PARKMAN—In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Bessie Parkman who departed this life five years ago today.
Lovingly remembered by her son, J. Percy Darte.

PARKMAN—In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Bessie Parkman, who passed away October 12, 1951.
Gone from me but leaving memories.
Death can never take away. Memories that will always linger. While upon this earth I stay.
Always remembered by daughter, Hazel.

PARKMAN—In loving memory of our dear grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Parkman who departed this life five years ago today.
Lovingly remembered by granddaughters, Ruby Larter and Mary Darte.

JOHNSTON—In loving memory of Garfield J. Johnston, who departed this life October 13th, 1955.
We often think of by-gone days. When we were all together. The family chain is broken now. But sweet memories live forever. Fondly remembered by wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM

GERTRUDE CAMPBELL
The funeral of Gertrude Campbell of Georgetown and Gloucester, Mass., was held at the Basilica on August 21st. Rev. Clare MacDonald, sang the Requiem Mass and conducted the services at the grave.
The pall bearers were M. Weeks, H. McCannell, G. MacDonald, Wm. Doyle, G. Garrett and Don MacNaughton. Her death was a shock to her relatives and friends.
Her fellow boarders praise her courtesy and kindness. "Never an unkind word about anyone," is the tribute of her landlady and friend of twenty years, Mrs. McCannell.

To the older people at times unable to attend to business and shopping she was always available to give meticulous attention to their little needs.
There is general regret that there was not time to show appreciation for her unflinching kindness, but all look forward to a happy reunion in their heavenly home.
In the meantime Gertrude will not be forgotten for "It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead." "Eternal rest grant to her O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her."
