The next newsletter deadline is July 20, 1992.

Illustrations: The Society extends a special thanks to Carmel Smith-Bachand who provided the illustrations of the willow catkins on the cover, apples and Saw-whet Owl (p. 4), Goshawk on nest (p. 8), and edge illustrations on pp. 12 - 13. The Society also acknowledges the illustrations by Environment Week (p. 5), Shelia at Long Point Bird Observatory (p. 5), Canadian Centre for Bio-diversity, B. Dalzell (p. 11), and Woodworking for Wildlife by C. Henderson.

The Natural History Society gratefully acknowledges support from the Department of Tourism and Parks and the Department of Education which enables distribution of newsletters to schools and libraries and to members.

The Natural History Society is an affiliate of the Canadian Nature Federation and has representation on the board of the Island Nature Trust. The Society is a registered, non-profit organization (Part 2, Companies Act). Tax receipts are issued for donations to the Society and these funds are used to further the work of the Society.

Reprinting: Editors of other newsletters and teachers wishing to copy classroom materials are welcome to reprint articles from the Island Naturalist (except when copyrighted). Due acknowledgement must be provided to the Island Naturalist, the author and the illustrator.

THIS MONTHS COVER

The late spring this year led to very late flowering of the willows (Salix sp.) across the Island. The pussy willows which many people collect in spring give rise to the bright yellow and green flowers of different willows.
