

The Daily Examiner

OCTOBER 9, 1885.

Death of L. McMillan, Esq., M. L. C.

In the death of Lanchlan McMillan, Esquire, M. L. C., of Western Cove head, our Island has lost one of its most respected and useful citizens.

Mr. McMillan was an excellent farmer and was always among the first to take hold of improvements and carry them out.

Mr. McMillan leaves a family of eight children, to all of whom, and his afflicted partner, we tender our warmest sympathy in their sad bereavement.

—We have no desire to continue the discussion about the qualifications or dis-qualifications of Judge Alley for the position of Revising Officer; and it is not necessary to notice the further remarks of the Herald of last Wednesday.

—There seems to have been an impression created, by some expressions of Sir John A. Macdonald, that, in all cases where it was possible, the County Court Judges were to be Revising Officers, from their decision there being no appeal.

—The Patriot's emphatic denial that Mrs. D. Ferguson was made the subject of annoying remarks in the columns of that paper, in reference to her butter exhibits, is lacking in the essential element.

The farmers have not forgotten how a man, who never did much good for the country, rang the changes against the late James C. Pope and Senator Carvell, regarding "oat rings."

STUDENTS will please take notice that the Charlottetown Business College re-opens for Study and Practical Instruction, on Thursday, 1st October.

Notes.

Exhibition closed at 3 o'clock to-day.

Owing to rainy weather there was no parade of horses to-day.

Our thanks are due to A. McNeill, Esq., and his efficient assistants, for courtesies extended.

Mr. Allan S. Thompson, of Halifax, shows a specimen of jig saw fretwork, in which skill and care highly creditable are displayed.

The very fine herd of cattle shown by John Dewar, Esq., Lot 48, attracted much attention and admiration while passing through our streets to-day.

Mrs. Rose's Magic Healer occupies a modest position at the Exhibition. We presume it is there, as it ought to be everywhere, for use in case of accident.

Mr. Frank Boyer, of Lot 48, had on the grounds yesterday, besides his other exhibibits, a very fine four-year-old gelding, by "Challenger," weighing 1,600.

George Tweedy, Esq., gratified the assembled farmers yesterday by exhibiting his beautiful young imported thoroughbred stallion. Prizes were not given for thoroughbreds.

We are requested to convey the thanks of the exhibitors in King's County, to Mr. C. L. M. for his kindness in making provision for the return of their stock this afternoon.

Among the animals admired at the Exhibition was a handsome stallion named by Mr. John H. Dingwell, Morell, named Capt. J. H. H. has been a successful prizetaker at the County Exhibitions, and is quite creditable to his owner.

Alderman Kelly, of Portland, N. B., had on exhibition two specimens of carriages, manufactured at his works. One, a top buggy, is a very comfortable and well-finished vehicle. The workmanship displayed on it is highly creditable to Mr. Kelly and those employed in his establishment.

The Commissioners of the Provincial Exhibition Grounds tender their sincere thanks to the owners and care-takers of the live stock exhibited there, for the magnanimous way in which they consented to allow the animals to remain on the grounds the second night, which was unavoidably caused by the unfavorable weather of the opening day.

In the prize list of short-wool sheep, as published yesterday, there is a mistake. It was for yearling ewes that F. L. Hazard got first and third prizes—not for ewes having reared lambs this season. The prize winners in the latter class were—1st, H. Longworth, Glynwood; 2nd, B. E. Wright, Royalty; 3rd, H. Longworth, Glynwood.

The Holstein cattle imported by Benjamin Heartz, Esq., were shown on the Exhibition grounds yesterday and very greatly admired. A calf from Mr. Heartz's Holstein herd was purchased by His Lordship, Bishop McIntyre, on private terms; but it is significant that Mr. Heartz could have allowed the calf to go to Nova Scotia by accepting an offer bordering on $200.

Miller Bros. are exhibiting three or four specimens of sewing machines, among which is the "New Raymond," a very superior machine, being simple in its parts and durable and capable of doing all classes of work. This firm, besides doing a large trade in sewing machines, are also extensively engaged in the sale of organs. They have two or three varieties on exhibition among which is the D-minion Organ, Bowmanville, which took first prize last month at the World's Exhibition, held at Antwerp, Belgium.

The special exhibit of vegetables, etc., grown from seed supplied by George Carter, Saedman, of Great George Street, is a very fine one. The heaviest dozen turnips, grown by George Tweedy, Esq., North River, weighed 150 pounds. The heaviest half-dozen weighed 80 1/2 pounds. The heaviest single turnip weighed 15 pounds. The circumference of largest turnip, 33 inches. The heaviest half dozen mangels weighed 94 pounds. The heaviest specimen, 18 1/2 pounds. The tallest fodder corn measured 13 feet 7 inches in height.

The walking match for horses, mares and geldings took place at Victoria Park this forenoon, in presence of His Honor the Lieutenant Governor and a large number of spectators. The judges were J. B. Hamlin, William Miller and James Tuplin, Esqs. Ten horses were entered by the following gentlemen:—Albert Boswell, Lot 49; Hon. D. Ferguson, East River; John McMillan, Brackley Point Road; Archd. McLean, North River; Robt. A. Longworth, Glenwood; Wm. Brehaut, City; H. M. McLeod, Dunstaffnage; D. C. McLeod, City; F. G. Ford, Highfield, and B. McMillan, Brackley Point Road. The course was from the west end of the large field on Brighton Road to the fence which divides Government House Farm from Victoria Park. The first prize, given by the Government, was won by Mr. H. M. McLeod's horse in three straight heats. Three more heats were then walked for the second and third prizes presented by Dennis Murphy, Esq. The second prize was won by Mr. B. McMillan's horse, and the third by Mr. Donald McMillan's. The heats were, in every case, well contested, and very exciting at the close.
