Song.

Her cheek is like a tinted rose
That June hath fondly cherished,
Her heart is like a star that glows
When day hath darkling perished,
Her voice is as a song-bird's sweet,
The drowsy wolds awaking—
But ah, her love is past compare,
And keeps my heart from breaking.

Lost sunbeams light her tresses free,
Along their shadows gleaming,
Her smiles entangle memory
And set the soul a-dreaming.
Her thoughts, like seraphs, upward soar,
Earth's narrow bounds forsaking—
But ah, her love abides with me
And keeps my heart from breaking.

In the months of March, April and May the blood should be purified, and the system strengthened, so that it be able to withstand the debilitating effects of the changing weather, and resist the attack of disease. A Bad Reason.—A young man named John Bernhart, residing at Tremont, Pa., committed suicide at that place a few days ago by cutting his throat. He left a letter explaining that he had proposed marriage to three young women, all of whom had jilted him, and that rather than live single any longer he would take his life.

French Kid Gloves.—We have imported direct from France a large stock of ladies kid gloves, in all the newest makes. Also a good line of ladies undressed kid gloves. Lowest prices at J. B. Macdonald's. mar 26 6i.

For Over Fifty Years Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. 1yr Robbed The Post Office.—A lad who had been employed in the Newcastle, N. B., post office made or found a key to fit the in side door. He let himself in the other day when the postmaster was at dinner, and took $25 out of the cash drawer. A watch was set for him at noon next day, and he was caught in the act of making another scoop. He was let off for his mother's sake.

The reason why "Myrtle Navy" tobacco has taken so strong a hold upon the smoking community is because it is the genuine article. No man has a desire to smoke anything else than tobacco. Even opium is not smoked for the pleasure of smoking it, but for its soporific effects. The desire for tobacco is, of course, best satisfied by getting the pure article, and when to this is added the finest quality the satisfaction is complete. These two things are combined in the "Myrtle Navy." *

Going Ahead.—Another evidence of square dealing and extensive advertising is that notwithstanding the hard times Prowse Bros. have increased their business this last two months 40 per cent over last year. m28 3i

TESTIMONIAL.

Dear Sir,—As there seems to be another endeavor on the part of some persons to drive Dr. Baynes into a corner and from the Island, I think it time for his friends to again come to his rescue and publish the benefits he has conferred upon them, so that others may know where to apply for like benefits. My case was of long standing, the result of a weak circulation, and baffled the combined skill of half a dozen Island doctors. I am pleased to bear testimony that if it had not been for the skill Dr. Baynes showed I would to-day be helpless. Before applying to him I was unable to sew or attend to my household duties. After the first week's treatment I saw a change and have steadily improved, til, now I can perform my duties as well as ever. Yours, etc.,

PHOSPHOLEINE

when they became smooth and soft.

SCROFULA AND SALT RHEUM.

Dear Mr. Eagar.

I have much pleasure in giving you a record of the effect produced by the use of your PHOSPHOLEINE. The following cases have come under my particular attention while visiting the sick and poor: A case of Hereditary Scrofula.—The patient had tried most of the blood purifying remedies and Sarsaparillas in use, but for the past 19 years obtained no relief. After taking three bottles of your PHOSPHOLEINE his flesh became smooth and healthy, and he is now completely cured. A case of severe cough in the last stages of Consumption: The cough was eased, and the patient regained flesh and strength. This case is past curing, and the patient was pronounced so by physicians; but had she obtained of your medicine sooner, would no doubt have been cured. A case in which patient had given up the use of alcohol: The craving was cured, and the patient was regaining health and strength. A case of loss of flesh, great weakness, and indisposition for exertion of any kind, has been restored to health and strength by using your PHOSPHOLEINE. I have also recommended it to many who have been suffering from Dyspepsia, loss of strength and flesh, and in every case it has effected a cure. I have derived much benefit from the use of it myself. I remain yours, &c.,

E. C. NEWBERY.
