

THE FAIR GOD.

BOOK FOUR.

CHAPTER V.

"Go on, child! Look for the fair-faced god; he holds the battle in his hand."

"Well, well—they run like deer; on them the god and his comrades plunge into the masses in the street; beating back and pursuing, striking with their spears and tramping down all in their way."

"Until to-day, O King, this sacredness has been sealed from the generations that forsok the religion of Quetzal."

CHAPTER VI. THE CONQUEROR WILL COME. A few weeks more—weeks of pain, vacillation, embassies and distracted councils to Montezuma; of doubt and anxiety to the nobles; of sacrifice and ceremonies to the priests; of fear and wonder to the people."

After that the city was not an hour without messengers reporting the progress of the Spaniards, whose every step and halt and camping-place was watched with the distrust of fear and the sleeplessness of jealousy."
