Designed to Educate Young Men for Business.

OUR SYSTEM is conducted on Actual Business and Scientific Principles, and embraces all subjects necessary for a thorough COMMERCIAL Education. Our facilities for teaching these are the most complete that have ever been devised. Theory and practice are combined, and the whole course rendered so interesting and practical that the duller student cannot fail to be largely benefited. The course of Study is short, practical, useful and reasonable; it is just what every MAN needs and will use, no matter what his calling or profession is to be.

The youth commencing a business life with only industry and integrity as his capital, the clerk engaged during business hours, but desirous by evening study to repair the defects in his education, each have the advantage offered by our sessions occupying DAY AND EVENING. Morning Session, 9.30 to 12, and 2 to 4 p. m. Evening Session, 7.30 to 9.30.
Diplomas granted to such as pass satisfactory examinations. Students may enter at any time. No entrance examination required.
Business men and others are cordially invited to call and examine our system.
Teach your sons what they will practice when they become men.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of our correspondents

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—The West River is an excellent place for shipping produce; and vessels from the States and Provinces resort thereto for produce each fall. Over a year ago Mr. Faugharson, when potatoes were at a low figure and very abundant, induced the people to pledge to him a large acreage at 14 cents per bushel, alleging that potatoes would not be high again. But last fall potatoes were 40c. per bushel, thus showing a loss to the people of 31 cents per bushel, and will probably be a good price next fall as they are now. What excuse has he now to offer for deceiving the farmers of Lot 65 by his false predictions, and causing them a severe loss of their hard-earned labor by the political starch factory, for the next five years. The political few care but little who suffers, as long as he pockets the money.

Yours,
April 22, '82. WEST RIVER.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—Derogatory as it may appear to the interests of the community that the elections have been proclaimed this year earlier than usual, all can see one benefit arising from it. The editor of the Patriot will have something to write about. While it is a part of a journalist to call attention to existing grievances, he cannot be too careful against arousing groundless fears in the mind of a suspicious public. The case in point is that of the Asylum. On the heels of an editorial on the subject, in the Patriot, there appeared a letter signed "E. Waller"—a rehash of the Patriot's statements—which, the writer says, you refused to publish till facts were obtained.
What more reasonable? If the editor of the Patriot had a particle of conscience, or what would serve the purpose equally well, common sense, he would have done the same till he had sent his Reporter to the scene which, in my opinion, would be much more honorable than seeking information from attendants dismissed from the Institution.
Of E. Waller's ability (if he is the ex-manager) to manage an asylum I have nothing to say, except that, financially, he seemed to know it would be to his interest to maintain his family at the public expense in the grim security of the old asylum.

After Dr. Blanchard's statement in your issue of Friday, we shall see if the editor of the Patriot will retract his assertions, which, if true, would be most damaging to the Doctor and to him whom even the editor of the Patriot admits to be an efficient supervisor, as well as to the kind-hearted matron.

Ch'town, April 22, 1882.

A Caution to Persons en route to Winnipeg.

EMERSON, Manitoba, April 7, 1882.

Will you kindly caution people from the Maritime Provinces, who intend coming to Manitoba, not to buy tickets from J. Godfrey, station agent, at Amherst, N. S., as he does not sell a ticket that will bring them to Manitoba, although his tickets are marked to a place in that Province.

On the 28th March I bought a ticket from him, issued by the Intercolonial Railway to Emerson, Man., via the Northern Pacific Railway from Minneapolis, Minn., not knowing that said road did not go any further than Glyndon, Minn., about 200 miles south of Emerson. I paid J. Godfrey $37.75 for my through ticket, but I was obliged to pay my fare, $6.40, to the conductor to bring me from Glyndon to Emerson, on the St. Paul M.
& M. road. It appears to me that Godfrey must have been aware that the Northern Pacific Road only went as far as Glyndon, and that he sold me this ticket because of a larger commission, thinking he would hear nothing more of it.

It is well for the people who are coming to Manitoba to be careful from whom they buy tickets; and they should also see that their tickets will bring them via the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railroad from St.
Paul, as this is the only road running into Manitoba as yet. I know of another traveller that Mr. Godfrey played the same trick on.

I am surprised that the Intercolonial Railroad would allow its agents to issue tickets over a road that has no existence only in imagination.

Geo. I. DARBY,
Formerly of P. E. Island.

Public Meeting at St. Peter's.

