Cameron Rink Is Winner Of P. E. I. Championship

The Doug Cameron skipped rink won the Island Curling Championship, the British Consols Trophy and the right to represent Prince Edward Island in the Dominion Curling Championships Saturday evening at the Charlottetown Curling Club. They edged the Clifford MacDonald foursome 10-9 in a close and exciting contest.

Finishing the seventh end of the score was tied 6-6, but in the eighth the Cameron rink scored a three-ender to take the lead. They held grimly to this right to the final stone. The 'Jiggs' MacDonald rink battled all the way, but they couldn't clear the house of enough Cameron's tones.

At the finish of the eleventh end, the Cameron rink was leading 10 to 8, and on the final end were lying two with MacDonald having last rock. The game and final point were both conceded by the contending skips.

MACDONALD WINS

Saturday night's game was caused when the unbeaten Cameron rink was soundly trounced 12-3 by the once defeated MacDonald foursome. The week-long matches were played under the double knock-out system and the loss Saturday afternoon left the two finalists with one defeat each and forced another two points in the ninth and won the game 10-7.

PRIZES PRESENTED

The presentation of prizes followed the competitions with Judge J. S. DesRoches, President of the Island Curling Association giving the awards to all winners during the bonspiel.

In presenting the new Island Champions with the Consols Trophy the Judge extended his congratulations and wished them the best of luck in the Dominion finals. Also offering congratulations to the winners was Gordon Bennett, in charge of the bonspiel.

In accepting the trophy and the congratulations Skip Doug Cameron told the large gathering "We will do our best for the Island."

The Clifford MacDonald rink who was runner in the Consols competitions received individual trays with compliments of the MacDonald Tobacco Company. The winner of the Consolation competition, the George Nicholson rink of Montague, each received a beautiful iron, and the runners-up in this bracket, the Sterling MacDonald quartet were presented with Tooke shirts.

Toronto Shuts Out Boston 2-0

BOSTON (CP)—Toronto needed only a second period score by Billy Harris for a 2-0 victory over Boston Sunday night as goalie Ed Chadwick registered his fourth shutout of the National Hockey League season.

Harris, who has scored six of his 15 goals against the Bruins knocked in a rebound from just outside the crease after a long, screened shot by Marc Reaume had been stopped.

The time was 12:02, just four seconds before Boston's Vic Stasjuk was due to come out of the penalty box.

Gerry Aldcorn added the insurance goal at 18:25 of the final

UNB Red Raiders Defeat SDU 8-4

St. Dunstan's University pucksters were sent reeling to their second straight intercollegiate defeat of the season here Saturday night when Pete Kelly's University of New Brunswick Red Raiders doubled the score 8-4 on them at the Sports Arena. The win gave U. N. B. sole possession of first place in the N. B., P. E. I. Intercollegiate Hockey League.

For one period the Saints had local supporters optimistic as they dashed into a 3-1 lead that was cut to 3-2 by the end of the frame. In the middle session U. N. B. took over and roared from behind to pump home three straight tallies before the disorganized Saints could get untracked.

Each team added another goal before the second period ended, and the Fredericton collegians sank two insurance markers in the third to win handily.

Scoring honors in what was perhaps the roughest hockey match on Sports Arena ice this season were shared by U. N. B.'s Neil Seaward and S. D. U.'s Sandy MacDonald each of whom chipped in with the hat-trick. Other U. N. B. scorers were Combes who potted a pair and Parent, Bearson and Morrow who clicked for singles. Reg Peters fired the

Canadiens Boost Lead With Win

NEW YORK (AP) — Stocky Marcel Bonin triggered Montreal with a pair of goals to spearhead the injury-riddled Canadiens to a 3-1 victory over the New York Rangers before a capacity crowd of 15,925 at Madison Square Garden Sunday night.

The triumph boosted the Canadiens' National Hockey League lead to 25 points.

The classy Canadiens outplayed the Rangers from the outset with goalie Jacques Plante turning in a splendid game. The Montreal net-minder's bid for his ninth shutout was spoiled by Danny Lewicki midway in the final period.

Montreal opened the scoring at the half-way point of the first stanza with Donnie Marshall finding the range for his 20th goal. Marshall outmanoeuvred Ranger goalie Gump Worsley on a break-away with teammate Dollard St.

Student Wins In Women's Golf

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) —

Iron Liege Wins McLennan 'Cap

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Iron Liege, winner of the 1957 Kentucky Derby, captured the $65,700 McLennan Handicap Saturday at Hialeah Park, giving Calumet Farm its first stakes victory since last August.

With champion jockey Bill Hartack making up most of the 124 pounds he carried, Iron Liege ran the mile and a furlong in 1:48 flat, only a second off the track record for the distance set by Bold Ruler last February.

Mrs. Wallace Gilroy's Oh Johnny was half a length back in second place and C. T. Chenery's Third Brother was third in the field of 10 handicap horses, followed by Pinton Lea, lightly regarded state favorite of Iron Liege.

Then came Brookmade Stable's Oligarchy, Happy Hill Farm's Kingmaker, Tartan Stable's Meeting, Fred W. Hoopster's Greek Game, F. C. Rand Jr.'s St. Armour 7 and Short Brook Farm's Mr. Host. Ada L. Rice's Hoop Band was a late scratch.

Iron Liege, favorite at 8 to 5, paid $5.50, $3.20 and $2.70 across the board. Oh Johnny returned $5 and $3.90 while show piece Third Brother was $5.

Quebec Girl Gives Canada Victories In Skiing Events

BAD GASTEIN, Austria (CP)—Lucile Wheeler, a dedicated and dynamic skier from Ste. Jovite, Que., gave Canada victories in two of the three events of the world alpine skiing championships Saturday, as she added the giant slalom race to her earlier win in the downhill.

Her victories, the first-ever for Canada in international ski competition, almost gave her the title of combined champion. That title however, went to a Swiss girl whose best individual performance was a second in the downhill, but whose average in the three events making up the combined title was slightly better.
