AT TRACADIE.

—AND—

Crand - Picnic
On September 20th.

To see the Church, to be charmed by games, oratory and music and to be entertained in most royal manner, will be the invariable delight of all so fortunate to attend. Without further details suffice to say, that we guarantee a big time. The sermon on the occasion will be preached by a distinguished pulpit orator.

Besides reduced fares on all regular trains between Ch'town, Souris and George town, special trains will leave Ch'town at 9.30 o'clock, local, and Souris at 8 local; returning will leave Tracadie at 5 o'clock.

Should the weather prove unfavorable it will be held on the following day.

MRS. KENT'S RECITAL.

The large and cultured audience assembled in the Opera House last evening was an unmistakable tribute to Mrs. Kent's powers as an elocutionist, as well as a proof of her growing popularity in her native town. Everyone evidently expected a rare treat; and no one was disappointed. Mrs. Kent's interpretation of her selections was exceedingly skillful. The pathetic and the humorous, the tragic and the funny, were all expressed and conveyed with that rare combination of mobility of voice and face and grace of action, showing forth the feeling of the author, which belongs only to the true artist in elocution. We have rarely if ever heard a finer thing of its kind than her rendition of The Lady of Shalott; while the Ride to the Fort at the last was a splendid climax of her performance. She was repeatedly honored and gave, in response, several light and pleasing selections not on the programme.

A fitting musical accompaniment to Mrs. Kent's delightful recital, was given by Professor Earle, Miss Amy Earle, Miss Vere Hyndman, Mr. Charles Earle, Mr. Ed. Mitchell and Mr. Grant, with voice, piano and violin.

Things to Make a Note of.

One of the prettiest millinery windows in town is that of Messrs. James Paton & Co. The trimming is the work of Mr. J. A. McLaren. The window is a mass of flowers and foliage, feathers and quills, typical of the forest.

Don't miss the sports tonight. The light will be fine—32 arc lights all around the track. All the best men are entered.

See the list of entries for the sports tonight. The games will start at 8 o'clock sharp. The half-mile will be run off in heats, best 2 in 3. This race will be finished without the contestants leaving the track.

The two Summerside flyers will take part in the bicycle sports tonight. Their names do not appear on the score cards on account of their entries coming in too late for printing.

Miss M. G. McKeiver has been attending all the principal millinery openings in Montreal and Toronto. She will be ready to meet you this week.—Moore & McLeod.

MILITARY SPORTS.—The military sports at the driving park, tomorrow, will include lemon cutting and tilting at the ring.

Is your winter underwear that was left over from last fall in good shape? Perhaps you want an extra pair of winter underpants. We have half a hundred pair with no vest to match. Perhaps you want a pair. They are on our bargain counter and they are yours at a snap. They consist of lamb's wool imported, hand-knit natural wool and lots of them are unshrinkable. Try a pair.—Jas. Paton & Co.

DIED

At Nine Mile Creek, Sept the 2nd, inst. after a lingering illness which she bore with Christian patience and resignation to the Divine Will, Eliza Foster, the beloved wife of Hector McLaine, in the 60th year of her age. Deceased has left a sorrowing husband and a family of two sons and four daughters to mourn the loss of an affectionate wife and a kind and loving mother.

It is hard to break the tender cord
When love has bound the heart;
Tis hard so hard, to speak the words,
Must we forever part.

Dearest mother, we have laid thee
In the peaceful grave's embrace;
But thy memory will be cherished
Till we see thy heavenly face.

We're after the Man

who has come to the conclusion that he's paying too much for his clothing—who's got an idea that he ought to be getting tweed for the money he's paying. We want that man to have his next suit made of Moncton Tweed and we'll take our chances on getting him for a steady customer.
