the way," said manager Haney. "It is difficult to single out any one player although there was some pretty fine defensive work."

But in the end it was Mays' long drive off Ford that wrapped up the National victory, closing the American League's series lead to 15-11.

Willie's smash sailed over the head of Detroit's Harvey Kuenn in right center. The ball bounced up the National wall near the 438-foot mark while Aaron dashed home with the winning run. The San Francisco center fielder reached third — and stayed there.

A paid attendance of $5,277 — full capacity — was announced although only 34,763 showed up at Forbes Field on this perfect afternoon for baseball. They watched Los Angeles' Don Drysdale throw three perfect innings at the Americans and saw Lew Burdette of Milwaukee give up only one run — a homer by Al Kaline of Detroit in the fourth — during his three-inning stint. MATHEWS' HOMER

After Chicago's Early Wynn, the American starter, yielded a first-inning homer to Milwaukee's Ed Mathews, he settled down and allowed no more scoring during his three-inning workout. Rye Duren New York Yankees' fireballing relief man, whirled through three shutout innings, fanning four and leaving with the score tied at 1-1 after six innings.

Mathews' homer was his first in four all-star games. Kaline, who hadn't played in a week after undergoing corrective surgery for a fractured cheekbone, had expected to play only three innings. But he stayed around long enough to smash a fourth-inning, 3-2 pitch over the wall in left field about 390 feet away.

The Nationals broke the tie by ripping into Jim Bunning of Detroit for two runs in the seventh. After Ernie Banks of Chicago collected his second double, Bunning retired the next two batters. Then Del Crandall of Milwaukee, bounced the first pitch into center, scoring Banks. Bill Mazeroski of Pittsburgh singled to left scoring Crandall, but was out trying to stretch his hit into a double. ROY FACE'S STINT

Face, winner of 12 straight and 17 games over a two-year span as a relief pitcher, toyed with the side in the seventh and racked up two easy outs in the eighth before Nellie Fox of Chicago singled. Harvey Kuenn of Detroit walked and Vic Power of Cleveland singled to score a run.

Then came the most dramatic moment of the game, the appearance of 40-year-old Ted Williams of Boston as a pinch-hitter. Ted looked at three balls and a strike and finally walked to load the bases.

Gus Triandos, the Baltimore catcher, unloaded a double down the left-field line scoring Kuenn and Power and putting the American League ahead 4-3. Antonelli came in to walk pinch-hitter Sievers, then made pinch-hitter Sherm Lollar of Chicago hit into a force play to end the inning. Antonelli gave way to pinch-hitter Boyer in the eighth as the Nationals rallied again and manager Fred Haney of Milwaukee brought in Chicago's Don Elston to close the door of the American League in the ninth.

Elston had a little trouble. After retiring the first two men, Fox sent a screaming-line drive into the stands, barely foul. Kuenn also lashed a ball down the left-field line that just went foul before he popped to Boyer for the game-ending out.

It was close enough to add new interest to the second all-star game, to be played in Los Angeles, Aug. 2.

"It was a team victory all the way," said manager Haney. "It is difficult to single out any one player although there was some pretty fine defensive work."

But in the end it was Mays' long drive off Ford that wrapped up the National victory, closing the American League's series lead to 15-11.

Willie's smash sailed over the head of Detroit's Harvey Kuenn in right center. The ball bounced up the National wall near the 438-foot mark while Aaron dashed home with the winning run. The San Francisco center fielder reached third — and stayed there.

A paid attendance of $5,277 — full capacity — was announced although only 34,763 showed up at Forbes Field on this perfect afternoon for baseball. They watched Los Angeles' Don Drysdale throw three perfect innings at the Americans and saw Lew Burdette of Milwaukee give up only one run — a homer by Al Kaline of Detroit in the fourth — during his three-inning stint. MATHEWS' HOMER

After Chicago's Early Wynn, the American starter, yielded a first-inning homer to Milwaukee's Ed Mathews, he settled down and allowed no more scoring during his three-inning workout. Rye Duren New York Yankees' fireballing relief man, whirled through three shutout innings, fanning four and leaving with the score tied at 1-1 after six innings.

Mathews' homer was his first in four all-star games. Kaline, who hadn't played in a week after undergoing corrective surgery for a fractured cheekbone, had expected to play only three innings. But he stayed around long enough to smash a fourth-inning, 3-2 pitch over the wall in left field about 390 feet away.

