WILLIE AND ME.

A SCOTCH BALLAD.

As wanderin' my lane down by sweet Birkenshaw, An' thinkin' on days that are noo gan awa', I noticed twa couthee wee birds on a tree—Thinks I, noo that's unco like Willie an' me.

They lilted about, an' sae blithely they sang;
They flatter'd and courted, I kenna how lang; My heart was as happy an' full as could be,
They minded me sae o' my Willie an' me.

I wonder if a' the wee birds o' the dell, As kindly and fondly their love tales could tell,
And I wonder'd, if any twa mortals could be,
As happy an' leal as my Willie an' me.

They a' may be happy—why should they no?
An' lassies fu' meikle may think o' their joe;
But naething on earth, in the air or the sea,
Can be half sae happy as Willie an' me.

My Willie's sae guide, an' my Willie's sae kin,
And then, oh, thank Heaven, dear Willie is mine;
In the joy o' my heart, the tear drops frae my e'e,
To think we're sae happy, my Willie an' me.

The hero may sigh for mair laurels, the loon;
The tyrant may grasp at a kingdom or crown; Contented an' happy I'd live till I dee, Though they tak' a' the world but my Willie frae me.

THE BATTLE OF LIFE.

One of the most significant phrases yet uttered by that felicitous writer, Charles Dickens, is the one which stands at the head of this article. Our life, from the cradle to the grave, is a series of antagonisms. Sickness, sorrow, temptation, sin, remorse, poverty, fatigue, hunger—these are the enemies which wage a continual fight against us. Within and without, the foes of the flesh and foes of the spirit, generally acting in concert, make our life one long and earnest battle. And in this strife how many fall, wounded and faint, and yield to the enemy, fierce or subtle, which is fighting against the soul.
How different the circumstances and the inherent powers of those who are carrying on this conflict. Some are left from the first to contend single-handed and unaided, while others are surrounded by a friendly band who encourage, by cheering words, valuable advice and efficient aid, him who, left to himself, would fall. Some have an innate strength and energy of spirit which knows no defeat, while others yield ingloriously to the most insignificant foes.

There is no spectacle more interesting, more sublime, than a young man going out alone in the world to fight the battle of life. There are thousands every year leaving their homes to enter the arena of conflict and contend as they best may with the adverse influences which beset their paths. And how often do we observe that those who seemed weakest and least furnished for the contest are most triumphant. It is in his own soul that the young man finds his most efficient armory. If he can draw weapons from thence which may parry the thrusts of his adversaries, there is no fear of his being vanquished.
Sometimes a young man seems for a time to succumb to evil influences and we deem him lost, but he finally rises again above temptations and triumphs at last. He has, perhaps, been drawn back from destruction by the influences which were shed around his childhood by a wise and gentle mother. The influence of a mother's early prayers and counsels seems but a slender cord, but it is fastened to the tenderest spot in our bosoms, and if, in after life, we stray from the right path, that little cord will be found tugging at our heartstrings.

In this battle of life the most sublime achievements, the most glorious victories are won in silence and in secret. The struggle goes on where the world cannot see, and the final reward to the conquering spirit cannot be fully realized until it has passed away from the world altogether. If we were gifted with keener perceptions, we might every day witness upon earth triumphs which would shed around poor human nature a halo of glory, and cause us to remember and realize that man was truly created in the image of God.—Boston Museum.

ANECDOTE OF GEN. JACKSON.—The Hon. _____, who was a Baptist preacher, and Lieut. Governor, had at one and the same time been in the service of the Lord, and of the State of Illinois, becoming dissatisfied with the honors or profits, or both, of the posts he held, determined to resign them, and devote his time and talents to the assistance of the administration in carrying on the general Government. Accordingly he went to Washington and laid his case before the President. He stated his pretensions and wishes, narrated at some length all the prominent events of his political life, dwelling especially upon his untiring devotion to the Democratic party, the sacrifices he had submitted to, the exertions he had made in its behalf, and its consequent indebtedness to him, but said not a word of what he had done for the cause of religion. General Jackson heard the clerical aspirant through, in silence, and after musing for a moment, put the following question to him:
"Mr. K, are you not a minister of the Gospel?"
"I am, sir," was the reply.

