

Great Conservative Victory in Liverpool, G. B.

An erroneous telegram stated that, in the recent election a Liberal had been chosen by the electors of Liverpool, G. B. Instead, it now appears that Mr. Whitley, the Conservative candidate, was elected by the overwhelming majority of about 2,300. The result is regarded as a signal triumph for Lord Beaconsfield, and a practical endorsement of his policy. It is even said that this triumph has completely stopped the boasting of the Liberals, who now admit that their only hopes in the event of a general election, will be in Scotland and Ireland.

The Halifax Evening Mail remarks that,—"Following immediately after the election in Sheffield, where the Conservative candidate came within a few hundreds of winning a seat, where no Conservative ever came within thousands of winning before for the past thirty years, the election in Liverpool is most significant. One would have naturally supposed, that if there was one constituency which more than another would be likely to show the Liberal reaction, (if such existed), it would be the City of Liverpool. The "Home Rulers"—which means the Irish vote—constitute a voting strength in the constituency of several thousands. This vote, in 1874, was cast for the Conservative party, but owing to the recent troubles in Ireland—and the arrest and prosecution by the Government of several of the agitators—it was expected this time to go solidly Liberal. At all events the Liberals openly boasted of having that vote, and counted on it making a difference of 5,000 in the election. Besides this the defection of Lord Derby from the Conservative party, was expected to make a considerable change in Liverpool, in which his wealth in lands, houses, and stocks, is largely centered. In 1874 the constituency which returns three candidates, elected two Conservatives and one Liberal, the Conservative strength not being sufficient to carry the whole three candidates. In 1880 after all the "exuberant verbosity" of the Liberal leaders for the past few months, we find Mr. Whitley the Conservative candidate defeating the Liberal standard bearer by 2,300 majority. The victory will be an important one, as it will show the Liberals the folly of attempting to regain power by advocating a policy, the meaning of which is the disintegration and disgrace of the Empire."

Relief for Ireland.

The great gift of the New York Herald to the suffering people of Ireland has had a stimulating effect in the United States. A contemporary remarks:—"There can be no doubt that the Herald's fund, quite independently of its own noble contribution, will speedily exceed in magnitude all other funds originated on this side of the Atlantic, and that contributions from all parts of America will flow into it."

Lieutenant-Governor Chandler.

The late Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, the Hon. E. B. Chandler, was son of C. H. Chandler, many years High Sheriff of Cumberland County, N. S. He was born at Amherst, N. S., in 1830, and was educated there. In 1822 he married Miss P. W. Millidge, daughter of the late Dr. Millidge, and neice of the late Judge Botsford. He was called to the bar of New Brunswick in 1823. Since that time he has filled many positions of trust and honor, having been a delegate to London, Toronto Washington and Charlottetown several times on Dominion and Provincial matters. He represented Westmoreland in the Province Assembly nine years and served in the Executive Council. He was one of the Commissioners in 1867 for the construction of the Intercolonial Railway. He declined a seat in the Senate of the Dominion in 1869. He was appointed Lieutenant-Governor for New Brunswick in July, 1878, on the resignation of Hon. Mr. Tilley. Governor Chandler, although in his eightieth year, was a vigorous and healthy.

On the arrival of the Princess Louise at Ottawa, Mayor Mackintosh presented addresses of welcome, and the Marquis replied on behalf of the Princess. He said: The Princess desires me to thank you much for the kind greeting contained in the address you have just read. As undoubtedly you know, it is a saying that every true American visits Paris before he dies, and so, too, it is said that every true Canadian visits London before he dies. The Princess has proved her title to the name Canadian, because she has visited London since she became a resident of the Dominion. She desires me to thank you sincerely for having come to meet her on her return to that home in which she has already spent so many happy hours.

A considerable portion of South Australia's surplus wheat crop is on its way to England, via the Suez Canal. That surplus is greatly larger than was expected. It foots up, it is said, about twenty-five million bushels, averaging, it is alleged, sixty-eight pounds. It is in view of this supply that British corn dealers refuse to pay tribute to Keene and his fellow conspirators of Chicago and New York. Of course, this supply will go but a small way toward meeting the requirements of British consumers. But it comes at an excellent time to hamper the operations of the unprincipled wheat gamblers in the United States.

Employment for Mechanics and Laborers.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—The fact that more accommodation is much required at the Charlottetown Railway Depot is apparent to all who have the unloading of carloads of produce, lumber, &c., at the Railroad wharf. For want of storage accommodation, "Demurrage at the rate of two dollars per car, per day, is charged on all cars not unloaded within 35 hours after arrival," &c. Would it not therefore be advisable to direct the attention of our rulers at Ottawa to the fact that, at a very small cost indeed, a large piece of ground between the Railway and Ferry wharf could be easily utilized by filling in with brush and clay, and thereby give employment to those willing to work for one-half the ordinary rate of wages, and also render available a large piece of ground upon which sheds could be erected for the accommodation of freight. Trusting that these few hints will lead to further discussion on this subject, I am, yours truly,

MECHANIC.

