Grain

WINNIPEG, April 3 (CP) - Prices were irregular at the close today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange after early gains were reduced or erased in late trading. Late hesitation on United States markets prompted increased offerings here, sending most prices lower.

Earlier in the session, good domestic demand came out in oats and barley, particularly barley. Accompanying reports said some barley had been worked for export overseas. Flax had received support from processors, while rye received stimulation from reports of export business of American rye to Germany.

Export loadings of Canadian wheat included 445,000 bushels for the United Kingdom, 235,000 for Belgium, 340,000 for India and 335,000 for Italy. Prices for class two wheat and I.W.A. were down three-eighths from yesterday. Closing prices: Oats - May 90 1/2; July 82 1/2; Oct. 80 1/2.