"Then, sir," said the General, with his usual quiet dignity,
"you hold already a higher office than any in my gift—an office whose duties properly performed, require your whole attention; and really I think the best I can do for you will be to leave you at liberty to devote your whole time to them, for, from what you tell me, I fear that hitherto they have been neglected."

FINE CAMBRIC HANDKERCHIEFS.—A most wonderful piece of linen has been wrought for the World's Exhibition in the North of Ireland, near Warrington, by a weaver named George Haddock.
It is a web of fine cambric handkerchiefs. Small print can be read through it, and yet the web is so close and compact, that a single thread would not be distinguished without the aid of a microscope, or rather web glass. The cambric when held up to the light, looks like a fine and airy fabric. In the production of this beautiful gossamer-looking cambric, Mr. Haddock almost realized what classic fiction ascribed to the perfume of Arachne, who, as mythologists inform us, was converted into a spider on account of equal-ling that ingenious little artist in her production of fine webs.

FILE YOUR PAPERS.—Having occasion a few days since, to look into the files of this Journal, published twenty and twenty-five years ago, we could not but think of the satisfaction every man would enjoy in the possession of such a record. A newspaper is the dagger-repertoire of its time, and in those diminutive, dingy sheets, we had before us our present village in full life, as it existed a quarter of a century ago. The men of business, and merchandise, and wares, and produce, each eulogistic as now of their stock in trade; the politician, zealous in the maintenance of the right centred side; and in him his party; the competition and strife, the fears and hopes of all were before us as in real life. Here was the announcement of the marriage of those who have long passed the meridian, and are in the "sere and yellow leaf" of age; and here, too, was the record of the departed, whose afflicted successors are among us still. The newspaper itself, with its grotesque advertisements and general typography, is the impersonation of the mechanic arts of those days, and exhibits the contrast between that period and this.

If every young man who takes a newspaper now, will file it carefully, in his old age he will not only have a substantial mirror of the events with which he was contemporary, to gratify his curiosity, but will have a record of important facts to be obtained from no other source. The trouble and expense of filing and binding your newspapers is slight, and will be well repaid.—James's Journal.

FIENDISH.—In Rock Creek, Indiana, Mrs. Druilla Owen was discovered in an attempt to pour melted lead into her husband's ear while he slept. He woke up just in season to save himself.

Men are like bagles; the more brass they contain the further you can hear them. Ladies are like tulips; the more modest and retiring they appear, the better you love them.

PATENT ARTIFICIAL SLATE, And Unchangeable Metallic Paints; PROOF AGAINST FIRE & WATER!
Manufactured by the Patentee, in Colchester, Nova Scotia.
THE ARTIFICIAL SLATE is the product of a mixture of mineral substances known to be the best non-conductors of heat as well as the most indestructible; the Chemical affinity of which converts the surface of materials covered, into a Coating of Actual Slate—Proof against FIRE and WATER. Thus the laws of nature are made to accomplish results as surprising as they are useful, by rendering Wooden fabrics as durable as brick or Stone, and less pervious to moisture, and consequently preventing decay and destruction from corroding influences hitherto supposed unattainable.

The principal ingredients are Alumina, Silica and the Oxides of Iron. The adhesive quality of the latter not only binds and attracts the particles together, but the substance covered also. The longer exposed to the weather the more powerful the attraction, and consequently the harder the Slate. As various shades of colour are obtained, Brick buildings may be made impervious to moisture, and the fashionable colours of either Free Stone or Granite. The oil must be evaporated by the action of the weather before it is Fire proof, which will take from nine to twelve months.

The METALLIC PAINTS, Purple and Red, are offered as Weather and Water Proof solely. Their base being Iron, secures them from Galvanic action so fatal to lead and other Paints on Iron work—and their chemical combination makes it impossible, that any change should take place from atmospheric influence or the action of Salt Water and Sulphureted hydrogen so prevalent in Sea Ports and Tidal Harbours. They surpass all Paints yet discovered in Cheapness and Durability, which render them pre-eminently adapted to the covering of all kinds of Iron work, such as Shipping, Mills, Bridges, Steam Machinery, Railway Cars, and Iron Railings. The METALLIC PAINTS have been analysed by Professor Hays of Boston. The following is an extract from his Certificate:—"As a permanent pigment, this mineral must rank with the most indestructible and unchangeable bases. For covering Metallic Ware, its composition shows that it is eminently fitted.

