SECOND EDITION

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JANUARY 30, 1880

A young man employed at the Meat Preserving Factory in this city, has been summoned before the Stipendiary Magistrate to answer the charge of obtaining money under false pretences. It appears that a few days ago the prisoner summoned sold a quantity of tallow to a chandler in this city, for which he received $30.00. The manager of the Meat Preserving Factory has claimed the tallow from the chandler, and said it was sold without his knowledge—hence the action.

ABOUT the largest and finest pile of firewood we have seen during the winter, is the one at the residence of the Rev. A. McLean, of Dundas, hauled by his many warm friends of that section of the Island. The quantity is amply sufficient for his household uses for a whole year. Rev. Mr. McLean highly appreciates and gratefully acknowledges this kindness of these friends and wishes them the richest blessings of Him who is not unjust to forget their labor of love.—Presbyterian.

A DRY goods clerk was summoned before the Stipendiary Magistrate yesterday (Thursday) charged with using threatening language towards a venerable member of the legal profession. The cause of his using this threatening language was: A few nights ago the V. M. of the L. P. was about returning, when he heard a number of persons under his bedroom window, acting disorderly. One of these pronounced the name of "Jehovah." The V. M. of the L. P. entered the dry goods store on the 28th, and accused a clerk for being the person who pronounced the sacred name, whereupon the clerk graciously informed the V. M. of the L. P. that if he persisted in making such a horrible accusation he would be obliged to make him "prove it." A war of words then followed. The clerk was victor then. But the V. M. of the L. P. determined to see the last. He summoned his opponent before Stipendiary Magistrate, who, upon hearing the charge, dismissed the case.

A MOST remarkable letter has just been received by the Quebec police from a Mrs. J. E. Dickieson, of St. Petersburg, Menard County, Illinois, U. S., stating that a letter written by her husband to her address had been picked up by an American on a wharf in this city, and mailed. She states that her husband left home for Chicago with stock, for which he received $600, and that he writes her to the effect that he was drugged in that city, and that when he came to himself he was on board a large steamer, confined as a prisoner and forced to work; that he had called for help but without success, and that the boat was at the time he wrote in the river, so that he intended, when his letter was finished, to throw it through a window at night. The poor woman very naturally expressed the fear that her husband may be crazed and in some hospital here, and innocently enquired if there are pirates upon the river here. His name is James Edward Dickenson, and he is described as follows: About 5 feet 6 inches in height, dark hair, blue eyes, weight 180 lbs., walks very erect, had a long moustache, and scar on his body 5 inches by 4, caused by a blister. The poor woman appears by her letter to be in sad distress, and entreats the police to make diligent enquiries and let her know the result. The detectives are looking into the matter.

It is rumored about town that Colin McLennan Esq., has been appointed Collector of Customs for Charlottetown.
On Friday evening, the 23rd inst., a few of the friends of temperance met in the Hall at Tyne Valley, for the purpose of re-organizing "Enterprise" Lodge, No. 95, of I. O. G. T. It is a little thing to speak a phrase
Of common comfort, which, by daily use,
Has almost lost its sense; yet on the ear
Of him who thought to die unmourned 'twill fall
Like choicest music, fill the glazing eye
With gentle tears, relax the knotted hand
To know the bonds of fellowship again.

A SOUP KITCHEN

IN connection with the Women's Temperance Union and Benevolent Society, will be opened for the winter if sufficiently assisted by the charitable public. In order to distribute judiciously, only those will be relieved who identify themselves with the Society, which will enable the committee to look particularly into each case. In view of the present pressing demands for help, the friends of the poor are urgently requested to send donations immediately and as regularly as possible, which will be received by Mrs. W. KENNEDY, Confectionery. Clothing will likewise be very acceptable.

Secretary of the Women's Benevolent Society.

A Child Smothered by its Mother.

A young Halifax woman, named Mary Hays, aged 22, a prostitute, got drunk on the 24th inst., and fought with her mother. Shortly afterwards she went to bed, taking with her her 5 months old child. Next morning, about 2 o'clock a policeman discovered the door of the house open and, on going up stairs, discovered the mother lying on the bed drunk, beside the lifeless form of her child. She had smothered it. The body of the child was removed to the morgue, and the woman to the station. This girl belongs to Windsor. She went to Halifax with her mother and sister two years ago, and the three have kept one of the worst dens in the city.

The Prospects for the Cattle Trade in the Maritime Provinces.

The Toronto Globe contains the following editorial reference to the cattle trade with England, and the prospects for the success of the trade in the Maritime Provinces:—"Recently a large cargo of 200 Nova Scotia cattle were despatched to England. It is to be hoped that the enterprise will prove successful, and thus furnish a great impetus to agriculture in the Provinces. From their proximity to the sea, Eastern cattle would have an advantage of $10 or $15 over ours, and we think that the advantage in point of cheapness of land is also on the side of the East. Of course we have the advantage in cheapness of cattle feed, but this is not so great as to furnish a reason why the Maritime Provinces should not compete with us. Hay is about $3 or $10 down there—about Toronto price. Straw is $1 dearer at the East; cats five cents a bushel dearer; potatoes, ten cents a bushel cheaper; cornmeal, curiously enough, is only $3.30 to $3.50 in Halifax, while it sells here at the higher of the two prices. Altogether the Eastern stockgrower would appear to have every chance in the English market."

Increase in the German Army.

THE "PEACE FORCE" TO BE RAISED TO 427,250 MEN.

A bill has been presented in the Bundsrath, proposing an addition of 11 new infantry regiments, and two of artillery, and one battalion of pioneers to the German army. One regiment of infantry to be Bavarian, two Saxon, and the rest Prussian. The bill also proposes an addition of thirty-two field batteries to the already existing artillery force. The changes contemplated would entail a permanent expenditure yearly of seventeen million marks, and a primary expenditure of twenty-seven million marks. The bill further provides that the strength of the army on a peace footing from April, 1881, to March, 1888, shall be one per cent. of the population, thereby raising the present peace force from 401,000 to 427,250. The preamble to the bill justifies the increase by reference to the comprehensive army reforms introduced by neighboring States, which leave the German army nominally in the rear, even after taking into consideration the newly-proposed army increasing infantry and artillery branches.

Lord Beaconsfield's Health.

The condition of Lord Beaconsfield's health is said to give reason for some alarm, although in view of the coming elections especially, his friends seek to keep his real condition as much a matter of secrecy as possible. A London despatch of the 21st inst., announced that "Lord Beaconsfield is confined to his room by what is pronounced a mild attack of bronchitis, although it is whispered in Government circles that apprehensions are entertained that he is suffering from something more serious than throat trouble." For some time past the great Conservative leader's health has been of a precarious nature, his whole frame apparently feeling the strain which years, together with almost continual labor and excitement, have brought to bear upon it. When called upon by some special emergency, or by matters of official business which demanded his attention, and could not be delegated to other hands, he had usually and almost invariably been able to rouse himself to the pitch required, and so far as the general public could judge, has exhibited the vivacity and physical elasticity of former years, but as soon as the occasion was passed, he suffered from the inevitable reaction. Lord Beaconsfield's constitution, which has been exceptionally good, has withstood the wear and tear to which he was subject, but even his friends do not anticipate that he will be able much longer to endure the pressure of public life. It is affirmed that an early retirement from office is the only wise course for the Premier to take, in view of his evidently increasing weakness and frequent recurring attacks of indisposition.
