

Richmond And Vicinity

The sincere sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. Hudson Ramsay and other members of the family of Mr. Bernard McDonald, formerly of Southwest, Lot 16, who passed away at his home in Summerside on January 29. The same family was further saddened when Mr. and Mrs. Leo McDonald, Southwest Lot 16, lost their infant son of five weeks. He was laid to rest along with his grandfather in St. Patrick's Church Cemetery, Grand River.

Friends are sorry to hear that Mr. Ray Praught, Grand River, is confined to his home through illness and all wish him a speedy recovery.

Opl. Johnny DesRoches, R. C. A. F., Halifax, spent the week-end with his family in Richmond.

The store-keeper in Richmond did not complain too much during the last big opportunity of taking stock with very few interruptions to local men, who can get raptions. The storms also mean a few days work shovelling snow for the C. N. R., when unemployment is at a high peak.

The Mount Pleasant Community Rink seems to be the centre of all entertainment at this time. Hockey was enjoyed January 30, when the Wellington Battlers took the game from the Richmond Eagles by a score of 9-6. On Tuesday there was a double-header when Lot 16 boys beat the Grand River Cardinals 6-1 in the first game and Wellington Battlers again beat the Richmond Eagles 9-8 in the second. Better make it next time, Eagles!

Mrs. John P. Gaudet, Richmond, left on Tuesday morning for Ottawa, to be with her son, Lex, who is seriously ill in hospital.

Mrs. Lester Yeo has returned to her home in Richmond after spending some time in Massachusetts.

Miss Margaret McArthur, Richmond, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus McArthur, Enmore.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. CATHERINE GOODWIN

In the early morning hours of January 13, the angel of death claimed the soul of Mrs. Catherine Goodwin one of Kensington's oldest residents.

Mrs. Goodwin who was in her 82nd year, was in good health until the night before her death when she was stricken with an acute heart attack. All that medical skill and loving care could do was of no avail and fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church she passed peacefully away. Mrs. Goodwin was born on the farm where her entire life was spent. Of a gentle lovable disposition she was beloved by all who knew her.

Called upon to bear the heavy cross of losing three of her children, in three years viz. Patrick, Agnes and Nellie, who were exceptional students on the threshold of promising careers, her Christian fortitude was most edifying. A few years later her husband passed to his eternal reward. Although advanced in years Mrs. Goodwin was quite active, attending to her own household duties and frequently helping to care for her declining years. Her death, coming with such short warning, was a great shock to her family and friends.

Her funeral was held January 15 to the Church of the Holy Family, Kensington, for Requiem High Mass, sung by her pastor Rev. Louis Callaghan, who also performed the services at the grave interment was in Indian River cemetery.

Pall bearers were Messrs. Orville Clark, Heath Casley, Jack Bernard, Roy McArthur, Austin Pendergast and Tom Turner.

The large number of Mass cards and messages of sympathy received testified to the high esteem in which the deceased lady was held.

She leaves to mourn the loss of a loving mother, two sons, Robert at home and Harold of Summerside and six grandchildren to whom sincere sympathy is extended. R. I. P. —K.

Mrs. J. E. Arsenault was a train passenger to Summerside on Feb. 9. —A.G.

Amverton And Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Saunders, Amverton, have as their welcome guests Mrs. Saunders' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crewe. Mr. and Mrs. Crewe left their home in Hermitage, Newfoundland, the eighteenth of October and since that time have been visiting relatives and friends in a number of places. Their first stop was in Halifax where they spent three weeks with one of their daughters. They then proceeded to the United States where they visited a daughter in Boston, another daughter in Newark, N. J.; a son in Lavalite, N. J., and friends in Belleville, N. J. While with relatives in New York they enjoyed visits to many well known points of interest, including the Museum of Natural History, the Empire State building, Radio City, Rockefeller Foundation, United Nations buildings, etc. In Annapolis, Maryland, while visiting a relative, who is a student at the Naval Academy there, they had the honor of dining with Commander Mencke, who is in charge of the famous Annapolis Naval Base, and Mrs. Mencke. En route to Amverton Mr. and Mrs. Crewe again visited briefly with their daughters in Boston and Halifax. Although Prince Edward Island is not at the height of its attractiveness in these winter months, Mr. and Mrs. Crewe are enjoying their first visit to this Province and are most favorably impressed by it. It is their intention to remain in Amverton for several weeks.

Miss Frances Christopher, Charlottetown, spent the past week-end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Christopher, Tignish.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Ellsworth, Christopher's Cross, were business visitors to Summerside recently.