(Signed) AUGT. A. HAYS, State Assayer." Directions.—Artificial Slate. Mix the powder with pure Boiled Linseed Oil and a little Spirit Turpentine to the consistency of very thick Paint, and apply with a common Brush, being careful to keep the mixture well stirred while putting it on. One pound will cover ten square feet with two Coats.

If Shingles have been on for years, it will be necessary to sweep off the moss and lint with a stiff broom; two or three coats of this material will make a perfect Slate Roof, proof against Fire and Water.

The METALLIC PAINTS are mixed and put on like an ordinary paint.
JOHN ROSS, Patentee.
FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 13, 1850.

Mr. J. W. IRISH.
DEAR SIR,—Please send us two more barrels of your Artificial Slate. We have seen some of the good effects of it at the last fire.
Some of the Roofs covered with it did not catch at all, and when the walls were burnt some of the roofs came down in one piece, and others were the means of saving the building, especially one roof alongside of the Bank B. N. A., which also was one means of saving the Bank.

Please see that it is on board of the first boat, as it might be neglected and stored.
Your obedient Servants, STEWART & NEILL.

ROSS' METALLIC PAINTS.—We have already called public attention to the high estimation in which the Metallic Paints, manufactured by John Ross, Esq., TRURO, are held by those who have had occasion to use them. Certificates of a highly satisfactory character in praise of these articles of Provincial manufacture appear elsewhere, in this issue, and from information afforded by parties who have similarly applied them, we can safely endorse the opinions therein contained.—Halifax Sun.

CURES FOR THE UNCURED!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF SCROFULA OR KING'S EVIL.
Extract of a Letter from Mr. J. H. Aliday, 209, High Street, Cheltenham, dated the 22d of January, 1850.
To Professor HOLLOWAY.

Sir,—My eldest son, when about three years of age, was afflicted with a Glandular Swelling in the neck, which after a short time broke out into an Ulcer. An eminent medical man pronounced it a very bad case of Scrofula, and prescribed for a considerable time without effect.— The disease then for four years went on gradually increasing in virulence, when, besides the ulcer in the neck, another formed below the left knee, and a third under the eye, besides seven others on the left arm, with a tumor between the eyes which was expected to break. During the whole of the time my suffering boy had received the constant advice of the most celebrated medical gentlemen at Cheltenham, besides being for several months at the General Hospital, where one of the surgeons said that he would amputate the left arm, but that the blood was so impure, that if that limb were taken off it would be then even impossible to subdue the disease. In this desperate two months' perseverance in their use, the Ulcer gradually began to disappear, and the discharge from all the ulcers perceptibly decreased, and at the expiration of eight months they were perfectly healed, and the boy thoroughly restored to the blessings of health, to the astonishment of a large circle of acquaintances, who could testify to the truth of this miraculous case. Three years have now elapsed without any recurrence of the malady, and the boy is now as healthy as heart can wish. Under these circumstances I consider that I should be truly ungrateful were I not to make you acquainted with this wonderful cure, effected by your medicines after every other means had failed.

(Signed) J. H. ALIDAY.
CURE OF ACUTE RHEUMATISM OF FOUR YEARS'
STANDING.
Extract of a Letter from Mr. John Pitt, Dudley, 19th Jan. 1850,
To Professor HOLLOWAY.

Sir,—It is with the greatest pleasure that I write to thank you for the benefit I have received from your Pills and Ointment, which have completely cured me of the Rheumatism, under which I suffered for this last four years, at times I was so bad as hardly to be able to walk.
I had tried every kind of medicine that was recommended without receiving any benefit. I at last thought I would give your medicines a trial and purchased from Mr. Hollin, Chemist of the Town, two boxes of Pill and two of Ointment, and in three weeks through them and the blessing of God, I was restored to health and strength, and am now as well able to walk as ever I was in my life. I am well known in this parish, having been sixty-five years in it, with an exception of ten years I served in the 24th Regiment of Foot.

(Signed) JOHN PITT.
CURE OF A BAD LEG OF MORE THAN SIXTY YEARS' STANDING.

