Observe Silver Wedding Anniversary

The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Proffitt was filled to capacity on Monday evening, February 9th when members of their family, relatives, friends and neighbors gathered to celebrate with them the 25th anniversary of their marriage.

Mr. Theo. Ling was master of ceremonies and after brief remarks congratulating the youthful appearing celebrants he called on Mrs. Arthur Proffitt to read an address expressing the sentiments of those present.

The address was accompanied by several presentations, a smoker stand presented by their daughter Norma on behalf of their children, a silver service presented by Mrs. William Champion on behalf of the Proffitts and Champions, a silver tray presented by Mrs. Ivan Darrach on behalf of the friends and neighbors, and a silver bread tray presented by Sharon Clark on behalf of the grand-children. Mr. and Mrs. Proffitt expressed their surprise and pleasure at this demonstration of affection and goodwill in brief speeches. The singing of a lusty chorus, "For they are jolly good fellows" concluded this part of the program.

The serving of a bountiful lunch was a feature of the festivities capably performed by the ladies. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent with music and song speeding the flying minutes. Music was by several of those present including James McKenzie, violin and harmonica, Mrs. Lester Champion and Mrs. Ivan Darrach, piano.

Members of Mr. and Mrs. Proffitt's family are: Eileen (Mrs. Roy Clark), Miss Audrey Proffitt R.N., nursing in Detroit, Mich. who was unable to be present, Ralph, student at Prince of Wales College, and Norma and Rommie at home. Mr. Proffitt is a member of the firm of McKenzie and Co., Kensington, and his business associates unite with a host of friends in wishing him and Mrs. Proffitt many more years to enjoy their happy marriage. — K.

In Memoriam

The death occurred on January 10th at the Western Hospital, Alberton, of Bernard O'Brien of Waterford in his 48th year. The late Mr. O'Brien had been in failing health for a number of years but his death came very unexpectedly to all his family and friends. Reverend Father Richard administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which he was a member. Left to mourn are his wife and one son Stanley, five stepchildren, mother, stepfather, and a number of brothers and sisters. The funeral was very largely attended, from his late residence to the Immaculate Conception Church, Palmer Road, where High Mass was celebrated by Reverend Father Richard assisted by Reverend Father Walsh. The pall bearers were John Nelligan, George McAlduff, Leo Perry, Austin Aylward, Leo Doucette, and Gerald Shea. Interment was in the Church Cemetery. May his soul rest in peace.
