NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP) — Wide gains by some of the more speculative issues continued to give the stock market a livelier air Thursday even though the list as a whole tilted irregularly lower.

Utilities remained about even on balance. A solid string of gains by airlines was the group feature of the day.

The electronics and other space age stocks were generally higher.

The automotive division continued mixed as American Motors reached a new high although closing well below its best price of the day.

Volume rose to 2,510,000shares.

TheAssociated Press average of 60 stocks dropped 60 cents to $221.60.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — Western oils dipped to a four-year index low as the stock market quietly faded today amid the lightest volume in almost two years.

All sections were down on index with base metals giving up almost two-thirds in closing at a four-year low. Golds and base metals also lost a few decimal points. It was the third loss for the market this week.

The world series and the United States steel strike were given as reasons for the lack of interest in the market.

Noranda added ¾ at 48½ but most senior mines were easier. Hudson Bay and Steep Rock were down ¼ while Quemont and Falconbridge gave up ⅛. Consolidated Denison skipped ⅜ at 12⅝.

Kerr-Addison and Dome dipped ⅛ among golds, offsetting a 20-cent win by Giant Yellowknife at $9.50.

Canadian Husky was off 25 cents at $9 while Hudson's Bay and Pacific Pete were down ⅛ among western oils.

Index losses: industrials .16 to 511.63; golds .06 to 89.10; base metals .20 to 163.90; western oils .60 to 99.26.

PM Blasted By Coldwell

OTTAWA (CP) — CCF Leader M. J. Coldwell Monday criticized Prime Minister Diefenbaker's broadcast address last week on tight money as "quite extraordinary."

Mr. Coldwell in a statement said it ignored the salient facts in five main points or indicated that the prime minister wasn't aware of basic causes.

Mr. Coldwell quarrelled with Mr. Diefenbaker's assertion that the banks themselves should portion out their loans to include small borrowers and that the Bank of Canada is responsible only to Parliament.

"The prime minister should know perfectly well that the Bank of Canada is responsible to the government of the day—and it is the government, not the bank, which is directly responsible to parliament," Mr. Coldwell said.

Quiz Show Producer Is Fired When Charge Is Not Cleared

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Broadcasting Company has fired the producer of a quiz show currently on the air because he would not swear there has been no coaching of contestants, congressional investigators were told Wednesday night.

The producer was named as Howard Felsher of the television show Tic Tac Dough.

Thomas E. Ervin, vice-president and general counsel of NBC, gave this testimony to a House of Representatives subcommittee.

He said that in a general checkup of NBC quiz programs, he asked Felsher for a sworn statement that no contestants on Tic Tac Dough had been given advance answers to questions.

Ervin said Felsher would not give such a statement "so we fired him."

AFTER SCANDALS

Tic Tac Dough is one of several quiz shows whose production was taken over by NBC after scandals involving other similar programs.

Two press agents for one of these shows, the defunct Twenty-One, told the subcommittee their lawyer told them not to tell New York authorities the truth about whether that program was rigged by feeding correct answers to contestants beforehand. The press relations men were Alfred Davis and Arthur Franklin.

The lawyer, in New York, called such testimony "wholly unfounded and borne out of desperation and personal animosity."

Davis and Franklin appeared before the subcommittee looking into "fix" charges that led to the collapse of Twenty-One and other big money TV quiz shows last year.

Also Wednesda, two one-shot contestants on Twenty-One gave additional testimony that the show was rigged.

FED ANSWERS

The subcommittee took its first public testimony Tuesday from two who won money on Twenty-One — Herbert Stempel ($49,500) and James Snodgrass ($4,000). Both swore they had been fed answers before going on the air.

Witnesses have named Dan Enright and Albert Freedman as Twenty - One producers who helped set up in advance how contestants would fare.

The committee has announced no plans to hear Charles Van Dorem, winner of $129,000, who telegraphed his denial of knowledge there was anything wrong with the show.

Davis was the first witness officially connected with the show to admit publicly that it was not on the level.

Bidding On Stock Markets Shows Faith In Government

Perhaps it expresses hope more than conviction but Britons who buy shares on the stock exchange dropped their usual canniness Wednesday. They bid up prices as a sign of confidence that the Macmillan government will win today's general election.

Shares of steel companies which will be nationalized again if the Labor party wins met some of the strongest demand. But investors in stocks have more to lose as a group than most others if Hugh Gaitskell becomes prime minister—a sharp look at expense account tax deductions, possible curbs on take-over bids in the financial world and a plan for the treasury to buy shares in public companies.

The Conservative campaign suffered from the start because of over-confidence. The governmet's theme song—"you never had it so good; don't let Labor spoil it"—was not one to win new supporters.

BUCKING THE RECORD

In recent days the Conservatives have been able to take a stronger line. Gaitskell's promises to double pensions and lower the sales tax without increasing the basic income tax have drawn plenty of fire.

But the government is fighting the swing of the political pendulum. When it increased its majority in Parliament in the 1955 election to 60 seats from 17, it was the first time in nearly a century that the party in power had added to its strength.

Additionally, the Conservatives must be worried by another statistic: Only once this century has a party won three elections in a row. The Liberals did it in 1906 and at the two elections in 1910.

The Labor party was hurt in 1955 by the stay-at-home vote. Whether it can overcome this handicap today is an important question.

In a prosperous welfare state, socialist aims don't have the attraction they did in the hungry thirties. If the weather is bad and the television program absorbing, it could be that a number of voters, nominally Labor supporters, won't go to the polls.

CHANCE FOR LIBERALS

Almost every last-minute prediction is for a close vote. The economist estimates that a swing of as little as one or two per cent to the Labor party in the voting would lead to a near deadlock in the Commons.

This would be a situation made to order for the Liberals. They have 217 candidates in the field and 21 of these are contesting Conservative seats regarded as marginal.

If dissatisfaction with the government's foreign and colonial policy proves widespread the Liberals could find themselves in an influential position with only a small gain above the six seats they won in 1955.

Minimum Prices Set In Milk War

CALGARY (CP) — The crown Thursday withdrew four charges against the owners of a Calgary dairy of selling milk below a minimum price and substituted four charges of disobeying a public utilities act regulation.

The crown gave no reason for its substitution of the broader charges. The charges arose from a milk price war which flourished in Calgary during the summer. In an effort to halt the war the milk division of the board of public utility commissioners set minimum prices.

ASK HARD WORK

PEKING (Reuters) — Chinese workers were urged Thursday to go all out to fulfil the country's revised economic production plan for this year 10 to 15 days ahead of schedule. An editorial in the Communist party newspaper, People's Daily, said the workers should continue to make untiring efforts to ensure stable output increases of all products.
