Testimonial

C. P. Fletcher, Esq.

DEAR SIR,—I do not wish to return to Montreal without expressing my gratitude to you for the very excellent Bell Piano that you placed at my disposal for my recital. I have tried many Canadian Pianos of different manufacturers and must say that, considering the size of the instrument, I have never found one to equal it for depth and brilliancy of tone. The action is quite as elastic and responsive as in American Upright Pianos of the highest grade. Again thanking you, very sincerely,

I remain,
 Yours,
FRED. E. MORRIS

PERSONAL CHAT.

Mr. Gladstone said recently that the century has produced only two great novelists—Sir Walter Scott and George Eliot.

The life of George Saxton, brother of Mrs. McKinley, is being made burdensome by a Canton woman who is determined to marry or kill him.

Garibaldi's tomb in the island of Caprea was visited by the Prince of Naples recently, who deposited a wreath on it and left the island before the inhabitants knew of his coming.

Knighthood was recently conferred upon Mr. Guinness, the acting manager of Guinness & Co. of Dublin. His brewery firm has already received two peerages and the ribbon of St. Patrick.

Edward Everett Hale said recently that he believed that the thorough training in Latin given the Boston boys from 1635 to 1775 had much to do with that city's reputation as a literary center.

James Paxton Voorhees, son of the late senator from Indiana, for many years connected with the art department of the congressional library, has resigned in order to devote his entire time to art.

Another Korean student has arrived in Salem, Va., to enter Roanoke college next session. His name is Kin Sik Kim, and he is a bright young fellow, with a pretty good command of English, acquired by three years' study of the language in Korea.

Thomas Jefferson Sappington, who died near St. Louis, boasted that he once saved General Grant from capture by the Confederates. Some men were lying in ambush for the general, but Sappington learned of their plans and warned Grant in time.

So great is her love for birds and her horror of the cruelty of having these beautiful creatures put to death for the sake of their plumage that the Duchess of Portland never, on any account, wears osprey aigrets or the feathers of rare birds in her hats or bonnets.

General von Waldsee's mother-in-law has just celebrated her ninety-fifth anniversary and is in robust health. On the same day Dr. Wilhelm Schrader, who served 27 years as provincial school commissioner in Konigsberg, entered upon his eighty-first year, hale, hearty and vigorous.

Mrs. Blunt, the mother of the bishop of Hull, celebrated King George III's jubilee as the guest of her great-grandmother, the widow of a Hampshire squire, who was born in the reign of Queen Anne. Mrs. Blunt is 95 years old and has celebrated the two jubilees of Queen Victoria as well as that of George III.

While the rain was pouring down in torrents a young couple of Caro, Mich., who attended a church social, were married in the open. On the lawn Frank Lawrence, the bridegroom, and Miss Sadle, the bride, took their positions, with an umbrella over their heads, and the clergyman pronounced them man and wife.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

FOR SALE. RARE CHANCE

The property occupied by J. J. Gay and son situate in the village of Pownal, 7 miles from Charlottetown, is offered for sale. The proprietors have carried on a large market garden nursery, and seed business for thirty years, and the purchaser will no doubt retain a large share of the local trade. The premises comprise a large dwelling house, store, warehouse, barn, shed, orchard, and about 15 acres of the most fertile land on the island.

This land has been manured year after year, so long that an old man said the other day: "It is all a bed of manure and could be hauled for top-dressing." This would be an ideal spot for a country merchant, or it would be admirable for a summer resort. The situation is one of the most beautiful on the island. Good bathing, fishing, boating, shooting and within easy distance, churches, post office school telephone and shops all at the door.

For terms and further particulars, apply to Von Clure Gay, J. J. Gay & son or to JOHN T. MELLISH, Solicitor Charlottetown
