COURSE OFFER

PURPOSE: To provide couples with an opportunity to become more aware of their individual responsibilities in their relationship.

The course will consist of four sessions:

1. AWARENESS OF MYSELF

A look at the struggle between personal freedom and responsibility to others.

2. MYSELF AS OTHERS SEE ME

The need for self confidence and the importance of honesty and trust.

3. HOW I SEE OTHER PEOPLE

On being fully aware of the needs and concerns of people around us.

4. GETTING TO KNOW YOU

The importance of listening and communicating effectively.

Sessions will be held on four consecutive Wednesday evenings at 8:00 p.m. beginning on Feb. 13th.

If you are interested, please contact Ian Glass or Jack Blanchard at the Student Services Office.

Faculty / Students

How about some intelligent conversation!!! In a relaxed atmosphere on Thursday afternoons. Topic -- your choice. Whom -- faculty and students. Where -- in the Barn. Thursday afternoons. Let us know what you want to talk about at the Student Union Office.

BARN

Being that this is Winter Carnival Week and by tomorrow, everyone should be into the spirit of the event, the Barn staff wish you a happy and healthy Carnival. Similar to Octoberfest, the Barn canteen will be running extra - low price specials plus refreshments for the four days of the Carnival. Menus will be posted by Tuesday in the Barn, so we ask you to watch for these signs and above all, have a BALL!!!

MANPOWER

Representatives from the Dalhousie University Masters of Business Administration School will be on campus on February 19, to interview potential M.B.A. students. The Masters of Business Administration Program is open to graduates in Arts, Science, Education and Business. If interested in an interview please contact the Canada Manpower Placement Office, Room 102, Main for an appointment.

O.F.Y.

Applications for 1974 Opportunities for Youth Program are available at the Canada Manpower Office, Room 102 Main Building.

Debate

A debate will be held at 8:00 p.m. Tue., Feb. 5th in Duffy amphitheatre. The topic will be -- "Be it resolved that polygamy is more desirable than polyandry in group sex." In other words it is preferred that the majority of the group be women rather than men.

The debate will be judged by Dean Ozman, Professor Roger Marley and Professor Robert Campbell and will be chaired by Professor M.M. Rahman.

Come out and watch the debate. It should be interesting, especially if the debaters do their research well.

Carnival Ball Blues

It has come to the attention of a number of single girls on this campus, that the male population at this university is comprised of a group of self-centered individuals, who think of nothing but themselves and their prestige. We have come to this conclusion for a very highly justifiable reason.

As everyone knows, the Carnival Ball will be coming up this Saturday. This is considered the biggest event of the year, but look around guys, is the girl sitting next to you in class going?!? You will see that the only girls going so far are those that are going steady or were lucky enough to be asked by a mature man! We say man because the majority of boys on this campus are just that -- little boys! Contrary to common belief -- if a male on this campus asks a girl to the Ball, she will not expect his undying love forever after. Also, contrary to common belief, no guy will get shot down if he asks a girl to the Ball because this is one of the very few times during the year that a girl can get dressed up and really enjoy herself.

Would it physically harm any male on this campus to give up three hours of his precious time to escort a girl to the Ball??? Think about it guys, maybe you'll enjoy yourself as much or even more than the girls!

Hopeful girls,
