Successful Club Rally Yesterday At Malpeque

A very successful club rally was held at Malpeque Beach yesterday afternoon, Aug. 4 with four club members and expects that club work will create a greater interest in farm life and that more boys and girls will make it their way of life.

Mr. S. C. Wright, the National 4-H President, also spoke briefly, outlining the growth and progress made in Canada and stated that this year would probably see 60,000 young people in club work. He said the new name, "4-H" stands for head, heart, hands and health these depicting the scope of club work.

Mr. L. W. Roper, Dominion Government fieldman, gave a demonstration of clipping a calf for show. Dr. Geo. Fisher, D. V. M., Provincial animal pathologist, gave a very interesting talk on restraint, throwing an animal and securing it. He demonstrated on a large calf bringing it to the ground very neatly.

Various sports and swimming kept the young people busy. A softball game between Freetown and Malpeque resulted in a 6-6 tie. A well stocked canteen was run by the Malpeque Club. The rally was brought to a close with a judging class at John MacNutt's, conducted by Morris Deacon, Fieldman.

The following are the results of the sports: Running, boys up to 12—1. Earl Lockerby, Malpeque; 2. Thane Bernard, Freetown; 3. Roger Cousins, Malpeque. Girls up to 12—1. Sandra Jarline, Freetown; 2. Gwynneth MacMurdo, Kelvin; 3. Marlene MacMurdo, Kelvin.

Boys 12 to 15—1. Enzor Taylor, Freetown; 2. Arthur Craig, Bedouque; 3. Neil Matthews, Malpeque. Girls 12 to 15—1. Louise Ramsay, Malpeque; 2. Joyce Bryenton, Malpeque. Boys 16 and up—1. Wendell Taylor, Freetown; 2. Geo. Riley, Malpeque; 3. Norman Montgomery, Bedouque; 4. Lorne Ramsay, Malpeque.

Attendance: Freetown 84 per cent; Malpeque, 71 per cent; Bedouque 42 per cent; Norboro 40 per cent. Club standing—Malpeque, 34 points; Freetown 16 points; Bedouque 2 points; Norboro 5 points. Starter: Allan Cloy, Freetown.

—Rev. Russell Woodside, rector of the United Church of Bathurst, is spending a short vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Woodside of Kensington. The Reverend Mr. Woodside's daughter graduated recently from Mt. Allison University.

—Messrs. Leonard and Lyman Caseley of Crapaud and Mill River respectively, paid a visit to friends and relatives in Kensington on Tuesday, July 29th. They are sons of the late Charles Caseley of Kensington and took great pleasure and enjoyment in their visit, particularly in reminiscences with old-time school chums of sixty years ago.

—The home of Mr. Harold Brennan, Kensington, was the scene of a pleasant social event on Tuesday evening when the C. W. L. sponsored an ice cream social which proved quite successful. Nicely appointed tables were set in the spacious rooms while an outside booth catered to those who preferred the balmy summer air. Dancing was a feature of the program with music by the Campbell orchestra.

Air Force Daks Defeat Aces 13-12

The Air Force Daks defeated Andy's Aces in the quarter final series of the Ladies' Softball League in Summerside by the score of 13-12. The game was played at the Airport diamond and was a sea-saw battle all the way, although the Aces established an early 6-0 lead. They were ahead 12-11 before the Daks took their last inning, but the Aces scored two runs and edged out the town aggregation by one run. Marie Peters pitched for the Sea Foods girls and Chaster was on the slab for the Daks.
