

UN To Debate Disarmament

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — At the urging of both the United States and Russia, the United Nations agreed Tuesday to begin immediate detailed debate on disarmament.

The action was taken in the 82-nation political committee, where U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge declared disarmament "the most urgent problem of this assembly."

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister V. V. Kuznetsov declared that "the most important, the most urgent issue before us is a solution of the disarmament problem."

While the Soviet Union and the United States were in rare agreement on procedure, they remained far apart on how to achieve disarmament.

The debate will begin Thursday.

Before the committee acted India's V. K. Krishna Menon urged in the General Assembly that the United States, the Soviet Union and Britain express joint willingness to suspend nuclear tests as a first step toward disarmament in the new "international planetary age."

Menon said a suspension of tests could be monitored by a UN agency.

Menon said the launching of the Soviet satellite marked the beginning of the "international planetary age." He appealed to the "atomic colossi" to move toward each other in making progress on disarmament.

Heard Russian Moon Signals

Several radio amateurs in the Charlottetown area heard the Russian satellite — the Guardian learned last night.

W. Stewart Smith, East Royalty said that he heard it on Monday night and it was easily distinguishable. Asked what it sounded like he said something like "Doh-doh-doh." It was very slow and easily distinguished from other signals. The signals he added was fairly strong.

Fulton Proud had heard it the previous night, Mr. Smith reported. While the Guardian representative was speaking to Mr. Smith he called a Truro amateur who reported hearing the signal Tuesday morning.

Souris Native Killed In Ont.

BRANTFORD (CP) — Hubert Lannigan, 37, of Hamilton and formerly of Souris Prince Edward Island was killed early Sunday when his car went out of control and smashed into a hydro pole. He worked for the Canadian Porcelain Company. Firemen worked for an hour to free his body from the wreckage.

Lanigan's car missed a sharp curve and plunged into a ditch. It skidded more than 100 feet before coming to rest on its side. The late Mr. Lannigan served overseas with the Canadian Army and for two years was a prisoner of war in Italy. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Theresa Lannigan, a patient at Beach Grove. His father predeceased him several years ago.

However, Dulles held to the U.S. position that any such talks would have to be held within the United Nations.

Entertained P.W.C. Students

Mr. Frank Crawshaw, "the man with a hundred faces," presented his one-man show to the students of Prince of Wales in the College auditorium yesterday afternoon.

The British stage, screen, radio and TV personality was making his second appearance on an island stage. Several years ago he presented his unique show to Charlottetown audiences under the sponsorship of a local society.

Yesterday the P.W.C. students were treated to several examples of the entertainer's extensive repertoire. In addition to a number of character sketches, recitations, etc., Mr. Crawshaw gave a number of Shakesperian interpretations.

During the past eight years this noted artist has covered over 200,000 miles of the earth's surface with his "One-Man Theatre" performaces, including four coast-to-coast tours. His

Recalled Experiences At Big Scout Jamboree

Patrol leader Roger Craig of Trinity troop and Scott Rogers of the Kirk troop, both Queen Scouts and second year students at Prince of Wales College, brought vividly before the members of St. Paul's Laymen's Association at a supper meeting last night the highlights of their experiences at the Scout Jamboree held in England during the summer.

Scout Craig told of their flight from Charlottetown to Moncton and Gander and the big hop from there to London, all of which took 16 hours. A week in Paris, arranged for by Ben Rogers, manager of the local branch of the Bank of Montreal, was a special treat for the Island Scouts. Cliff Holman, formerly of Charlottetown, now residing in London entertained three of the Charlottetown boys for a day of memorable touring.

At the official opening by the Queen and Prince Philip on August first, 35,000 scouts marched 32 abreast in over one thousand lines. The camp was closed on Aug. 12 by Lady Baden Powell, World Guide chief.

The story in pictures was featured by Scout Rogers, who presented on the screen in colours more than 50 of his collection of 200 views, accompanied by a running account of the trip from beginning to end. The Scouts of the Residence with 25 members introduced by president T.D. DeBlois.

