Braves Slaughter Yankees To Grab Commanding Lead

By JACK HAND
MILWAUKEE (AP)—Lew Burdette Thursday won his fourth straight world series game, hitting a three-run homer during a record seven-run first-inning Milwaukee spree as the Braves made it two in a row in a 13-5 romp over New York Yankees.

SPORTSFRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

NEW YORK YANKEES certainly didn't like the surroundings at County Stadium, Milwaukee. If they keep up playing ball the way they did on Wednesday and Thursday they won't see County Stadium any more this season because the Braves will have the series wrapped up right in front of the Yankees home fans. There'll be no need of a return visit to the home of the Braves.

YESTERDAY the world champions played just like real champions. Sure it was a great game to win, but certainly not a tough one to lose. Wednesday's tussle could have gone either way but Thursday's was over a few minutes after it started.

IT WAS STRICTLY no contest after the Braves batted in the first when they sent ten men to the plate and seven came scampering across home plate. That was the ball game right then and there. From then on it was strictly a case of how the individuals would do. And fellows like Burdette, Bruton and Covington surely covered themselves with glory.

BURDETTE won his fourth straight world series game over the Yankees and until he weakened in the ninth, he was a terrific hurler. Up until the ninth he held those New Yorkers to three hits and had retired 15 men in a row until Hank Bauer opened the Yanks' final frame with his second home run of the series.

EVEN THE MOST ARDENT Yankee fan couldn't start making excuses for what happened yesterday. There were only two reasons—the Braves' bats were too powerful and Burdette was too great a pitcher. It might not happen again but it did yesterday and the Yankees were hopelessly outclassed.

BUT THE RECORDS show the Braves with two victories in two starts and the Haney crew got no more for Thursday's affair than they do for the squeaker the day before. At any rate the chips are on the line and the Stengel-managed crew have no time left in which they can afford to lose ball games. Only victories are what they can afford to get from here on and if these victories don't start at once this 1958 series could be over in an awful hurry.

YANKEE FANS, however are hard to down. They tell you about 1956 when Brooklyn won the first two games at Ebbets' Field, yet lost the series to these very Yanks. They certainly have a point there, because Brooklyn clobbered the Bombers in that second game much the same as they were slaughtered yesterday. They still insist that back home Saturday in Yankee Stadium, Don Larsen will start the Bombers on the victory trail.

THESE YANKEE FANS saw some joy in that crushing defeat on Thursday. They finally saw their boys get rough in the ninth even though the game was lost. It brought back memories of 1942 when the Cardinals, trailing 7-0 in the ninth in the first game, finally got to Red Ruffing for four runs. They lost that ball game but they roared back and won the next four over the New Yorkers.

REMEMBER he called it for the Braves in five.

WELL, JACK READY and Bill Ledwell started something Wednesday when they staged that Queen Charlotte-Birchwood track and field meet at Memorial Field.

WE REMINDED our readers a short time ago about the tremendous rivalry in track and field between Queen Square and West Kent some thirty years ago. It was really something and it indeed was a great pity that it ever went out of existence.

EVERYTHING WAS run off most efficiently and both Ledwell and Ready are indeed deserving of praise for the effort they expended. We know that both of these gentlemen felt pretty good about the way things went. 'Sp' especially was delighted because his Queen Charlotte charges made off with top honors.

seventh inning of a series game had the Yankees squirming in such misery as they did in that long first frame. First Bob Turley, their 21-game winning ace, and then Duke Maas felt the power of the world champions' bats before Johnny Kucks finally ended it.

ALMOST AUTOMATIC WIN After that it was strictly a matter of going through the motions until the ninth when a Yankee rally against a retiring pitcher netted three runs. Mickey Mantle had hit a long home run over the center field fence in the fourth but Burdette was rolling along with a steadily-mounting lead.

SETTS SERIES MARK Burdette, the three-time winner in last year's Milwaukee triumph, was the first pitcher to win four in a row from the same club since Lefty Gomez of the Yanks turned the trick against New York Giants in 1936-37 with the help of Johnny Murphy in one game.

CLIMB ON DICKSON All was quiet in the Braves' camp until the seventh when they suddenly realized that an old man, Dickson, was doing the chugging. Singles by Aaron, Covington and Torre and a sacrifice fly to Crandall added two more runs.

YOGI ENDS STRING Yogi Berra got Burdette off the hook by bouncing into a double play that ended the first inning. Then the Braves went to work. Bruton, whose 10th inning single won the opener 4-3, lashed a 375-foot homer into the right field bleachers. Red Schoendienst bounced a double past Bauer to the right field fence.

BURDETTE SWINGS HARD Burdette, who fancied himself quite a hitter, strolled to the plate in the ninth.

THE MILWAUKEE 'Braves' star right-hander rumbled salt in the Yankees' wounds by belting a three-run homer in a seven-inning first inning which launched a 13-5 second consecutive world series triumph over New York.

