

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT M. LaFORTUNE

Beautiful Choral Music At Summerside Wedding

Baskets of bronze and gold mums formed the picturesque setting for a pretty autumn wedding at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Summerside, P.E.I., at 2 p.m., October 5, when Lorna Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Lawson, Slemont Park, Summerside, and Robert Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. LaFortune, Cobble Hill, B.C., were united in marriage. Ven. Archdeacon Harrison performed the ceremony.

Mr. Everett Penwarden was organist. The professional hymns "Lead Us Heavenly Father, Lead Us," and "O God of Bethel" were sung by the choir, which also sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in a hand-embroidered French lace over white satin, ballerina-length dress with long sleeves tapered to points over her hands. She wore a shoulder-length veil of embroidered silk net, held in place by a rhinestone-encrusted tiara, and carried a cascade bouquet of white shattered mums.

Miss Margaret Jean MacInnis, the maid of honor, wore a ballerina-length gown of lime green antique taffeta, with a shirred bodice, and full skirt, with matching pill-box hat and mitts. Miss Mary Ellen Skerry, the bridesmaid, was attired in a matching gown of bronze antique taffeta. They carried nosegays of bronze mums.

Mr. Bruce Barlow was best man, and Mr. Mark MacKinnon ushered the guests to the pews which were marked with rust and green nylon bows, ventered with bronze

HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Ready have returned home from Moncton, N.B. They were visiting their son Gerald and family who now reside in that city.

Queen Lois, Canadian soprano triumphs—Such is the caption of an article on Lois Marshall. This Canadian who is now an international artist is one of the many brilliant artists who have sung in the Prince of Wales College series of concerts. Sir Thomas Beecham conducting Royal Philharmonic Orchestra and Beecham Choral Society with sopranos Lois Marshall and Elsie Morison, baritone John Cameron and tenor Alexander Young has recorded Handel's "Solomon" (oratorio). The article goes on to say: "The first and only recording of this gloriously beautiful work adds new lustre to Beecham's name and signifies the full-scale arrival of Toronto's Marshall among the phonographic big-leaguers of the high-fidelity era. She sings only three times in her role as the Queen of Sheba, but creates a powerful impression with her soaring voice and the athletic accuracy and ease of her musically style. One or two big-chorus climaxes "peak" a bit; the reproduction, in all other respects, is notably good. All in all, a distinguished and exciting album."

HOUSEHOLD HINT

For best results when cooking on top of the gas range, use pans with flat bottoms to give better heat contact, straight sides to conserve heat and tight covers to retain steam.

A pan of medium weight will do a good cooking job, handles easily.

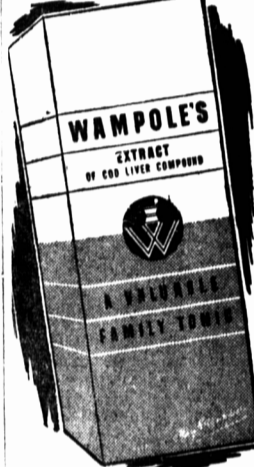

MORNING SMILE

An elderly gentleman of the old school, cruising around on the loose one night, picked up a young girl and took her for a ride. He finally found a suitable parking place and kissed her several times lightly on the cheek.

"This is called spooning," he said.

"Oh yeah?" she yawned. "Well, I'd rather shovel."

Burt-Paynter Wedding At St. Stephen's Church

Baskets of gladioli and bouquets of mums made a pretty setting at St. Stephen's church, Burlington, for the wedding of Rona Louise Paynter and Elmer MacNeill Burt.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 1.30 in the afternoon of Wednesday, September 26th, by the Rev. W. Eric Ingraham, B.A. in the presence of invited guests and interested friends. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Paynter, Burlington, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Annie Burt, Kensington.

The nuptial music was played by Mrs. W.J. Profit and included the hymn "O Perfect Love," played during the signing of the register. The guest pews were marked with sweet peas and fern tied with white ribbon.

Attractively gowned in an afternoon dress of rust and charcoal taffeta with pale green head-dress and matching gloves, the youthful bride chose white mums for her bouquet. Attending her cousin was Miss Pauline Moase wearing forest green taffeta with pale green head-dress and matching gloves, and carrying a bouquet of yellow mums.

The flower girl, Linda Sharpe, cousin of the bride, was winsome in yellow nylon and carried a basket of variegated asters. Otto Dunning, nephew of the bride groom was ring-bearer, and the ushers were Bill Moase, and Lloyd Sharpe, cousin and uncle respectively of the bride.

A reception attended by 25 close friends and relatives was held at Birch Hill Lodge, Summerside. Leaving on a trip to the Mainland, the bride wore a grey suit with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt are residing in Kensington where the former is a valued employee of Mr. George Brookins. Mrs. Burt is a member of the Civil Service at Summerside Airport.

at the home of Mrs. Edwin MacDonald, the second on Oct. 29th at the home of Mrs. John P. Griffin, and the third on Nov. 5th at the home of Mrs. Wm. Murphy.

It was planned to draw for the fruit cake at the card party on Nov. 5. Mrs. George Creed volunteered to take the sick committee for next month. A lottery donated was won by Mrs. Hubert Campbell.

Mrs. Wm. Murphy will be hos-tes for the Nov. meeting which will be opened by singing "Keep the home fires burning" and roll call will be payment of fees. After a delicious lunch a game of cards was more than enjoyed.

Pleasing Ensemble

By VERA WINSTON

SOFT woollen does nicely for this slim dress of the sheath type but with a little more ease. It closes in back with a zipper and has a round, high neckline to do right by a pretty bit of costume jewelry. With it is a wool tweed coat in green flecked with black and white. The coat has a small stand-up collar of black wool. Side belt buttons above all pockets. The sleeves taper to a narrow forearm. Together a good ensemble and each piece on its own has many virtues.

KINGSBORO W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of the Kingsboro Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. John F. Griffin on Tuesday evening Oct. 9. The president, Mrs. Wm. Murphy presided. Meeting opened by singing "I'll Be All Smiles Tonight." Roll call was responded to by telling "How to make the district convention more beneficial. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Correspondence was read and discussed. The sick committee reported one treat given and the school committee reported new brooms needed for the school.

Three card parties were planned for the first one on Oct. 23