A period of silence was observed out of respect to the memory of the late Harry Miller and Louis Diamond, both of whom were members of the Association. Mr. Miller was particularly active in Church work over many years and was closely identified with the development of the Anglican Youth Centre at Cra-paud.

Rev. Canon Ibbott, speaking briefly, appreciated the attendance at this, the opening fall meeting of the Association. He urged a representative group to attend the Diocesan Conference on Evangelism to be held in Halifax on Oct. 19-20, and the Deanship Conference in Summerside on Wednesday Oct. 9.

An expression of thanks for the splendid supper provided by the Ladies Aid was extended to the conveners, Mrs. Maurice Weeks and Mrs. George Purvis.

Regret was expressed at the illness in hospital of E.W. MacKinnon, H.A. Messervy and Edward Miller, three members of the Association.

Ben Rogers was congratulated on the occasion of his wedding anniversary.

T.R. MacDonald, John Evans and Stanley Story, the latter from Baltimore, Md., now taking up residence here, were welcomed as new members.

Scout guests were: John Ives, Dave Likely, and Bob Lord. Clive Stewart was also a guest. Al Blanchard was pianist and song leader.

Junior League Held Regular Monthly Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Jr. League of the Charlottetown Hospital was held on Tuesday, October 8th, at the Nurses Residence with 25 members present. Mrs. John Malone, president, opened the meeting with prayer. This was followed by roll call and the minutes of the previous meeting which were adopted as read.

The treasurer, Mrs. Byron Burns then read her report. The correspondence was read by Mrs. Maurice McAleer and letters from Mrs. John Gill and Mrs. Jack McCarville thanking the club for gifts received.

The president then welcomed and introduced one new member, Mrs. Earl Christopher. She also thanked all the members for their help during Hospital Bazaar. Reports were then given by the chairman of the different committees.

Knitting - Mrs. Gerald Nantes thanked the members for their help in making so many nice things for the baby booth at the Bazaar and asked for some articles to be knit for the needs of the nursery.

Sewing - Mrs. Maurice McAleer reported all the material had been cut and handed out to the members to be sewn and al-

No Cases Of Paralytic Polio Are Reported On The Island

Only two suspected cases of polio, both non-paralytic, were found on Prince Edward Island to date this year, Dr. Lorne Bonnell, Minister of Health, announced last night.

The polio case rate, both in the United States and in Canada is down very considerably this year over last, the Minister said, and no doubt is due to a considerable extent to the mass administration of Salk Vaccine.

However, since it is possible that 1957 may not be an epidemic year, it will be some time before the full value of the vaccine is known. It is hoped that the vaccine will wipe out polio much the same as smallpox vaccination.

Evangelistic Services Are Attracting Large Crowds

"What Are You Living For?" was the theme pursued last evening by Rev. Edgar J. Bailey in his second evangelistic message in the Charlottetown Baptist Church. "For many people," he said, "the big thing in life is food. They literally live to eat." The speaker went on to say that there are people on every hand who are well-nourished physically but who are suffering from spiritual malnutrition. "What is a man advantaged," Mr. Bailey asked, "if he should gain the world and lose his soul?"

Commenting on the fact that Job lost his family, his wealth, and his health, but still had something to live for, Mr. Bailey asked the congregation, "if that happened to you, would you have anything left?" He concluded, "In the temporal, changing world in which we live there is only one thing ultimately, to live for. It is to live for Jesus Christ."

Before the evening service, Mr. Bailey addressed members of the Baptist Men's Association in the Lower Church Hall at supper meeting. Drawing upon his experiences as a Canadian Army Chaplain Overseas in theatres of war, and referring to the precarious times in which we live, Mr. Bailey spoke of the urgency of the church's task to win men to life as it is in Jesus Christ.

Congregational singing continues to be one of the highlights of the Crusade services. Again, last evening, Mr. Bailey directed the singing, assisted by Mrs. Lee Dingwell at the organ and Miss Florence Simmons at the piano.

The services which are attracting so many continue this evening at 7:45 when the evangelist will speak on life's most important question, "What Think Ye of Christ?"