Floyd Offered $250,000 For Title Match

SEATTLE (AP)—A $250,000 offer to Floyd Patterson to defend his world heavyweight boxing title against Ingemar Johansson in Seattle next summer was made Thursday by a Seattle group.

Edman, local business man and spokesman for the group, said the offer went by telegram and cable to Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, and Edwin Ahlquist, representative of the Swedish fighter.

Phillies Buy Pitcher From Minneapolis

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Philadelphia Phillies Thursday bought Al Schroll, a 25-year-old right-handed pitcher, from Minneapolis of the American Association.

Schroll was the star of the Minneapolis club that swept through the Association playoffs and little world series. He won three straight in the series against Montreal Royals.

During the regular season Schroll had an 8-8 record. He is 6-2 and weighs 210 pounds.

Orioles Lehman Sold To Phillies

BALTIMORE (AP)—Pitcher Ken Lehman, 30, of Baltimore Orioles has been sold to Philadelphia Phillies of the National League on waivers, the Orioles announced Thursday.

Lehman, a left-hander, came to Baltimore in June, 1957. He had been in the Brooklyn Dodger organization since he broke into pro ball.

Rangers Down Hershey Bears, Players Arrested

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (CP) Rookie Eddie Shack of New York Rangers and Larry Zeidel of Hershey Bears were arrested by police Thursday night after a stick-swinging fight on the ice and a fist fight in the stands during an exhibition hockey game.

The National Hockey League Rangers downed last season's American Hockey League champs, 7-3.

Shack and Zeidel were ejected from the game after the stick-swinging episode and resumed their brawl a short time later.

Rangers were leading 3-0 just before the midway mark in the game when the two players began battling near the boards. Referees and players were unable to get close to them because of the swinging sticks.

Before the scrap was stopped Zeidel had a 10-stitch cut on his head. They were both in street clothes in the stands when the fight broke out again just after the start of the third period. It turned into a free-for-all.

Police finally broke up the battlers and hustled Shack and Zeidel out. They did not say what charges, if any, would be laid.

Ranger scorers were Bill Gadsby with two, Dean Prentice, Andy Hebenston, Bill Doherty, Larry Poppin and Andy Bathgate. Hershey goals went to Tom McCarthy with two and Eddie Stanekiewicz.

Langlois Lost To Canadiens For All-Star Game MONTREAL (CP)—Defence-man Albert (Junior) Langlois, injured in an exhibition hockey game Tuesday night, may be lost to Montreal Canadiens for six weeks.

Club officials said Thursday a decision is expected soon on a replacement who will take over Langlois's position with the National Hockey League champion Canadiens when they meet the league all-stars here Saturday night.

Langlois suffered a dislocation of the right shoulder in a game in Sudbury between Canadiens and Rochester Americans of the American League.

Harness Racing On Mainland

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP)—Ramona Chips took the second dash of the feature harness racing event here Thursday night with a 2.16 mile, the fastest of the program. Vanguard led the other heat, when Ramona Chips finished third.

Two other double dashes also produced single winners. They were Brookdale's Tip, Roy Scott, Pep and Morris Direct. Other events went to Merryland and Holley's Pride.

FREDERICTON (CP)—Swift Rip, owned by W.D. Davis of Houlton, Me., won two harness racing dashes here Thursday night but his best time 2:17 1-5, was considerably slower than the 2:12 4-5 of a single winner, Betty's Princess, from Gagetown.

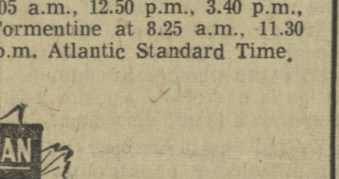

Other single wins in the program of double dashes were recorded by Dr. Wilfred C. Siny, maide, Roman Council, Rush Cedar and Dominion's Pride.

thought it was in the dirt." Billy Bruton, fast emerging as the budding star of the series with three hits to go along with his game-winning single of Wednesday, said he belted one of Bob Turley's fast balls for his homer.

"He was missing with his curve," Bruton said, "so I waited for the fast ball." At least one player is thinking in terms of a four-game sweep.

First baseman Frank Torre said he'd like to wrap up the autumn classic in New York because "it would save me a lot of travelling money."

Haney steadfastly refused to reveal his pitching choice for Saturday's third game. "No siree," he said, "I'm not saying now. I've got to check with my coaches and do some figuring before I name my starter."

"I figured I better get them out, though," he added. "Things were getting rather binding out there."

Manager Fred Haney said afterward he had no thought of taking his Yankee killer out.

"Not with that many runs at any rate," Haney said. "If they'd gone much farther I might have." Burdette, who helped his own cause with a mighty three-run homer in Milwaukee's seven-run first inning, could think of no reason for his mastery over the Yankees.

"There's no reason that I know of," he said. "They're as good as last year." Asked about his homer, Burdette said: "It was a long ball. Anybody can hit a ball out of the park. I proved that."

He said Mickey Mantle hit his home runs off a sinker and a screw ball that was "so low I