Anonymous Slanders.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—It is much to be regretted that there lives in our midst a woman who, for many years past, has made it a practice of writing anonymous letters, detrimental to many respectable ladies and gentlemen, and marrying the happiness of their various homes. Of course, an anonymous letter is beneath the notice of a right-thinking person, for when a woman is afraid to come out boldly and sign her name to what she has written, it shows her character at once. At the same time she should be brought to justice, and be visited with condign punishment. I write this so that the guilty party may take warning before she uses her blue ink again, for, be well assured, if I ever receive a letter from her again, or hear of any one else doing so, I shall publish her name in full. Yours, &c.,

A GRIEVED PARENT.

Fashionable Wedding.

THE marriage of the Rev. Henry Pelham Stokes, M. A., rector designate of Warcham Dorset, with Miss Harriet Worrell, daughter of Colonel Hamilton Gray, C. M. G., and granddaughter of Lady Pennefather, took place on Thursday, the 15th inst., at St. Peter's, Cranley-gardens. The bride wore a dress of ivory white satin, draped with Limerick lace, tulle veil and wreath of natural flowers, orange blossom and myrtle; ornaments, diamonds. The bridesmaids were Miss Florence Stokes, sister of the bridegroom, Miss E. L. Mackay, and Miss E. Riddell, consins of the bride, Miss Caroline Hope, Miss Florence Moreton, and Miss Harriet Hamilton, who wore costumes of soft pink cashmere de Lille, trimmed with cream-colored Breton lace, and caps of the same. The service was performed by the Rev. Edmund Roxby, M. A., incumbent of St. Margaret's Brighton, and the Rev. George Stokes, rector of Whitton-cum-Thurleston, and rural dean; father of the bridegroom. The wedding breakfast was given by Lady Pennefather, in Cranley-place. The wedding presents were numerous and very handsome.—Court Journal, 17th Jan.

FEBRUARY 11.

Mr. Justice Picher presiding. James E. Birch vs. Barbara Walker, Executrix, &c. The jury have retired to consider their verdict in this case. Neil McNevin vs. Alex. McNevin. This is an action of trespass and assault. Longworth and Haw for plaintiff; Hodgson and Hon. Neil McLeod for defendant. We are glad to hear that the Chief Justice has recovered from his recent illness.

Another Counterfeiter Caught.

On the 6th inst. the even tenor of business at the Londonderry Iron Mines was considerably disturbed by the discovery that several of the leading merchants had been let in for ten dollars each in counterfeit bills on the Merchants' Bank of Halifax. Prompt measures were taken to trace the man who had perpetrated this bold fraud. After considerable trouble he was arrested by Messrs. Aitkins and McCharles as he was entering Great Village by an out-of-the-way road. He was brought to the Mines and tried before Justices Farman, Beatty and Campbell, on a charge preferred by Mr. Atkins, druggist, one of the victims. The charge being proven, he was committed for trial at the next sitting of the Supreme Court and sent, by special conveyance this evening, to Truro jail. The counterfeit is on the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, and is a good imitation of their $10 bills. He is unknown there and gives his name as James Robinson. When arrested he had only one $10 counterfeit and $40 good money, which he had received from the merchants at Londonderry. He insists that he is innocent, having been duped himself.

The Berlin correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette says: It is estimated this morning in some semi-official papers that an increase in the German army is intended, even beyond that already announced, namely, the formation of special Alsace Lorraine Regiments.

STOCK-TAKING.

WE hereby inform the public of this city, and the Island generally, that previous to Stock-taking, we have resolved to clear out as much of our Winter Stock as possible. We are aware that at this season it is hard to get people to buy even at reduced prices; but in the face of this difficulty we have made up our mind to adopt full measures, and sell our Wool Goods and Dress Goods at a sacrifice.

Our Goods have been very cheap all winter, as the run of trade we have had fully testifies. Our store has become the resort of those Ladies who know how to make a penny go a long way, and who know a cheap article when they see it; and when we say we are going to reduce the prices of our Dress Goods and Trimmings, we know we shall be believed. We are particularly anxious to clear out our present Stock, in order to introduce as much of the newest style of Dress Material as possible, and at the very lowest prices. We shall make special prices on Black Cashmeres, Black Merinos, Black Cords and Lustres, Lustrines and Brilliantines.

Our Fancy Wool Goods will be sold at less than cost. Our Stock of this class was the largest, most select, and finest in the city, and the remains of it will be sold at a great sacrifice. Blankets, Quilts, Horse Rugs, &c., will be cleared out at great Bargains.

We make no apology to the Tea-drinking public for drawing their attention to our fine flavored and rich Teas, 32, 36, and 40 cents per lb. They are receiving the highest praise, and those who use them, strongly recommend them to others. Our trade in this article is growing rapidly. Tea appeals to the most subtle of the senses, and as the proof of the pudding is in the eating, so the proof of the Tea is in the drinking. Friends, try it.
