OBITUARY

Inserted by the family.

MR. J. STEWART BURNS

The death of Mr. J. Stewart Burns of Lower Freetown occurred at the Prince County Hospital on Tuesday, May 19, 1964, in his 61st year.

He was born in Freetown, the son of the late Abijah Burns and Mary MacKay on November 6th, 1903. He married Eva J. Campbell. He was a member of the Free Church of Scotland.

Left to mourn his passing are his wife, son Morris of Hamilton, Ontario and four grandchildren.

The funeral service was held at the Free Church of Scotland, Cape Traverse and was conducted by Rev. Kenneth Cameron. The following Psalms were sung, "The Lord's My Shepherd", "I To The Hills Will Lift My Eyes", "Take Comfort Christians". Mr. Cameron took for his text, "Good Hope Through Grace", and is found in 2nd Thessalonians verse 16.

The pallbearers were Messers Walter Reeves, Alfred Reeves, William Rogers, Donald Bernard, Wilfred Hammill, Henry Reeves.

The funeral arrangements were under the direction of J.L. Davison.

The floral triutes were many and beautiful.

Burial was in the church cemetery.

EXILE RECOGNIZED

DAR ES SALAAM (Reuters) The government of the new united Republic of Tanganyika and Zanzibar will recognize the Angolan "government in exile" headed by Holden Roberto, the government party newspaper Nationalist said Monday. Holden is in Dar es Salaam for a meeting of the African liberation "committee of nine" which opened Wednesday and is hearing petitions from various nationalist movements.

DROPS AUSSIE TERM

MELBOURNE (Reuters) — The term "new australian" for immigrants had been officially dropped in favor of "new settlers," Immigration Minister Hubert Opperman said Monday. The term "new Australian" was very descriptive but was at times used with an intonation of contempt and derision, he told a gathering of students.

ADDRESS UNKNOWN

TRIKKALA, Greece (AP)— At age 19, Athanassois Anagnostopoulos wrote his uncle in the U.S. asking for a wristwatch. Recently, at age 65, he got the letter back, marked "unknown" and with postmark indications that it had been sent to almost every state in search of uncle John Anagostopoulos. "It was sad and fascinating to read what I wrote my uncle 46 years ago," said Athanassois.
