Opening lead—king of hearts. A new high of 118 colleges and universities participated in the recent National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament. The annual event, conducted by Geoffrey Mott-Smith, has been growing steadily since its birth in 1940.

A batch of 18 duplicated hands prepared by Mott-Smith is played more or less simultaneously at each college. A par score is established for each deal and each participant shoots for that par.

The test may involve bidding, dummy play, or defense. None of the players knows in advance on which deal or what point his or her skill will be challenged. Most of the hands required on-

3 Adventurers Tackle Ocean

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Barren unfavorable weather three Montreal adventurers hope to begin sailing to Europe today in an 18-foot water tank named Diogenes.

They hope the voyage will take 10 weeks. But they have provisions for three months, just in case.

At present the men are looking for a Newfoundland flag to fly from the masthead of the strange craft—without much success.

"Our last hope is Premier Smallwood," said skipper Richard Melisch. "If he can't give us a Newfoundland flag or if he can't tell us where we can get one, we'll have to start the voyage without it."

Newfoundland's flag is three vertical bars of pink, white and green. Before Confederation in 1949 it could be found almost anywhere.

The men have spent about two weeks here preparing the tank for the trip. Now they are anxious to be off. "... I'm more interested and anxious than ever to undertake the voyage," said Melisch. "My mind is completely unchanged," said Albert Barth. "I decided a year ago to go. Now that we are about to go I have no regrets."

And Robert Frantz said: "I am not worried." Most dockside observers believe the tank is capable of making the trip which has no scientific purpose.

"We're not trying to prove anything," said Melisch. "It's just an adventure." The tank is three-quarters submerged. The men will close the top hatch and seal themselves in when weather gets rough.

GLEN VALLEY W. I. The Glen Valley W.I. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Sterling MacLean and Mrs. Arthur MacLean on May 6th. The president Mrs. Alton MacLean presided.

The various committees gave their reports and new ones were appointed as follows: ick, Mrs. Cyrus Martin and Mrs. Ivan Frizzell; school, Mrs. Edward MacDonald; program, Mrs. Alton MacLean and Mrs. Allan MacDowell. Correspondence was read. The Institute apron is to be sent around again.

Mrs. Cyrus Martin invited members to her home for the next meeting when roll call will be answered with a nickel for each size of your shoe. Collection was 70 cents.

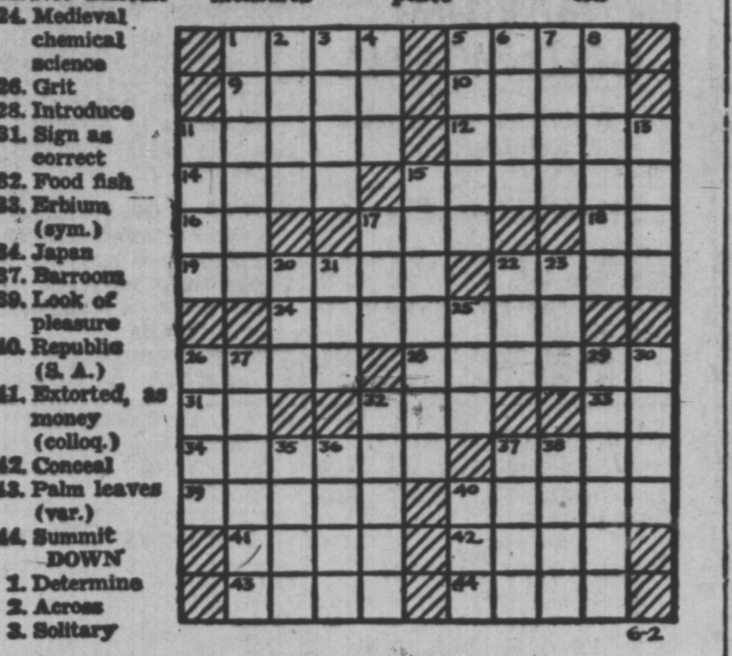

The meeting closed by singing of National Anthem. Organist for evening was Mrs. Eldon Hickox. An interesting contest was won by Mrs. Cyrus Martin was won by Mrs. Alton MacLean.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses assisted by Miss Sharon MacLean.

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints, each day the code letters are different.
