Georgetown Lions Club Holds Meeting

King Lion Allan MacPhee presided over the regular meeting of the Georgetown Lions Club held on Tuesday night. The meeting opened with the Lions Prayer recited by Joey Walsh. The secretary, Harry McConnell read the minutes of the last regular meeting and those of a special meeting. The financial report was presented by the treasurer, Joey Walsh.

Sony Johnson reported that a communication from Ottawa had confirmed the purchase by the Club of a pre-fabricated building, from Crown Assets and that an order to take delivery of the building could soon be anticipated from the custodian at Debert, N.S.

The King Lion informed the meeting that McConnell's Clover Farm Shopping Centre, were donating a turkey for the best lighted house at Christmas among Club members. Club members are not eligible for prizes in the regular Lighted Homes Contest, sponsored by the Club.

Eric Wood was delegated to finalize the business in connection with the Triangle Safety signs purchased from Maritime Assembly. Harold Publicover reported that five local members and their wives attended the Charter night for the North Rustico Club.

Harry McConnell reported on the question of the various service clubs operating the rink for the coming season. Waldron Levers stated that the town council had turned the rink over to the Centennial Committee, to be operated in conjunction with other service clubs, and that the town's contribution would be the responsibility of paying the electricity costs. The meeting went on record as favouring participation in the rink operation and Herbie Stewart was appointed to represent the club at a meeting to be held in the near future between representatives of the various service clubs and the Georgetown Athletic Association.

Stillman Mair reported to the meeting on the activities of the Volunteer Fire Fighting Brigades and stated that regular weekly practices were being held and