Mr. Barker, of No. 5, Graham's Place, Draypool, near Hull, had ulcers on his leg from the age of eighteen until upwards of eighty, and although for many years he had sought the first advice in the country, nothing was found to cure them. He very often suffered most excruciating pain for long periods together, which incapacitated him from attending to his business. He had given up all hopes of getting a cure when at last he was persuaded to try Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which he did, and however wonderful it may appear, the leg was thoroughly healed by their means, and by continuing to use the Pills alone after his leg was well, he has become in health so hale and hearty as now to be more active than most men of fifty.

N. B.—The truth of this extraordinary statement can be vouched for by Mr. J. C. Reinhardt, 22, Market Place, Hull. February 20th, 1850 CURE OF A DESPERATE CASE OF RINGWORM, OF SIX YEARS' STANDING.

One of the most eminent Surgeons in Lima (the Capital of Peru) had a child covered with Ringworm for more than six years; it vainly exhausted all his art in his endeavours to effect a cure. Not succeeding, he consulted among his brethren, the most celebrated medical practitioners of the City, but nothing was found to do the child service. When he was persuaded by Mr. Joseph P. Hague, the English Chemist and Druggist, residing at 74, Calle de Pallanco, to try Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which was done, and after using six large Pots of the Ointment, with a proportion of the Pills, the child was radically cured, to the surprise of the whole medical profession. The name of the parent, from motives of delicacy is withheld.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—
Bad Legs Chicago-foot Fistulas Sore throats Bad Breasts Chibblains Gout Skin diseases Burns Chapped-hands Scoury Glandular Scoury Bunions Corns (Soft) Swellings Sore heads Bites of Mos- Caners Lumbago Tumours chetoes and Contracted & Piles Ulcers Sand-Flies Stiff joints Rheumatism Wounds Cocoa-Bay Elephantiasis Scalds Yaws Sore Nipples

Sold by the Proprietor at 244 Strand (near Temple Bar) London, and by GEO. T. HASZARD, Agent for P. E. Island, in Boxes and Pots, at 2s, 5s, 8s, and 20s each. There is a very considerable saving in taking the larger sizes.

DR. EVANS'S PAIN KILLER.

NO Medicine has been discovered that is so happily adapted to use internally as drops to be taken, and yet perform such wonders when applied externally as a wash, bath, or by friction.

USE IT IN THIS MANNER.
For Common headache, simple bathing will answer. For sudden colds and hard coughs, [to cure immediately.] put one teaspoonful in four of molasses, and take three spoonfuls of the mixture as often as you cough. Bathe the neck, breast and sides with it to cure soreness of a cough.

Asthma, Phthisic and sore breasts—for speedy relief, 30 drops in molasses, and bathe freely with it clear, and keep on flannel wet in it.
For bowel complaint, cholera morbus, cholera and dysentery,—a teaspoonful in a gill of milk and molasses, well mixed; if the pain is severe, bathe the bowels with it, and in cholera repeat the dose every hour.

For Dyspepsia and sick stomach, 20 to 30 drops in sweetened water, morning, noon and night, till all symptoms yield, and you are restored to perfect health.

For all rheumatic complaints, lame neck, swelled face, sore throat and toothache, 60 drops as above, three times a day; bathe the parts well, rub with a warm cloth, and take a teaspoonful of mustard seed nightly, in milk or molasses, at bed time.

For burns, scalds, and all sores, pricks, stings or old sores, bathe well and often the parts affected.

For sudden colds or croup, 30 drops in Molasses, every hour, and bathe freely with it.

For canker, sore mouth and stomach, chicken pox, or measles, 30 drops, twice a day in sweet milk.

ASK FOR EVANS'S PAIN KILLER, AND TAKE NO OTHER.
A VOICE FROM NOVA SCOTIA.

DOCTOR EVANS'S PAIN KILLER, being fully tested in localities where it has been in general use, I deem it my duty to the public to annex a few of the many Certificates now in my possession, that all may know and be possessed of this VALUABLE MEDICINE.
C. V. POOR, Druggist, 19, Tremont Row Boston, Sole Proprietor.

This will certify I was affected with severe rheumatic Pain in my legs, proceeding from a severe cold, so much so, I could not walk
