MR. AND MRS WESLEY WILLIAMS CURTIS

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Young Couple

The first wedding ever to be solemnized at Princetown Road United Church, took place on Saturday afternoon, August 8, 1959, at 2 p.m., when Adriana Maria, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelis Boelhouwer, became the bride of Wesley William, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Curtis of Milton.

The Rev. Frank H. Littlejohns performed the double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with baskets and bouquets of summer flowers.

Mrs. Dale Proud was organist and played appropriate wedding hymns during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked radiant in her floor length gown of nylon net over satin with matching bolero trimmed with sequins. Her headdress was of shoulder length nylon net held in place by a coronet of sequins. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Rendevous Restaurant in Charlottetown for thirty-two guests. The bride's table was centered with a two-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Miss Alice Hill, friend of the bride, was bridesmaid. She was gowned in floor length pink net over satin with matching head-dress. She carried a basket of pink and white carnations.

Mr. Hans Boelhouwer, brother of the bride, was best man.

Mr. Everett Johnston and Mr. Wayne Proud, friends of the bride and groom, ushered the guests to their pews, which were marked with miniature nosegays of white geraniums and fern with white satin bows.

The groom's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a two-piece dress of green print with matching accessories. Her corsage was a white carnation.

The groom's mother was gowned in yellow print with white accessories. Her corsage was a white carnation.

At the close of the service the bride was presented with a white Bible by the Rev. Frank H. Littlejohns on behalf of the congregation.

On Wednesday evening the Misericordie parish council of the Catholic Women's League held their monthly meeting in the convent. After the meeting bingo was played by the members.

Georgetown United Church Men's Association Opens

The opening meeting of the Men's Association of St. David's United Church, Georgetown was held in the church hall, Monday, October 5th, with a good attendance. Gordon MacDonald of Charlottetown was guest speaker.

The meeting opened with supper. Mr. H. Larsen asked the blessing and the ladies of the congregation served a delicious supper. After supper, Harry Yoston at the piano led the group in a lively hymn-sing.

The president, Spurgeon Walker presided at business period. Minutes were read and approved, and financial report showed all obligations met during the summer months.

An obligation of $100.00 was paid in full to A.C.T.C., also a substantial payment made on church organ. New projects discussed were, drain pipe for newly installed sink in hall kitchen, and placing of cement steps at kitchen door.

Guest speaker, Mr. Gordon MacDonald, was introduced by Harry Yoston. Mr. MacDonald, with film and lecture, stressed the importance of civil defence, bringing a vivid picture of recent disasters caused by fire, flood and hurricane disasters, that could happen in any community; Mr. MacDonald touched on the work done by the Red Cross and the effort being put forth to establish civil defence organizations in every community.

On behalf of the men's club, Guy Hemphill extended a vote of thanks to Mr. MacDonald, and Preston MacDonald conveyed thanks to the ladies. Meeting closed with prayer and benediction by the Minister Rev. W.A. MacQuarrie.
