Baltimore Becomes Member Of AHL

CLEVELAND (AP) — Baltimore was admitted Tuesday as a member of the American Hockey League.

The league's board of governors acted after a long morning session and most of their afternoon meeting. The vote was not announced, but Baltimore needed six of the eight votes cast in the closed session.

Baltimore becomes the ninth member of the league and the 16th city to hold a franchise in the league's 26-season history.

Later in their three-day session which opened Monday, the governors will consider scheduling for the coming season. Last winter 70 games were played, and there was talk the new schedule would call for 72 games.

Other teams in the league are Quebec, Buffalo, Cleveland, Hershey, Pittsburgh, Providence, Rochester and Springfield. At last month's meeting the league refused to allow either Springfield or Rochester to move their franchise to Baltimore.

As yet no name has been chosen for the new club which will be the first professional hockey team for Baltimore since 1936 when fire destroyed Carlin's Park and cost Baltimore Clippers of the Eastern League a home rink. The Clippers' Eastern League franchise then moved to Charlotte, N.C.

The Baltimore AHL entry will need to assemble player talent from the ground up, but it is understood negotiations already are well along for a working agreement with New York Rangers of the National Hockey League.

CBC To Carry Grey Cup Tilt

OTTAWA (CP) — This year's Grey Cup football game to be played in Toronto Dec. 1 will be broadcast on the CBC's coast - to - coast television network, CBC president J. Alphonse Ouimet said Tuesday.

Mr. Ouimet announced that the CBC has accepted an offer from the privately-owned CTV network to provide the game free of charge to the publicly-owned corporation.

The text of a letter to John Bassett, chairman of CFTO-TV Toronto, a member of the CTV network, accepting the offer made by Mr. Bassett June 7 was released by Mr. Ouimet's office.

CFTO-TV and the CTV network will purchased exclusive rights to the game from the Canadian Football League for $175,000.

Mr. Ouimet's letter said the CBC will require a "clean feed" of the broadcast and will bring the game unsponsored to its entire TV service in English and French. A CBC official said that no commercials will be carried and that there will be no identification of the CTV network.

Under the arrangement, the game will be broadcast by all CBC stations and by the eight stations making up the CTV network. This means the game will be broadcast in cities where CBC and CTV stations are in competition.

Chinese Refugees Slated To Start Arriving In July

OTTAWA (CP) — The immigration department has announced that the 100 Hong King refugee families the federal government is bringing to Canada will begin arriving by July 15 or earlier.

The families will be flown to Canada at the government's expense on three chartered Canadian Pacific Air Lines flights. The flights will terminate at Vancouver, Winnipeg and Toronto where placement centres will be established.

The Immigration department will have the responsibility of finding housing and jobs for heads of families. It also will select familes which private groups and individuals have agreed to sponsor.

Families will be selected in Hong Kong by the department working in co-operation with the Hong Kong welfare department and social service agencies. Preference will be given to families who have fled from Communist China since May 1.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	2 ♣	2 ♦	Pass
2 NT	Pass	3 NT

Opening lead—queen of clubs.

Of the three departments in bridge—bidding, dummy play, and defense—by far the hardest to master is defense. This hand shows how difficult it sometimes is to defend correctly. At the same time, it demonstrates the logic behind good defense.

South is in three notrump and West leads the queen of clubs. Declarer wins with the ace, East playing low, and returns a low spade.

Let's say West plays low, as most players would. Dummy wins with the queen and South then romps home with nine tricks — consisting of a spade, six diamonds and two clubs.

However, let's go back to West's play at trick two and see whether he should have played low on the spade lead. He has lots of thinking to do when South leads the three of spades.

First of all, West knows that declarer has the A-K of clubs, since East failed to signal on the queen of clubs. Also, he knows, or should know, that South has the ace of diamonds. It would not make sense for declarer to ignore the diamond suit unless he already has it fully under control, which means he has the ace.

South is consequently known to have started with eight running tricks. To duck the spade is therefore wrong, since it will pretty surely present declarer with his ninth trick.

West should go up with the ace, reasoning that South's opening bid consists of the king of spades, ace of diamonds and A-K of clubs. He should then attack hearts, the only possible weakness in declarer's armor.

But here, also, West must be careful how he plays the suit. If he leads a low heart, or the king of hearts, South still makes the contract.

Only the lead of the ten of hearts permits the contract to be defeated. West must play on the basis that East has as good as A-J-8-x or A-J-7-x, in which case, regardless of what declarer does, four heart tricks can be cashed by starting with the ten.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X B
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
