DEATH NOTICE

JAMES D. FLOOD

On June 5th, the many friends and neighbors of James D. Flood, South Melville, were shocked and saddened to lean of his unexpected passing away.

Although not enjoying good health, for some months, the call came much sooner, than was anticipated by his own family, and by whom he was tenderly cared for, and, was only confined to bed, for less than a week.

Having attained the age of eighty years, born at Maplewood, Kelly's Cross, son of the late James Flood and Hannah Monaghan, he was a member of a family of twelve children, all of whom have predeceased him, excepting one sister and brother.

In 1917 he married Mary E. Ready of South Melville, who survives him, along with a famiy of three daughters, namely, (Patricia) Mrs. Ronald MacAulay, of Montreal, (Mercedes), Mrs. Harold Donahue, of Cornwall, (Sylvia), Mrs. Morgan McGaughey,, of Charlottetown, two sons, Joseph at home and Brendon, employed in Charlottetown. The eldest daughter, Marion predeceased him eight years ago in Montreal, while another daughter, Bernadette, died in infancy.

He was a man of quiet, unassuming disposition, and deep Christian convictions. honest and industrious, he was an example, to all who knew him, and will be deeply mourned, by his devoted family.

An ardent lover of nature, in all it's various forms, as well as animals, he was also an experienced veterinary, cheerfully responding to the many calls, he received, in by gone years, of an industrious nature. he worked hard, and even during the past winter, took part, in all the duties to be attended to, on a farm.

During his illness he was regularly visited by his pastor, Rev. James Smith, who administered the last rites, of the Holy Catholic Church, to which, he had always been a faithful adherent, and who, was present when he passed peacefully away, surrounded by all the members of his sorrowing family.

The respect in which he was held was fully attested to by the throngs of people, who visited the home and attended the funeral, obsequies, held at St. Joseph's Church Kelly's Cross, on Monday, June 8th. Solemn Requiem High Mass, was celebrated by his nephew, Rev. E.L. Murray of Summerfield, with Rev. James Smith as deacon, Rev. W.A. Keefe, as sub-deacon and, Rev. Austin Bradley, as Master of Ceremonies.

Rev. Charles McCarthy and Rev. Harold Croken were present in the Sanctuary.

The committal service at graveside was conducted by Father Murray. Pallbearers were, John Dixon, Lorne Noonan, John Trainor, William Dunsford, Harry MacKenzie and Ronald Greenan.

Besides his immediate family, he leaves one sister, Mrs. Frank Murray, at the Lennox Nursing Home, in Charlottetown, and a brother, Frank also of Charlottetown, as well as a large number of nieces and nephews here in New Brunswick and the United States.

Beautiful floral tributes were in evidence and, one hundred and seventy seven (177) Masses, were received, seventeen (17) enrollments, and one hundred and eighty six (186) cards and letters, of sympathy.

May he rest in peace.

ODE TO A FISHING TRIP

On a bright and windy morning,
July 1st in '59,
A horn beeped at my window
And a voice said 'it is time
We were on our way a'fishing;
Captain says, the water's fine.'

For a day of deep-sea fishing
O'er the hills the Fords did go,
And we got to Murray Harbour
Ere the cock began to crow.

"To the boat, my hearty farmers",
Was our captain's first command,
And we sped off to the ocean
With scarce a thought of land.

Friend Clarence was the first to fail
And a poor excuse had he,
"There is no room for my fish-hook
In the bottom of the sea."

"So I'll sit and chew McDonald's,
For the protein it contains
Will surely cure the awful qualms
My stomach now sustains."

Then Allison, our City friend,
A sea-sick pill did try
To stop the awful nausea
That boiled away inside.

He was sitting there amidships
And one could not fail to see,
That the future for poor Allison
Was very black indeed.

And now we gaze at Houghton,
Who for forty years and more,
Had fished the waters of the Gulf
With never a stomach sore.

Like the sea-king of Valhalla
He said my day is thru
And I hereby will my fishing gear
To you, and you, and you.

The fathers of large families
In Diefenbaker's time
Whose family allowance
Isn't worth an old-time dime.

Then a voice came from the stern sheets
Saying 'put the craft ashore'
As the widows of these sea-sick men
Will haunt us evermore.

I could tell the voice was Billie's,
With a tell-tale burp or two
And I saw the men's complexion
Had turned a ghastly hue."

Then up spoke tiny Ivan
Saying 'Grand-dad can't we stay'?
I am catching lots of fishes
And it's such a lovely day.

"Tut, tut my child" said Grand-dad
To shore we have to go
To feed the chicks and milk the cow—
Those things you ought to know

Now for the balance of this crew
The short patrol has tried
To hire them to pitch their tents
Down by the ocean-side.

To guide the faltering footsteps
Of fishermen who failed
To bang on to their breakfasts
On a windy holiday.

E. J. Carrier, Earnscliffe

HOW YOUR LIVER BILE BREAKS DOWN FAT

Laboratory tests have now proved that liver bile emulsifies fat . . . actually breaks it down. It is an established medical fact that when liver bile is added to fatty solids, the fat is broken down and forms a smooth, easy-flowing mix.

In your body, precious liver bile helps break down fat the same way. Many foods reach the digestive tract as undigested fatty solids. Your golden liver bile helps break down this fat . . . unblocks it . . . for easier and more complete digestion.

Carter's Little Liver Pills exclusive formula of natural, vegetable ingredients relieves irregularity gently and effectively. At the same time, it actually improves the flow of liver bile needed to break down fat in your body.

So when you feel sluggish, headachy, nervous and need a laxative, get Carter's Little Liver Pills. Remember, Carter's not only relieves irregularity, but actually improves the flow of liver bile needed to break down fat.
