

IN MEMORIAM

MR. JAMES GALLAGHER

A wave of sorrow spread over Kensington and vicinity on Jan. 31, when it became known that Mr. James Gallagher had passed away in the Prince County Hospital in his 43rd year.

James, as was affectionately known, had been seriously ill for six weeks with rheumatic fever and complications and for a time his family and friends were hopeful of his recovery but God willed otherwise, and on the above mentioned date, his gentle spirit passed to its eternal reward.

James, born in the United States, was a son of the late Charles Gallagher and Mrs. Jean (Dunphy) Gallagher. On the death of his father he came to live with the Misses Fitzsimmons at Margate where he remained until a few weeks before his death when he moved to Summerside. In 1934 he married Shirley Hughes of Kensington and they were blessed with six lovely children whose coming and happiness James worked for assiduously. In his early life he operated the farm at Margate and later became a travelling salesman at which he was eminently successful. He travelled over most of Prince County and made friends everywhere. His genial pleasing disposition and honourable business dealings made him very popular and friends from far and near came in large numbers to pay their respects.

To cherish the memory of a kind and loving husband, father and son he leaves his widow and children: Terry, Virginia, Wendy, Lou-Ann, Michael and Lane and his mother, Mrs. Jean Gallagher, Englewood, N. J. Also left to mourn is a brother, Eddy, in New York, and Misses Evelyn and Annie Fitzsimmons of Margate.

His funeral was held Feb. 2, to the church of the Holy Family, Kensington, where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Louis Callaghan, a former Pastor, Rev. R. F. McDonald was present in the Sanctuary. Rev. Joseph LeClair of Summerside, assisted in the choir. Pallbearers were J. H. Goodwin, Wm. Coady, Heath Mayhew, Allie McNeill, Reuben Tuplin and Harold Mulligan. Interment was in Indian River Cemetery.
