

O'LEARY

The many friends of Mrs. Lloyd Cook are glad to hear she has recovered sufficiently from her illness to be able to return home. Mr. Erroll Stetson, O'Leary, motored to Georgetown Friday evening to attend an evening session of Masonic Activity held there. Mr. Stetson is most worshipful Grand Master of Masons in Prince Edward Island. He also attended a session held in Montserrat earlier this week.

Betram Bryan, Unionvale, accompanied by Gordon MacDonald, O'Leary, narrowly escaped serious injury when the car owned and driven by Bryan, left the road near Profitts Corner, Tignish. The two men were taken to the Community Hospital in O'Leary, suffering cuts and bruises. The car was damaged considerably.

Friends of Miss Linda MacWilliams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacWilliams, West Cape, are sorry to hear she is a patient in the Community Hospital, O'Leary. Her many friends hope to see her out again soon.

Olga MacWilliams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herb MacWilliams, Cape Wolfe, is a patient in the Community Hospital. A speedy recovery is hoped for by all.

Friends of Mrs. Seymour Sellick, Bloomfield, are sorry to hear she is in the Community Hospital. All wish for her a speedy recovery.

Electrical power was disrupted in O'Leary and West Prince Friday morning when a truck said to be driven by a Charlottetown man left the road and broke a light pole. Residents were without lights, water and heat from 5 a.m. till noon.

Work is progressing favourably on the building of the new United Church Hall in O'Leary. The building is 72 by 44 and is under the supervision of Mr. Edward MacDonald, O'Leary.

The farmers in this area are busily engaged cleaning cellars and preparing for digging potatoes which promises to be a very good crop.

Dr. Charles Dewar with Mrs. Dewar and two children, returned to their home on Sunday after a pleasant 10 days spent visiting friends on the mainland. D.U.

ALMA

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Harris were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dunbar.

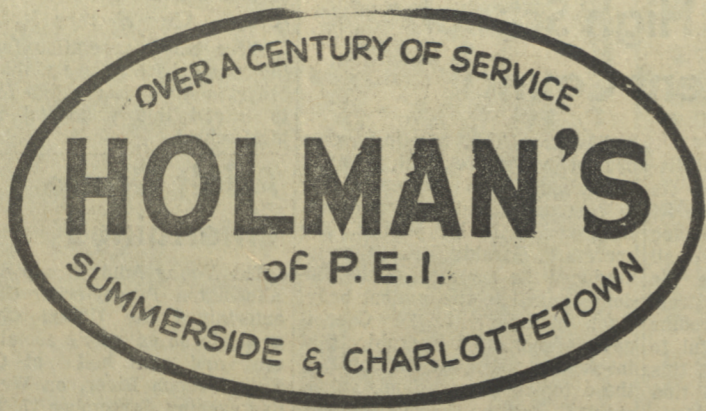

Mr. and Mrs. Rawleigh Holden, Easterdale, returned to their home after visiting Mrs. Holden's aunt, Mrs. David Jeffrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ward, Boston, Mass., have returned to their home after visiting relatives in Rosebank and Alma.

Mr. and Mrs. David Matthews have as guests the latter's sister, Mrs. Earl Coleman, Woburn, Mass., who will spend some time with her mother, Mrs. Craswell Weeks, South Kildare.

Sincere sympathy is being extended to the family of Mrs. Alexander MacNevin who passed away recently at the home of her daughter Mrs. Edgar Williams, Huntley. D.
