Visiting Poet

The Public lecture at St. Dunstan's College this Friday evening, promises to be both entertaining and educational, judging from the personality and accomplishments of the guest speaker, Roy Campbell. Though he has been a fisherman, editor, farmer, cowboy, guitarist, soldier, and bullfighter, he is famous as South Africa's leading poet.

Born at Durban, South Africa, in 1902 the poet was christened Ignatius Roy Dunnahe Campbell. In 1922 he married Mary Margaret Garman. They have two daughters. The Campbells have lived in South Africa, England, Spain, and Portugal.

Literary critics have been high in their praise for Mr. Campbell's poetry, placing him in the front ranks of the poets of our time. His "Adams" gave Edith Sitwell "renewed hope for the future of English poetry," and "The Plaming Terrapin" drew similar enthusiasm from Ireland's George Russell.

His poetry imagery has impressed all who have read Campbell's works. His originality is variously attributed to his South African youth, his active life, his diverse interests and occupations, and his familiarity with animals, and his wide travels.

Roy Campbell is becoming almost as well known for his translations as he is for his poetry. His translations include such books as "The Poems of St. John of the Cross," "Lorca," "The Poems of Baudelaire," and, most recently, "Cousin Basilio," a rendering of a Portuguese novel.

Mr. Campbell's reputation as a lecturer is already well established. He has lectured at Oxford and Cambridge Universities in England, as well as in various cities in Spain and Portugal. Currently he is on a two-months tour of North America, with lectures scheduled for many leading institutions in the United States and Canada.

Profit is the Maritime's representative on the Committee. He reports that the June Set-Aside, which was held on the farmstead during the month of June, exceeded $350,000 this year. This money is used for an advertising program to promote the sale of dairy products.

Alpha Y's Men's Club Meeting

Dr. L. W. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Education for P. E. Island, was the guest speaker at the regular weekly meeting of Alpha Y's Men's Club last evening when his topic "The Public's View in Respect to Education." Dr. Shaw spoke in regard to criticisms of the schools which are hardly justified and quoted extracts from leading magazine articles to show that the same thing has been going on over the world for the past centuries, and despite that fact the schools are doing as good if not better work today.

He also mentioned the scarcity of teachers, and went on to say that some of the provinces that pay the highest salaries are scarcer of teachers than this province that pays a lower salary. The teaching profession has to be placed on a higher plane by the public in order to get more satisfactory teachers, he said.

At the conclusion of his talk Dr. Shaw was called upon to answer numerous questions by various members of the club, which he answered in a very comprehensive and enlightening manner.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker by Y's Man Mel Wilkie on behalf of the club. Y's Men George Purvis and Stewart Johnston acted as co-chairmen of the meeting. Mr. Malcolm Vail of Guelph, Ont., was present as a guest. A lively sing-song was led by Y's Man Harvey McPherson with O. K. Presby at the piano.

Plan To Organize Young Liberal Ass'n

Seventy-five young Liberals met last evening following the meeting of the senior organization and appointed a committee to organize a Queen's County Young Liberal Association. Mr. Gilbert Clements, President of the senior organization occupied the chair.

The meeting was addressed briefly by Hon. E. H. Winters, who commended the assembly on their action and recognition of the need on the part of the youth of the country to take an active part in its government and future.

Mr. Neil Matheson, M.P. congratulated the young men on their move which would prove valuable to them in years to come and interesting as they develop.

The committee consists of: James Morrison, Hampton; Leitch Stetson, Brookfield; Austin Bowman, North Wiltshire; Bruce Affleck, Mt. Stewart; David Seaman, Brackley; Lloyd Furness, Vernon; Monroe MacLeod, Kinross; Donald MacLeod and Donald Martin, Charlottetown. Don Martin was appointed chairman and Austin Bowman, secretary.