A meeting of the electors of Head St.
Peter's Bay was held in the County Court House, on Saturday, the 22nd instant, for the purpose of nominating candidates to represent them in the House of Assembly.
After appointing Charles Waye, Esq., as Chairman, and the undersigned Secretary—

THE HON. W. W. SULLIVAN said, immediately after the dissolution of the Government, he had asked Mr. Hooper to call a meeting in the district, in conjunction with him; and that the electors should not blame Mr. Hooper for not being present, for he feared he had not got the notice.
He then went on to show that he, as Leader of the Government, had fulfilled all the promises he made in his Election Card, and that, by strict economy, they had lessened the expenditure, and, at the same time, faithfully looked after the interest of the country in every department of the public service; that the present Government had spent more money in encouraging agriculture than any of their predecessors; that they had done all in their power to get a share of the Fishery Award, except appeal to the court of justice, which they would do if returned to power; that he was happy to inform the electors that his Government had, for the year ending 1881, a surplus of $12,000, and, having placed the finances of the Province in such a way, they have re-peeled the Assessment Act, and he believed that, if returned to power, they could carry on the Government without any further taxation. He showed that the Government had used their best exertions to abolish the Legislative Council, and, if returned, the Government would persevere in the same progressive policy.

MR. W. D. STEWART being called, said that he had been invited to attend the meeting, and, as the night was far advanced would make his remarks as short as possible; that he believed he was prepared to prove that Mr. Sullivan had not fulfilled all the promises made in his card to the electors; that he had heard an elector say that he (Mr. Sullivan) had said that he would never lead a Government that would continue the Davies Assessment Act; yet he, and his Government keep it in force until they were to meet their constituents at the polls. He said they were neglecting the public service, that the roads and bridges were in a disgraceful state. He charged the Government with playing into the hands of the Dominion Government in their attempt to get the Fishery Award; and said that the Stock Farm Building was a sham, and the money expended on them thrown away; and concluded his remarks by saying that the Government was doing a great injustice when they were not making some change in the Lunatic Asylum.

THE HON. SIMON BOLGER said he had supported the present Government, although, he would admit that he and the Leader had often differed.
Yet, the Government he had carried out his views on the political questions of the day. He denounced Mr. Stewart and the Opposition for not having, in their platform, prepared to amend the School Act, and do away with the Supplementary Clause.

After Mr. Sullivan replying to Mr.
Stewart, the following resolutions were carried:—

Proposed by Hilary McIsaac, Esq., and seconded by John D. Gillis, Esq.:

Resolved, That this meeting highly approves of the Policy heretofore pursued by the present Government, and of the platform they have now placed before the country.

THE HON. W. W. SULLIVAN was then proposed by Lawrence P. Doyle and seconded by John Larkin, which nomination was carried and accepted.

After a vote of thanks being tendered to W. D. Stewart for his attendance, the meeting adjourned.

ANDREW LEWIS,
Secretary.

Land League Meeting.

The Fanny Parnell Branch of the I. N.
L. League held its regular meeting at Avondale Schoolhouse, on Thursday, 20th inst. The President, George O'Neill, Esq., occupied the chair. Several new members were admitted, amongst whom was P. J.
D. Edmonds, Esq., who very highly complimented the Branch both in its choice of a President and in the interest manifested in the present movement. After giving his opinions on the probable results of the Land League, he said: "Apart from the great movement on hand, the amount of knowledge to be acquired by holding meetings in any district is something which should not be overlooked. The youth will receive practical information which will be of great utility in the future."

Mr. M. F. Koughan then favored the meeting with a very interesting address, replete with information showing the inadequacy of the Land Act to meet the present requirements of the Irish tenants.
Ireland, he said, need not expect anything from England's landlord legislation that will place her tenants on an equal footing with other nations. We should all contend for Home Rule, as it is the only measure which will permanently ameliorate the oppressed of Ireland.

Mr. D. J. Graser, after a very severe censure on the Gladstone administration, said, he was gratified to see such unity of nationalities and individuals as existed under the present universal agitation.
Ancient or modern history has not given us an example of such a continuation of moral force as is now concentrated in upholding the policy of Parnell and Davitt, and denouncing the tyrannical method by which England governs Ireland.

The President then addressed the meeting. He opened with a well-rendered recitative, most appropriate to the cause, after which he spoke on "love of country," with telling effect on the audience.
"Never," he said, "was patriotism more manifest in the Irish race, than to-day.
Even the antipodes are fully alive to the importance of unity in the present struggle, and have no hesitation in adding their names to the millions already inscribed. It is unnecessary to go far back in the history of Ireland in order to incite the enthusiasm and encourage the sympathy of the people. The 'pitch-cap' is fresh in the memory of many to-day. England's present treatment of Ireland calls as loud for annihilation as did her more barbarous acts in days gone by."

In concluding a reply to a very hearty vote of thanks tendered him, he quoted the following lines with great pathos:—
"Erin—Oh! Erin, though long in the shade, Thy star shall shine out when the proudest shall fade."

The meeting then quietly adjourned.
PETER O'KEEFE,
Secretary.
