A Face Dream.

What sweet and gentle face is this
That smiles upon me in my dreams?
What red lips lean my lips to kiss?
What golden hair around me gleams?
Something in all I seem to know—
Face, smiles and curls of long ago!

Hear, bending weary at my desk
And feeling all that I have felt,
The dreary street grows picturesque,
Its noises rude in music melt;
And sorrow finds a sweet release
While lips that love me whisper "Peace"

Ah! one who loved me in the days
Which memory with her wreath adorns?
When violets blossomed in the ways
And roses climbed above the thorns;
Who knew not what it was to be
Less than a word of love to me!

I dream and dream, and still the rare
And deathless vision beautifies
My life, and leaves a rainbow there,
After the storm around my eyes!
The storm that moulds itself to rest
And dies with sunlight on its breast!

Our Girls as Successful Women.

A wealthy woman recently gave $200,000 to establish a summer resort for poor mothers and their children. God bless her, this is only one instance among thousands where woman has conceived and executed grand ideas. Women are rapidly entering every branch of the useful arts, and aspiring to every money-making employment. "What shall we do with our girls" is no longer a mighty problem for mothers and fathers to solve. Some one has said "It takes a woman to set a hen," and so it does. The most successful poultry raisers are women. We have in mind a woman who has for years raised finer poultry and got more eggs from her hens at less expense, than her male neighbors,—practical men, too. Let your girls engage in the poultry industry, as many are doing. Give them a fair share of the profits, and they will soon convince their fathers that girls are mighty handy persons to have about the old house. With the aid now offered any person can make hens lay even in cold weather. Out of twenty-four gold coin premiums offered last winter for best results, one-third were won by the women who used Sheridan's Condition Powder to make hens lay. For example Mrs Henry Baker, Holliston, Mass, won $10 and got from 18 hens during the three months' trial 1359 eggs; Mrs L J Wilson, Northboro, Mass, got 3243 eggs from 100 hens; Mrs Edwin Brown, East Greenwich, R I, from 35 hens got 2454 eggs; Mrs E Bartley, Freeport, Pa, got 2029 eggs from 32 hens; Miss Ada L Ross, of Mt Sterling, Ill, from 15 hens got 886 eggs; and Miss Maggie Crouhorn, of Ottobine, Va, got 2000 eggs from 30 hens; each of the last five ladies also won a $5.00 premium from I S Johnson & Co, 22 Custom House St, Boston, Mass. Every person who sends this firm now $1 20 for a can of Powder, and desires it, can have his name entered as a competitor, if the premiums are again offered. For 50 cents they will send two 25 cent packs of Powder; for $1 00 five packs postpaid; six cans for $5 00, express paid; a large can of Powder, also one year's subscription to Farm-Poultry, monthly, both sent postpaid for $1 50. Sample copy of paper 5 cents. Send stamps or cash. Testimonials sent free. no22 dy6i wyli

Peter Cooper's Illustration.

Peter Cooper was one of the most successful, careful, and prudent business men of his time. He was strongly opposed to the methods of many merchants who launched out into extravagant enterprises on borrowed money, for which they paid an exorbitant rate of interest. The following anecdote illustrates this point very forcibly:—

Once, while talking about a project with an acquaintance, the latter said he would have to borrow the money for six months, paying interest at the rate of three per cent. per month.

"Why do you borrow for so short a time?" Mr Cooper asked.

"Because the brokers will not negotiate bills for longer."

"Well, if you wish," said Mr. Cooper, "I will discount your note at that rate for three years."

"Are you in earnest?" asked the would-be borrower.

"Certainly, I am. I will discount your note for $10,000 for three years, at that rate. Will you do it?"

"Of course I will," said the merchant.

"Very well," said Mr. Cooper; "just sign this note for $10,000, payable in three years, and give your cheque for $800, and the transaction will be complete."

"But where is the money for me?" asked the astonished merchant.

"You don't get any money," was the reply. "Your interest for thirty-six months at three per centum per month amounts to 107 per centum, or $10,800; therefore your cheque for $800 just makes us even."

The force of this practical illustration of the folly of paying such an exorbitant price for the use of money was such that the merchant determined never to borrow at such ruinous rates, and he frequently used to say that nothing could have so fully convinced him as this rather humorous proposal by Mr. Cooper.—Youth's Companion.

Five Years a sufferer. Cured of Dyspepsia and the after-effects of Diphtheria
BY
Groder's Botanic Dyspepsia Syrup.

Mispec, New Brunswick, Aug. 6th, 1892.
The Groder Dyspepsia Cure Co., St. John, N. B.

GENTLEMEN: For five long years I SUFFERED THE with the worst form of DYSPEPSIA imaginable. I could eat nothing without distress, even the lightest food causing me untold agony. For the last three years I have been confined to my bed more than half my time. I would have terrible distress in my stomach, severe headache, and be so dizzy at times that everything around me would grow dark; many a time I have said: "I wish I were dead." I tried all kinds of Dyspepsia CURES without any relief whatever, and my physician did me no good. KIND In fact I was discouraged and thought there was no help for me. One day my brother had an errand at the drug store of A. Chipman Smith & Co., St. John, and they wished him to take a bottle of Groder's Botanic Dyspepsia Syrup, to me, on trial. When he came home with the bottle, I said: "I have no faith in this because I have tried so many remedies without receiving any benefit. BUT I did try it, and thanks be to Groder's Dyspepsia Syrup, and its manufacturers, for placing on the market THAT so valuable a remedy. I can truthfully say I am cured. I have no distress at my stomach, no headache, no dizzy spells, and the world looks bright to me again. I can now eat any kind of food, whereas two months ago I could eat nothing but bread and milk, and these in small quantities. My sleep is sound and I enjoy perfect health. I can cheerfully recommend Groder's CURES Botanic Dyspepsia Syrup to any who are suffering from stomach trouble, in any form, and will cheerfully answer all inquires in regard to my case.

Very respectfully, GEO. H. McKEE.

I hereby certify that I gave said bottle of Groder's Syrup to the brother of Geo. H. McKee, and that I believe the above statement to be true.

Signed, E. R. W. INGRAHAM.
