Lab. Technicians Discuss Aspects Of The Occupation

At a recent meeting of the Prince Edward Island branch of the Canadian Society of Laboratory Technologists, held in the conference room of the Provincial Laboratories, members of the graduating class of 1963 discussed topics of their choosing pertaining to laboratory work.

Miss Joan MacSwain, RT and Miss Betty Ching RT, both of whom are employed at the Prince Edward Island Hospital laboratory, gave very interesting talks on the proceedures and apparatus used in obtaining bone marrow films. To make their topic more interesting Miss Ching demonstrated the type of needle used in such an operation and described the method of its use.

Miss Janet Jones RT chose as her topic a urine test which is eith only in the experimental stages. The test is called "Driscreen Test". Miss Jones is presently employed in the bacteriology section of the provincial laboratories in Charlottetown.

Presently employed in the Red Cross blood transfusion section of the provincial laboratories, Miss Sandra White, RT, spoke on blood groups and diseases. In her talk she discussed the possible connection between diseases and the rate at which they occur in patients of certain blood groups.

Miss Ilene Norrie, RT, the final speaker of the group chose a talk on the origin of laboratory work in P.E.I., emphasizing the rapid advancement of the vital part of the medical field in the last 30-30 years. Miss Norrie is employed in the haematology section of the provincial lab.

Following the Scientific portion of the meeting refreshments were served with Miss Sheiah MacKay as chairman of the lunch committee.

The meeting was well attended by interested technologists from the P.E.I. and Charlottetown hospitals and the Provincial Laboratories.

CNR To Build New Terminal In Ch'town

Charlottetown's out-dated railway terminal facilities are going through a series of renovations, rebuilding, and general improvements in an effort to bring efficient faster service to the city and Island.

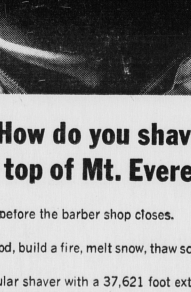
Yesterday, Manager CNR Maritimes, J.G. Davis announced that tenders have been called on a new, large masonry building for use as an express-freight terminal. As part of the program to streamline procedures in handling freight, CNR plans to demolish the old freight shed and replace the site with additional trackage which will make possible the marshalling of longer trains.

Careful study went into the design of the new terminal facilities, and combined with the development of modern techniques in handling, they should ensure for P.E.I. fastest and most efficient service, according to Mr. Davis..

How do you shave on top of Mt. Everest?

- ☐ Get there before the barber shop closes.
- ☐ Gather wood, build a fire, melt snow, thaw soap, and use a blade.
- ☐ Use a regular shaver with a 37,621 foot extension cord.

or



☐ Use a cordless Remington Lektronic II. It works anywhere.

The Lektronic II is self-powered. It works outdoors, indoors, upstairs, downstairs. Even on mountain tops.

So forget about sinks, cords and outlets. With the Lektronic II you get a powerful shave anywhere.

Energy cells store up power for many fast, comfortable shaves. To recharge, simply plug in the special cord overnight.

If you forget to recharge, just plug in the cord and shave. There's no waiting. No half-shaved face.

Like all Remingtons, the Lektronic II has adjustable roller combs for comfort. And a more powerful motor. And surgical steel cutters.

But the big feature is cordless convenience. Great for around the house, in the office, the travelling man. Even mountain climbers.

You must fit in there somewhere.

REMINGTON Lektronic II
