Scripture—Matthew 28:18-20; Acts 1:8; 1:28-29, 35-38; Romans 1:13-16; 10:1-18.

After the Crucifixion, Jesus appears to the Apostles, charging them as His missionaries throughout the Roman Empire.—Matthew 28:18-20, Acts 1:8.

An angel turns Philip from city-wide evangelism to individual missionary work when he converts and baptizes an Ethiopian eunuch.—Acts 8:26-39, 35-38.

Paul expresses his desire to see the Roman Christians and his conviction that the Gospel he is preaching is God's power to save from sin.—Romans 1:8-16.

Paul writes his longing for the unbelieving Jews to know, accept and call upon Christ to be saved.—Romans 10:1-18.

MEMORY VERSE:—"But ye shall receive powers after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."—Acts 1:8.

THE CHURCH OBEYED

Christ Commanded To Evangelize

(Editor's note:—The following material relating to tomorrow's Sunday School lesson is based on copyrighted outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of Churches in the U.S. and is used by permission.)

By R.H. RAMSEY
Let us begin today's lesson with the final paragraph of the Gospel according to St. Matthew containing our Lord's staggering claim to omniscience. His command to evangelize and His covenant with the disciples.

After the Crucifixion, the 11 disciples went to the Galilean mountain where they had first been gathered together by Jesus (Mark 3:13-19, Luke 6:12-16).

There Jesus met them and set forth His Claim to omniscience in view of His Resurrection, His victory over sin, Satan, demons, disease and death. He had every right to make this statement. For God had given His risen Son a universal omniscience so that no early power could thwart His purposes and, ultimately, all enemies would be subdued by Him.

With this statement as a foundation, Jesus gives the command to evangelism. Note He does not tell them just to teach what He has taught. Rather He charges them to teach converts to observe—and obey—His teachings.

Then Jesus promises to be with His disciples, in-

Samaria, where His efforts brought about a wonderful revival of faith. Then he turned from city-wide evangelism to individual work with one person. In obedience to an angel's command Philip went into the Gaza Desert, where he met an Ethiopian eunuch who was returning home after a visit to Jerusalem. Philip preached to him of Jesus and salvation. The Ethiopian accepted Christ as his Savior, asking to be baptized. Philip did so, and the Ethiopian returned home a newborn man.

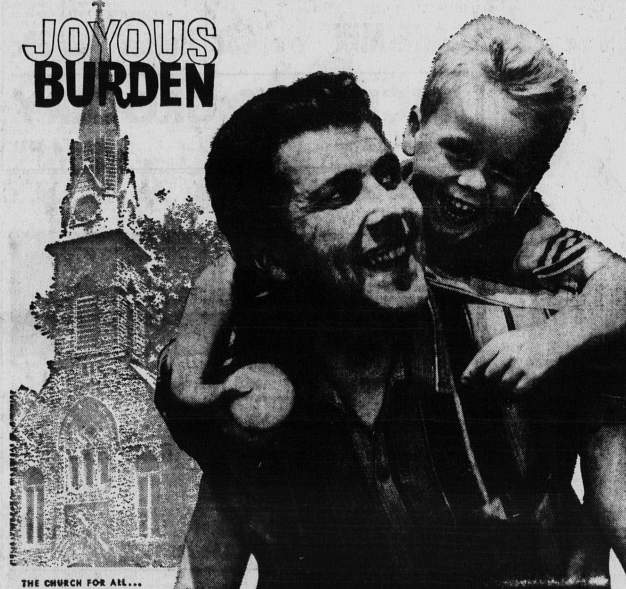

In Romans 1:8-16, Paul tells the Roman Christians of his longing to journey to Rome to see them. Unable to do so, he hears them with his own deep conviction that, for all who heard of Him, there was indeed the power of God; a power which could save from sin.

In the opening part of Romans, chapter 10, Paul reiterates what he has already stated so vividly at the beginning of chapter 9: that the greatest longing of his heart is that the Jews might be saved. More and more they were turning against Him, refusing to acknowledge His Messiahship, to gain salvation through acceptance of Him or to believe Him the Son of God and Savior of the World, despite His Resurrection.

Paul offers proof of the righteousness of Christian faith by quoting from the Jews' own revered Book of Law (Deuteronomy 30:12-14), and pointing out that the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ is the same God and Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Then Paul asks a series of penetrating questions: How can people call upon the Lord unless they believe in Him? How can they believe, if they have never heard of Him? How can they hear if no one preaches Christ to them? How can men preach Christ unless they are ap-

JOYOUS BURDEN

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ASK FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a schoolhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

There are men who carry the weight of the world on their shoulders—but this isn't one of them.
There is no burden so joyous as the responsibility of being DAD.
But—hold on there! Don't forget it is a burden. Someone's future is on your strong back.
And that someone's future involves soul as well as body.
If you want your boy to become a good ballplayer... well, you go out and catch with him.
And if you have hopes for his character, his courage, his commitment to things Right and True... yes, a boy loves to walk into HIS CHURCH with HIS DAD.

Island Bible Society Honors Departing Sec.

At a special meeting of the executive of the Island District of the Canadian Bible Society held Wednesday afternoon in the Kirk of St. James Hall in Charlottetown, words of farewell were tendered Rev. E.M.M. B. Wheelock, District Secretary for New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, who is leaving shortly to assume charge of the Northern Alberta District with headquarters at Edmonton, 10:18.

Mr. Wheelock who became secretary of the P.E.I. and New Brunswick District seven years ago, has given outstanding leadership in the work of the society in its worldwide work of the translation and distribution of the Scriptures.

Under his supervision the work in this province has experienced almost phenomenal development. Contributions have substantially increased and a "Bible House" established in Charlottetown to aid in the circulation of Bibles and the supplying of Christian literature to the Island protestant churches and people.

President Rev. T.H.B. Smeets who presided at the meeting in speaking of Mr. Wheelock's work said: "Charged with the supervision of all Bible Society work in our province, he has been able to carry forward under the leadership of a successor. We would place on record our debt of gratitude to Mr. Wheelock and offer him the warmest of all good wishes."

Curriculum Is Retained

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP)—The Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec decided Wednesday to retain a new Sunday school curriculum, in spite of charges that it teaches atheism.

The said the curriculum's primary book says the first 11 chapters of the Bible dealing with creation of the world are not history but "myths."

"We would be teaching atheistic material if we taught this in our churches," she said. In a prepared statement Mrs. Harmon also argued "this literature denies insistently and subtly the very power of God."