The Nationals broke the tie by ripping into Jim Bunning of Detroit for two runs in the seventh. After Ernie Banks of Chicago collected his second double, Bunning retired the next two batters. Then Del Crandall of Milwaukee, bounced the first pitch into center, scoring Banks. Bill Mazeroski of Pittsburgh singled to left scoring Crandall, but was out trying to stretch his hit into a double. ROY FACE'S STINT

Face, winner of 12 straight and 17 games over a two-year span as a relief pitcher, toyed with the side in the seventh and racked up two easy outs in the eighth before Nellie Fox of Chicago singled. Harvey Kuenn of Detroit walked and Vic Power of Cleveland singled to score a run.

Then came the most dramatic moment of the game, the appearance of 40-year-old Ted Williams of Boston as a pinch-hitter. Ted looked at three balls and a strike and finally walked to load the bases.

Gus Triandos, the Baltimore catcher, unloaded a double down the left-field line scoring Kuenn and Power and putting the American League ahead 4-3. Antonelli came in to walk pinch-hitter Sievers, then made pinch-hitter Sherm Lollar of Chicago hit into a force play to end the inning. Antonelli gave way to pinch-hitter Boyer in the eighth as the Nationals rallied again and manager Fred Haney of Milwaukee brought in Chicago's Don Elston to close the door of the American League in the ninth.

Elston had a little trouble. After retiring the first two men, Fox sent a screaming-line drive into the stands, barely foul. Kuenn also lashed a ball down the left-field line that just went foul before he popped to Boyer for the game-ending out.

It was close enough to add new interest to the second all-star game, to be played in Los Angeles, Aug. 2.

"It was a team victory all the way," said manager Haney. "It is difficult to single out any one player although there was some pretty fine defensive work."

But in the end it was Mays' long drive off Ford that wrapped up the National victory, closing the American League's series lead to 15-11.

Willie's smash sailed over the head of Detroit's Harvey Kuenn in right center. The ball bounced up the National wall near the 438-foot mark while Aaron dashed home with the winning run. The San Francisco center fielder reached third — and stayed there.

A paid attendance of $5,277 — full capacity — was announced although only 34,763 showed up at Forbes Field on this perfect afternoon for baseball. They watched Los Angeles' Don Drysdale throw three perfect innings at the Americans and saw Lew Burdette of Milwaukee give up only one run — a homer by Al Kaline of Detroit in the fourth — during his three-inning stint. MATHEWS' HOMER

After Chicago's Early Wynn, the American starter, yielded a first-inning homer to Milwaukee's Ed Mathews, he settled down and allowed no more scoring during his three-inning workout. Rye Duren New York Yankees' fireballing relief man, whirled through three shutout innings, fanning four and leaving with the score tied at 1-1 after six innings.

Mathews' homer was his first in four all-star games. Kaline, who hadn't played in a week after undergoing corrective surgery for a fractured cheekbone, had expected to play only three innings. But he stayed around long enough to smash a fourth-inning, 3-2 pitch over the wall in left field about 390 feet away.

The Nationals broke the tie by ripping into Jim Bunning of Detroit for two runs in the seventh. After Ernie Banks of Chicago collected his second double, Bunning retired the next two batters. Then Del Crandall of Milwaukee, bounced the first pitch into center, scoring Banks. Bill Mazeroski of Pittsburgh singled to left scoring Crandall, but was out trying to stretch his hit into a double. ROY FACE'S STINT

Face, winner of 12 straight and 17 games over a two-year span as a relief pitcher, toyed with the side in the seventh and racked up two easy outs in the eighth before Nellie Fox of Chicago singled. Harvey Kuenn of Detroit walked and Vic Power of Cleveland singled to score a run.

Then came the most dramatic moment of the game, the appearance of 40-year-old Ted Williams of Boston as a pinch-hitter. Ted looked at three balls and a strike and finally walked to load the bases.

Gus Triandos, the Baltimore catcher, unloaded a double down the left-field line scoring Kuenn and Power and putting the American League ahead 4-3. Antonelli came in to walk pinch-hitter Sievers, then made pinch-hitter Sherm Lollar of Chicago hit into a force play to end the inning. Antonelli gave way to pinch-hitter Boyer in the eighth as the Nationals rallied again and manager Fred Haney of Milwaukee brought in Chicago's Don Elston to close the door of the American League in the ninth.

Elston had a little trouble. After retiring the first two men, Fox sent a screaming-line drive into the stands, barely foul. Kuenn also lashed a ball down the left-field line that just went foul before he popped to Boyer for the game-ending out.

It was close enough to add new interest to the second all-star game, to be played in Los Angeles, Aug. 2.

"It was a team victory all the way," said manager Haney. "It is difficult to single out any one player although there was some pretty fine defensive work."

But in the end it was Mays' long drive off Ford that wrapped up the National victory, closing the American League's series lead to 15-11.

