NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

Ottawa.
OTTAWA, Sept. 30.
The House of Commons Chamber is being refitted. There are eighty members, who never sat before, and 14 old members who were out of last Parliament. It is said that Burke will resign for Durham in favor of Blake, Peter Mitchell is spoken of for the Senate.

Montreal.
MONTREAL, Sept. 30.
A magnificent Liberal-Conservative demonstration was held at Three Rivers for the whole Province. The steamers and railways were crowded.
Lord Dufferin has returned to Quebec. The notorious Goff has left for parts unknown, and has not since been heard from.
A Bench warrant has been issued against James Stewart, of the "Herald" on the charge of libel.
Judge Rainsville has sent back the ballot of Montreal Centre to be recounted by the returning officer, who alone will declare the result. Thus has Devlin's first attempt to unseat Ryan failed.
Immense crowds are arriving for the boat race. Both men are in fine form and are daily practising.
The latest political combination is that Dorion will take Taschereau's seat on the Supreme Bench, Meredith, of Quebec, will take Dorion's place, and Laflamme Meredith's place. This I have from reliable Grit sources. The "Star" refers to it tonight.

The Afghan Insult.
LONDON, Oct. 1.
Five batteries of artillery will leave Portsmouth for India on the 15th. The second battalion of the 14th Regt. at Curragh, will embark at Queenstown for India on Saturday next.
A dispatch to the Daily News from Sumatra says preparations are commenced with the utmost speed, several regiments are already mobilized, but the commissariat department requires reasonable time for completion. The army is enthusiastic and the spirit of the native troops is admirable.

VIENNA, Sept. 30.
The Political Correspondence Constantinople dispatch states that Schir Ali Khan, the Secret Envoy of the Ameer of Afghanistan, is instructed to claim the Sultan's intervention in the pending difficulty in order that England shall not declare war against Afghanistan.
He is further to convince the Sultan that an alliance with Russia is advisable for Musselmans and that the Ameer personally has decided to conclude such an alliance.

New York.
NEW YORK, Sept. 30.
The released Fenians, Condon and Melode, who arrived here by the steamer Mosel on Sunday, had many visitors to day. They attended a lecture delivered to-night in their aid by Michael Dewitt.

The shipwrecked crew of the Spanish frigate Pizarro will sail on Thursday for Havana.

Cable Briefs.
The London News is informed that Kuo Sung Tao, the Chinese Minister to London and Paris, shortly retire.
A Pesth Ministerial journal publishes a Vienna telegram that there is a crisis in the Hungarian Cabinet in consequence of the demands of the military party in connexion with Bosnian occupation.
The Telegraph's Vienna dispatch confirms the report that Herr Von Szell, the Hungarian Finance Minister, has announced his intention of resigning.

The Afghanistan Troubles.
Telegraphic despatches of the 30th ult. from India leave no hope that the Afghanistan difficulty will be settled peaceably. The Government are hastening on military preparations, and troops are being collected from all sides and sent to various points on the northwest frontier of India. A Calcutta despatch states that the Government will make Lahore their headquarters for the winter, and will not return to Calcutta. The Foreign Office received orders from the Viceroy entertained no hopes of peace. The Government are anxious to avoid acting hastily. The Ameer has still the choice of submission open to him. In any event, it is doubtful whether an attempt to enter Afghanistan on a large scale will be made until spring. Accurate information regarding the Ameer's strength is wanting, but it is well known that he has a well-equipped standing army, after the European model, besides irregular levies. The most difficult question to be encountered is the possible hostile attitude of the border tribes. The faintest mistake, in fact, or error in judgment might excite a blaze of warfare along the whole frontier of eight hundred miles. It is estimated that these tribes can easily turn out 100,000 fighting men.
The Times correspondent at Calcutta telegraphs as follows: "Unless Shere Ali gives us satisfaction, the present occasion will be seized to secure for ourselves the passes piercing the mountain ranges along the whole frontier, from Khyber to Bolan, and further strategic measures will be adopted to dominate the Dalemir range and Hindoo Koosh mountains. The present condition of affairs on the Afghan frontier and hill tribes, should, once for all, cease to exist, and we may thank the Ameer, and more especially Russia, in the Caucasus, for affording us this opportunity of consolidating the defences of our Indian Empire by strategic and military reconstruction of our frontier.

