

Kensington Young Adults Meeting

The annual meeting of the Young Adults of the Kensington Presbyterian Church was held last week in the church hall. The opening devotions were in charge of Mr. Fred Semple and Mrs. Horace Fayntler. The business meeting was presided over by the president, Mr. Fred Semple. The report of the secretary, Miss Marion Lockhart and the treasurer, Mrs. Ingham MacNeill. The reports showed that the Young Adults had been able to make a generous gift to the church building program undertaken during the past year, as well as continue their usual activities. During the election of officers for the new year, Mr. Charles Beairto was chosen to preside over the affairs of the organization as president. The newly appointed vice-president is Mrs. Wallace Thompson and Mrs. Eric Thompson was elected secretary. The treasurer, Mrs. Ingham MacNeill, was re-elected.

Girl Guide News

Despite the stormy day Thursday, 15 smiling Brownies greeted Miss Epigenie Arsenault, Commissioner, and Mrs. Smith Field, secretary. The following girls were received as Brownies: Pamela McInnis, Barbara Foster, Ann Fay, Lynda Jay, Judy Rogerson. The following badges were presented: Golden Bar, Dorothy Boudreau, Janet Smallwood; Book Lovers, Peggy McQuaid, Marcia Wellner; Collectors, Carol Burke; Toy Makers, Betty Carol Matheson. Two singing games were played, then the rest of the afternoon was spent passing tests. Congratulations to Mrs. Urban McQuaid, Brown Owl, for the efficient way that her Pack is run.

Minor Hockey At Summerside

Minor hockey in its first appearance of the season at Summerside last evening was also the first sporting event of the winter to be held in the Raceway Stadium. In the paperweight division MacCauley Furniture Ltd. defeated White Star Laundry 1-0. Flicker Taxi edged Rogers and Arnets 2-1.

The Legion versus the Y's Men ended in a scoreless tie. The Lions Club downed the Rotary Club 5-1, with Wilfred Gallant scoring three goals for the Lions.

In the pee-wee division the Y's Men edged the Jute Bags 2-1. The Dairy Kings downed Holman's 1-0, while Curran & Briggs beat Reliable Motors 5-3, with all three goals for the latter team being scored by David Gaudet.

The Mercury's edged the Legion 4-3 with Irving Senter tallying two for the Mercury's and Gerald Rahan two for the Legion.

In the final game of the evening, the Victory Cleaners beat Curran & Briggs 7-5. Clarence Simmons scoring six times for Victory Cleaners, while Charles Steele and Willard Doucette each collected two for Curran & Briggs.

Referees were: Benny Gaudet, Gerald Bernard, Reg. Phillips, Jr., Vance Harris, Emmet Trainor, and Peter Pope.

MacIsaac - Sabine Wedding

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jago Sabine, West Point, on December 21, at 6 p.m. when their daughter, Annie Lou, was united in marriage to George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin MacIsaac of Dunham. The Rev. W. H. Forsyth performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, entered the decorated living room to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Leslie Gorrill. The bride was very charming in a waltz-length gown of white net and lace over satin.

The groom was supported by Chris Sabine, brother of the bride. Following the ceremony a delicious supper was served with Mrs. Leslie Gorrill presiding over the tea cups and several girl friends of the bride assisted in the serving. The dining room was decorated with pink and white streamers and wedding bells.

A beautiful wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom centered the bride's table and was cut in the traditional manner by the couple.

For going away the bride wore a rose shot taffeta dress with rose wool coat and black and white accessories. Her corsage was white mums.

The young couple left on a short honeymoon amid showers of confetti and best wishes for a long and happy married life.

Death Of Park Corner Lady

The death of Mrs. Ella Campbell of Park Corner occurred unexpectedly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bruce MacLeod, Kensington, on Thursday evening, Jan. 27th.

She had been suffering from a heart condition and was under the care of her doctor who was making a routine call at the time of her death. While being examined, she was given an overdose of medicine which she took as a pill. As she was feeling some discomfort, treatment was given at once by needle, but failed to give the usual relief. She spoke a word of affection to her daughter and in a few minutes quietly passed away, her death hastened by a blood clot.

She was in her 77th year, and was the former Ella Johnson of Long River where she lived until her marriage, when she made her home in the adjoining district of Park Corner.

She was loved and respected by all who knew her. Of a family of nine, two sons and three daughters survive: Donald, of Los Angeles, California; Amy, Mrs. Fred Burke, of Swampscott, Mass., who is expected home to attend the funeral; James, on the homestead at Park Corner; Maud, Mrs. Sims, Park Corner; George, Mrs. Bruce MacLeod, Kensington. Her husband, the late Geo. L. Campbell, and a small son died during a flu epidemic in 1918, and three other children passed away in early childhood.

Funeral arrangements were completed last evening.

Funerals at Georgetown, Graham's Road, Nafrage, Murray Harbor, North, Savage Harbor and Souris. In Prince County, J. Watson MacNaught, parliamentary assistant to Fisheries Minister Sinclair said he was particularly pleased at a vote of $200,000 in estimates for a fishing harbor at Howard's Cove.

A harbor at this port had long sought ever since Confederation, Mr. MacNaught said, and when he was a boy, the issue was constantly discussed. Construction of a harbor at Howard's Cove was abundantly justified for it is the centre of one of the most productive lobster areas in all the seven seas.

A vote of $40,000 for completion of the railway wharf at Summerside was of import, Mr. MacNaught said, inasmuch as it meant a stronger and better-looking wharf, with the old rip-rap super-seeded by a T-wall running right to the shore-line.

Engineering and harbor works in Prince County are estimated at $442,000 for the coming year and include, in addition to Summerside and Howard's Cove, construction works at Egmont Bay, Fishing Cove, Alberton, Grand River south, Minto, and Tignish.