Willie's smash sailed over the head of Detroit's Harvey Kuenn in right center. The ball bounced up the National wall near the 438-foot mark while Aaron dashed home with the winning run. The San Francisco center fielder reached third — and stayed there.

A paid attendance of $5,277 — full capacity — was announced although only 34,763 showed up at Forbes Field on this perfect afternoon for baseball. They watched Los Angeles' Don Drysdale throw three perfect innings at the Americans and saw Lew Burdette of Milwaukee give up only one run — a homer by Al Kaline of Detroit in the fourth — during his three-inning stint. MATHEWS' HOMER

After Chicago's Early Wynn, the American starter, yielded a first-inning homer to Milwaukee's Ed Mathews, he settled down and allowed no more scoring during his three-inning workout. Rye Duren New York Yankees' fireballing relief man, whirled through three shutout innings, fanning four and leaving with the score tied at 1-1 after six innings.

Mathews' homer was his first in four all-star games. Kaline, who hadn't played in a week after undergoing corrective surgery for a fractured cheekbone, had expected to play only three innings. But he stayed around long enough to smash a fourth-inning, 3-2 pitch over the wall in left field about 390 feet away.

The Nationals broke the tie by ripping into Jim Bunning of Detroit for two runs in the seventh. After Ernie Banks of Chicago collected his second double, Bunning retired the next two batters. Then Del Crandall of Milwaukee, bounced the first pitch into center, scoring Banks. Bill Mazeroski of Pittsburgh singled to left scoring Crandall, but was out trying to stretch his hit into a double. ROY FACE'S STINT

Face, winner of 12 straight and 17 games over a two-year span as a relief pitcher, toyed with the side in the seventh and racked up two easy outs in the eighth before Nellie Fox of Chicago singled. Harvey Kuenn of Detroit walked and Vic Power of Cleveland singled to score a run.

Then came the most dramatic moment of the game, the appearance of 40-year-old Ted Williams of Boston as a pinch-hitter. Ted looked at three balls and a strike and finally walked to load the bases.

Gus Triandos, the Baltimore catcher, unloaded a double down the left-field line scoring Kuenn and Power and putting the American League ahead 4-3. Antonelli

Lady Golfers Conclude Play

The annual field held at Belvedere course by the lady members of the Charlottetown Golf Club proved popular and 25 participated in the matches.

Mrs. T. W. L. Prowse, honorary president made the presentations to morning winners and president Mrs. Arnet Howatt did likewise to afternoon winners.

Oyster Bed Captures Pair

Oyster Bed walloped Bonshaw in both ends of a doubleheader Sunday in Credit Union Softball League action.

Oyster Bed won by scores of 16-14 and 33-24 and are tops in the league standings.

Practise

A ball practice has been called for Junior Abbies this evening at 5:30 at Memorial Field.

his skill. Here is a brief report: Races 1 and 4 — Czarina Volo (MacLeod) 2:1, Bad News (Fletcher) 1:3, Super Hal (Daniels) 6:2, four other starters, time 2:14 1/5 and 2:15; Races 2 and 5 — Lou Creed (MacLeod) 1:1, Hoosier Henley (Grace) 3:2, Mighty Cause way (Kennedy) 2:6, five other starters, time 2:14 1/5 and 2:17 3/5; Lou Creed owned by E. MacMillan, Truro.

Rotary Blasts Legion 12-3

In the Summerside Little League last night the Rotary romped to a 12-3 victory over the Legion.

At Monday night's races, race secretary E. Frank Acorn made the announcement that Convair has, after careful examination, been found capable of racing in a few weeks. His trouble was not what it was supposed to be, and all of us will welcome back this gallant warrior to our racing ranks.

Thunderbirds Trip Grand River

SUMMERSIDE — On Monday night the Summerside Thunderbirds travelled to Grand River and defeated the home team 15-5 behind the strong pitching of Pat Breen. Simmons of the winners hit a triple and a double. Gerald MacKinnon was the losing pitcher.

Other entries in the Walter Dale include Abbeland 2:06 3/5, Sep Hanover 2:08, Walter Rogcroft 2:06 1/5, Kabla Byrd 2:05 4/5, Congressional Boy 2:08 2/5, Mighty Conn 2:03 3/5, last year's winner major's King 2:04, and the pair from the Valley Stables — Hal's Mae 2:06, and Hal's Man 2:07 2/5 — both of which finished 1:2 in the $2,000 (Dr.) H. MacAllister Memorial at Saint John, N.B., on July 1st.

Today's Minor League Schedule

9 a.m. — Robins vs. Cardinals
10:30 — Bears vs. Tigers
2:30 — Bears vs. Beavers
Anyone interested in training for track and field should be at Memorial Field at 6 o'clock this evening