

A Growing Youth. FROM NINE POUNDS TO ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY IN THREE YEARS.

In the family of Adam Castleman of Casey county, Ky., there is a boy only 3 years old who stands three feet four inches in his stockings, measures sixteen inches around the calf of the leg, twenty-six inches around the thigh, forty-two inches around the waist, thirty-eight inches around the chest, and weighs 130 pounds.

Garden Soil in the Desert.

More good news from the North West. While Professor Macoun was, during the summer, finding and exploring unexpected and noble forests north of Lake Manitoba and regions under the same parallels of latitude, Dominion surveyors were traversing districts south in the desert, supposed to be almost hopelessly sterile, and to their astonishment found large masses of excellent land.

An interesting incident in the Vice-Royal tour of the Northwest, is narrated in a private letter received by Alphonse Chervier of Ottawa. In September last when the Governor General's party had pitched their tents at Gabriel crossing, on the road to Edmonton, John Fairbanks and family, bound for the latter place, camped near the Vice-Royal party.

The past season has witnessed unusually large additions to the population of Canada by way of immigration. Forty-two thousand permanent settlers, have come into Canada during that period.