A Black Hills Pleasantry
DEADWOOD, September 27.—The treasure coach of the Cheyenne and Black Hills stage line, that left here yesterday morning was stopped by five armed men at Canon Springs, forty-five miles south of here, at 3 p. m. Two messengers, Captain Smith and Galehill, were seriously wounded, and one passenger, H. O. Campbell, a telegraph operator, was killed. The treasure taken amounted to between $25,000 and $30,000. Ten armed men have started from here in pursuit of the robbers.

The Yellow Fever as Seen in Memphis.
(Memphis Daily Appeal, Sept. 10th.)

To lose over twelve hundred men, women and children in twenty-seven days out of a population of 15,000, white and black, and to be expending over $10,000 for twelve hundred nurses and forty doctors, and for medicines and food, for more than 3,000 sick and 10,000 indigent, is to us a sad reality, enough to move even a stoic to tears. But, besides this, there come the tales of individual sorrow; of whole families swept away in a week, leaving not even one of the name; of nurses dying at their posts, of priests and ministers and good sisters following those they succeeded so fast as to appal the stoutest heart and "give us pause" amid the general wreck and ruin. No pen can do these scenes and sights justice; no tongue exaggerate them. Lispering childhood, hoary and venerable old age, the vagrant and the merchant, the man of God and the unbeliever, all are taken, all are claimed alike by the awful pestilence. It thins all ranks, and brings sorrow to the mansion, the cottage and the cabin. The cry of the fatherless is heard every hour, claiming the pity, the sympathy, and the tears of the most hardened veteran. In this office, as we write, there are but two left of all who a month ago were employed in the editorial, counting and composing rooms, and our pressman is down with the fever. Strangers to the office, as to the business, are attending to our affairs, while the only editor left on duty alternates, through sixteen hours a day, between his desk and a case. This is our personal measure of the dreadful epidemic, and surely it is a sad one. It has moved us to tears many a time the past ten days, although we are not used to the melting mood. Our experience is one we will never forget, and it is a common one. The fifth epidemic we have passed through, this surpasses them all in the horrors it has uncovered. Parents have deserted children, and children parents, husbands their wives, but not one wife a husband. Men have dropped dead on the streets, while others have died neglected, only to be discovered by the death-spreading gases from their bodies. Little children clamoring for the food she could no longer give, have appealed to the dead mother, who gave up her spirit as she gave birth to her last, in an agony of the fever. Ministers of the gospel carrying messages of peace, hurrying from house to house, have had their weary feet arrested and their work stayed by the pestilence, that walks in the noonday as at night. The priest, administering the extreme unction, and the bride of Christ, wiping the death-damp from the forehead of those whose friends and kinfolk are far away, are almost paralyzed in the sacred act, and die even before we know they are sick. The business of the hour is the succor of the sick, the burial of the dead, and the care of the needy living. The last words of those who are well, are at night farewells to the dead, and the first in the morning "who lives and who has died?" All day, and every hour of the day, this question is repeated, and the heart sickens at the reports, and the soul grows weary over the repetition. And yet there is no relief nor any release. Worse and worse the epidemic has grown until to-day it has capped the climax, and the hearts of the brave men who have stood in the breach are blanched with fear, with a dread that annihilation awaits us, and that we are destined to be blotted from the earth. Fear sits on every face and dreads on every heart. We work not in the shadow, but in the very face of Death. We meet him on every hand and at every moment in the names of his victims, and in the desolation he has spread about us. Hope we have none. We despair of any relief, but we are nerved for the end. We pray blessings upon the generous who have helped us all in the States; we pray for the safety of those who have come among us to nurse the sick and minister to the dying, and we ask that the names of the women and men who have laid down their lives for us shall be handed down forever as among the brightest and best of earth.