Subsidy for the ship plying between Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and the Magdalen Islands this year is $120,000.

There is no mention in the estimates of votes to cover either extension of the airstrips at Charlottetown airport or a site for a new naval establishment. While disappointed at the lack of specific mention of these projects, both Mr. MacNaught and Mr. MacLean are hopeful that they may be included in a "catchall" item covering matters of this kind. Finance Minister Harris told the House that estimates for airport facilities are being increased by $4 million over last year, and the Queens members are hopeful that Charlottetown may receive a share of this sum.

To cover a multitude of small projects, a vote of $175,000 is placed in the estimates for "harbors and rivers generally" in Prince Edward Island. The P. E. I. car ferry deficit is listed as $1.5 million.

Projects in Kings included development of the harbors and rivers branch of the Public Works Department. Of the works program in Queens, Neil A. Matheson, Liberal M.P. said he was happy about the estimates in general but disappointed at the lack of an item for a wharf development at Point Prim.

The Liberal member for Queens added that there is a very real need for protection of boats used by fishermen at that location. The landing place, he said, is very much exposed to effects of bad weather and that boats have often been damaged and destroyed for lack of adequate protection. He stated he will continue his representations for a wharf development at this spot.

Full agreement with Mr. Matheson was voiced by J. Angus MacLean, Conservative member for Queens. Point Prim, Mr. MacLean said is greatly exposed to storms and fishermen of that spot should be given facilities to protect their craft and gear.

HARBORS AND RIVERS Harbors and rivers estimates for Queens totalled $286,000. They include developments at Covehead, Graham's Road, Rustico Harbor and North Rustico, and dredging at Wood Islands.

Mr. Kichham was very pleased with the overall vote of $419,000 for Kings on harbors and rivers engineering. He told The Guardian, however, that the vote of $80,000 for reconstruction of the Georgetown railway wharf was altogether inadequate and that he would press for a substantial additional amount to be placed in supplementary estimates for the Georgetown establishment.

Death Of Dr. G. H. Myers

Residents of Montague and vicinity will learn with deep regret of the passing of Dr. G. Hamilton Myers at his home in Montague yesterday. The deceased was in his 87th year.

He was born in Glenfinnan, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Martin Myers. Twice married, his first wife, Jessie Wood, Millville, predeceased him several years ago.

Besides his sorrowing widow, he is survived by two sons, Gordon of New Perth and Milton of Goshen, N. S., and two daughters, Pansy, Mrs. Gavin Reid, Victoria Cross and Olga, Mrs. William Williamson, of Long Island, N. Y. Surviving also are two brothers, Walter and Bruce of Boston, Mass., and two sisters, Laura, Mrs. Dan MacKinnon of Boston and Emeline of Wilton, New Hampshire.

The late Dr. Myers, a veterinary surgeon, was well known throughout King's and eastern Queen's Counties where he practised his profession, and all will deeply mourn his passing. He was frequently visited by the pastor of his Church and these visits were a source of great consolation to her, and from him, she received the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church.

Mrs. O'Connor possessed a gracious and loving manner which endeared her to all; a hearty welcome was extended to all who called at her home and the needy found in her a sincere friend. In the home, which God blessed with six children, four sons and two daughters; her love and devotion will never be forgotten, by her husband and family. They will always remember the great devotion she had for her Catholic Faith, which inspired them with high ideals and by her good example impressed upon the children's minds the duties that are necessary to be good Christian Citizens.

Her friends both young and old, mourn her passing but fell fortunate for having enjoyed her friendship while she lived and will cherish her memory.

Mrs. O'Connor was actively associated with the parish societies, and was interested in all civic movements which were for the betterment of the community and city. Mass cards, spiritual bouquets, telegrams, messages of sympathy and floral tributes, bore silent testimony of the love which was felt, for a fine woman, one would be proud to call friend.

Her funeral was held from the home to St. Mary's Church where at nine o'clock a Requiem Mass was sung for the repose of her soul. Her body was conveyed to its last resting place in St. Mary's Cemetery by six of her nephews: Messrs. Francis Arsenault, Maxwell Arsenault, Bernard Arsenault, Alan MacKay, Carl MacKay and Terrance MacKay.

She is survived by her husband, four sons, Messrs. Thomas P. Lawrence, John and David and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Lawry and Miss Eleanor O'Connor, all of Massachusetts, also surviving are two brothers, Messrs. Alfred MacKay and Merrill MacKay of Toronto, Ontario, and two sisters, Mrs. Celestine Arsenault and Mrs. William Waite of St. Felix, Prince Edward Island, and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock on Sunday, January 24th, from the home to St. Mary's Church where a Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. J. J. Leary. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Death Of Mrs. Thomas A. O'Connor

The death occurred at the Carney Hospital, Boston, Massachusetts of Mrs. Thomas A. O'Connor after an illness of two months. Mrs. O'Connor was born sixty-seven years ago at St. Felix, Prince Edward Island. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John MacKay and was given the name Catherine at baptism.

After finishing school on Prince Edward Island, Mrs. O'Connor went to Holbrook, Mass., where she was employed, later, she met and married Thomas A. O'Connor in that city and resided there until six years ago when the family moved to Randolph, Mass.

When she became ill, she was removed to the hospital on the advice of the family doctor, and everything possible was done to restore her to health, but God willed otherwise and she died resigned to His Holy will. During her stay in the hospital she was frequently visited by the pastor of her Church and these visits were a source of great consolation to her, and from him, she received the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church.

Mrs. O'Connor possessed a gracious and loving manner which endeared her to all; a hearty welcome was extended to all who called at her home and the needy found in her a sincere friend.
