VISITORS to the Exhibition wanting a good watch should call at G. H. Taylor's, Queen Square.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—Remember the Jubilee celebration in McLeod's Hall tomorrow evening. Chair taken at 8 o'clock.

EVERY visitor to the exhibition before leaving for home should call at Beer & Goff's store and get a parcel of their celebrated tea.

Some of the boys (and men) have stolen some of the fruit on exhibition. The Directors threaten to prosecute some of the mean thieves.

JACQUES CARTIER.—The boiler and engine of the steamer Jacques Cartier was tested last evening. She went to Belfast this morning and returned.

BEER & GOFF's teas take the lead every time they are put in competition with any others, being always first-class in quality and strength and right in price.

WEEKS & Co. are still ahead in making the best offer. They give a free ticket to the exhibition with every $2.50 worth of goods bought at their store, next to Beer & Goff's.

FARM FOR SALE.—The sale of the farm of Mr. James N. McLean, of Belfast, was postponed till tomorrow at 12 o'clock, owing to the non-arrival of the boat from Halifax's Wharf.

A BEAUTIFUL line of Bibles and Prayer Books just opened at the Diamond Bookstore. Also, a full stock of Windsor and Newton's artists' materials of all kinds. The very cheapest in the city.

IMPORTANT.—We wish to say, it makes no difference what competitors sell carpets for, we have always sold cheaper and will continue to do so. So always come to the real and genuine carpet men—Paton Bros.

A RARE opportunity for young and old. During exhibition week you can get one dozen beautiful finished cabinet photographs for $4—usual price $5 per dozen—at the new studio. The Brae Mar Photo Studio, right opposite Miller Bros., Queen Street. sep28 4t

JUBILEE.—The fiftieth anniversary of the Order of Sons of Temperance will be celebrated tomorrow evening in McLeod's Hall. All Sons of Temperance are requested to be present. The public are invited.

PILANO.—Horsemen should bear in mind that the handsome and well bred stallion Pilano will be sold without reserve—to close a partnership by Mr. Beattie on the Exhibition grounds tomorrow (Thursday) forenoon. Pilano gives promise of being a splendid stock getter. His foals are a well got up, stylish lot.

WE WERE SHOWN to-day a solid silver souvenir spoon, with the city building of Charlottetown beautifully etched on the bowl. These spoons are made in coffee and orange size, and would make a capital souvenir of the city. To be had of G. H. Taylor, north side, or E. W. Taylor, south side of Queen Square.

SALVATION ARMY.—Adjutant Howell, Capt. J. S. McLean and wife, Moncton; Hughes, Miller, McCabe, MacMahon, David Smith (the colored soloist), young Tommy Milligan (colored, the celebrated violinist) and a very remarkable man from Pictou, called Happy Dick, will be present at the very special meetings that are to be held in the Salvation Army Barracks on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Silver offering at the door.

MR. ANDREW GALLANT, Post Master at Fifteen Point, imported three pounds of white banner oats last spring from the Experiments Farm, at Ottawa. This quantity he sowed on a piece of ground 35x12 yards, from which he harvested three stocks and ten sheaves, yielding four bushels and thirty-two pounds of good clean seed oats. Who can beat this?—Journal.

THE tobacco of Martinico was once the favorite with the smoking world, and when old Father Hennipen discovered the Mississippi about 1690 the Indians were much surprised to see a European with such an excellent sample of their native plant. But the smokers of the Myrtle Navy would give but a poor account of the once celebrated Martinics. Their favorite brand is as much superior to it as it was to the raw and uncurled leaf which the Indians of that day smoked.

MAX O'NEILL.—Max O'Neill's lecture, which will be delivered in the Market Hall this evening, is thus spoken of by the Montreal Gazette: The lecture had the rare merit of being to the point. It is a very great success. A great success. The lecturer is a gift-giver.—New York Herald.

Most successful. Two hours or more spent in seeing and listening seems very short and most delightful.—Montreal Witness.

The idea is a taking one and well carried out.—N. Y. Tribune.

Crapaud Exhibition and Races.

The exhibition and races held on the Crapaud Driving Park and grounds on Friday, 23rd inst., were decidedly successful. The day was all that could be desired, the order good and the attendance was large and representative, despite the fact that a blunder as to the date was made by a Charlottetown paper and copied by a Summerside one.

The show of horses was fair; of cattle good, and of sheep excellent. Few but fine pigs were exhibited. The poultry classes did not fill. The grain seeds and vegetables were good, the potatoes being especially fine. The fruit, consisting of apples, plums, grapes, etc., was indeed splendid and very tempting. The fancy work was simply elegant—beauty-rugs, patch quilts, crazy patch work and sofa pillows, oil paintings, crayons, maps, etc., decorating the building beautifully.

The races were well filled in each class, and hotly contested, the green race being fought out till twilight, taking seven heats. Particulars will appear after the Provincial Exhibition is over.
