

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

AUGUST 17, 1895.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

According to Lord Salisbury the British government holds that the abandonment of China is a question of moral as well as physical strategy.

Regarding the massacre of missionaries at Ku Chung, China, Lord Salisbury says: "There is every reason to believe that the Chinese government is sincerely desirous of punishing the perpetrators of the outrage and those connected with it. Should any like warlike become discernible it will become our duty to supply its defect."

Lord Rosebery declares that the British Government will be forced in time to acknowledge that the best means of conducting Irish business is through the Irish. "I am convinced," he concluded, "that you will see home rule extended not only to Ireland, but possibly to Scotland, and I do not even limit the evolution there."

The Bermuda Royal Gazette refers in terms of eulogy to Mr. Charles H. Robinson, whose death was announced a few days ago. Mr. Robinson was a prominent and successful merchant, and one of the most affable, courteous and popular residents of Bermuda. His bereaved wife has the sympathy of many warm friends in Charlottetown.

Lord Salisbury is preeminently practical. He does not believe in words when words are not needed. Replying to a criticism of the Queen's speech at the opening of parliament, he said: "The noble lord complains of the brevity of the Queen's speech. Where there is much to be done it is not necessary to spend many words describing what is to be undertaken at this session."

Regarding the Armenian question Lord Salisbury says: "We have accepted the policy which our predecessors initiated, and our efforts will be directed to obtaining an adequate guarantee for the carrying out of reform. We have received the most loyal support from both France and Russia. The performance of the Sultan's rule is involved in the conduct he pursues. If the cries of misery continue, the Sultan must realize that Europe will become weary of appeals and the fictitious strength which the powers have given the empire will fail it. The Sultan will make a calamitous mistake if he refuses to accept the advice of the European powers relative to the elections."

It is pleasing to note that some of the newspapers in other parts of Canada are recommending the Hon. Donald Ferguson for the vacant office of Minister of Agriculture. For example the Halifax Herald remarks:

"The P. E. Island papers, with very few exceptions, are recommending that the Hon. Senator Ferguson should be appointed to the portfolio of Agriculture. We are glad to see that they do not rest the claim on geographical considerations, but on Mr. Ferguson's qualifications for the office. Besides being a man of character, industry, ability, and of political and executive experience, he is a practical and successful farmer who should know well wherein the agricultural department may best serve the agricultural interest."

That is true, yet it is possible that the absurd rule that Ontario and Quebec must of necessity have a certain number of Departmental Ministers will operate to the exclusion of Mr. Ferguson from the office for which he is admittedly most suitable.

A brief reference was made in the cable dispatches a couple of weeks ago to the fact that Mr. Chamberlain, the new Imperial Secretary for the Colonies, was disposed to bestir himself actively toward the consolidation of the empire. The London Canadian Gazette just to hand brings the text of the declaration of the new Imperial Secretary. It is emphatic. A Mr. W. C. Partridge, of Birmingham, wrote to Mr. Chamberlain regarding his views, and the answer by Mr. Chamberlain's secretary, dated Highbury Moor, Green, Birmingham, July 25, is as follows:

"Sir,—I am directed by Mr. Chamberlain to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, and to say that he has taken his present office with two objects—firstly, to see whether something cannot be done to bring the self-governing colonies and ourselves closer together; and secondly, to attempt to develop the resources of the Crown Colonies and especially to increase trade between them and this country. Of course, it is quite too early to say what may be found practicable in these directions, but you may rest assured that all Mr. Chamberlain's efforts will be devoted to these ends.

Perhaps it is the first time that a colonial secretary has taken office in a similar manner with the distinct avowed purpose of devoting his energy and ability to binding the three kingdoms and the self-governing colonies closer together. When one considers the political genius of the man who declares this purpose, there remains little doubt that he will accomplish something of it, if any brain can.

ARMENIAN AFFAIRS.

Anxiety prevails at Constantinople for the American missionaries at Marsovan, a small town 24 miles northeast of Anasian in the village of Sivas. Asia Minor, account of the Armenian campaign against those of their compatriots who are suspected of being spies. An Armenian priest, suspected of spying, was recently murdered at Surtari, as a result of which Armenians in Surtari and other suburbs of Constantinople have been imprisoned.

Thirteen pupils of the American college having been expelled last year because their fathers were suspected of being mixed in the Armenian movement, suspicion has fallen on the college, and among the list of persons condemned by the Armenian committee are five professors of the college, two being Americans.

The governor is doing his utmost to investigate the matter and to prevent an outbreak of disorders. Details have been received of the attack upon the American missionaries' school at Tarsus. About 30 Mussulmans attacked and beat a servant of the Rev. Mr. Christie, director of the college at Tarsus, and some of his pupils at Narouan, a summer residence near Tarsus, on the night of Thursday, August 1, and also threatened to kill Mr. Christie.

Hon. A. W. Terrill, U. S. minister to Turkey, made a protest to the Porte, and there was no delay in assuring him that there will be a prompt inquiry into the matter, and prompt reparation.

Twelve hundred people left Toronto a few days ago on an excursion to see that big Manitoba harvest. It's a beauty and worth the journey.

Nearly every one needs a good tonic at this season. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the one true tonic and blood purifier.

SPAIN AND THE UNITED STATES.

The Mayor of Havana, Cuba, Senor Alvarez, who is now in New York, says that the insurrection in Cuba is not a serious matter, but that there is danger of trouble between Spain and the United States growing out of the action of the government in pressing Spain to pay the Moraes claim at this time, and the aid that Americans are extending to Cuban agitators. Senor Alvarez said he had heard nothing in regard to the report that Martinez Campos had asked that a general be sent from Madrid to help him, and that the man sent out would be placed in charge of all administrative affairs, enabling General Campos to devote himself to operations in the field. Senor Alvarez continued: "The people of the United States should remember that the war in Cuba is not a war between two nations. It is a difficulty which one nation is having in its own family, and America should keep her hands off. She has nothing to do with any territory outside of her own limits. If Canadians would conspire against any portion of the United States it would be quickly repressed, but Americans not only permit foreigners but allow their own citizens to conspire against Spanish territory, and Spain is a friendly nation."

"But has not the United States Government by proclamation and by orders to men-of-war and revenue cutters, shown its friendship to Spain?" "Yes, but what does a man-of-war anchored at Key West do? Nothing at all. Expeditions are fitted out just the same and sent under the protection of the American flag. Perhaps your Government acts because it knows that Spain is keeping an account of all the expeditions that are sent out and when the trouble in Cuba is over will ask the United States to pay damages. Your newspapers published detailed accounts of how these expeditions are fitted out and how they are landed."

"The American flag is being used to cover every crime. Spanish officers are getting tired of letting expeditions escape because they sail under the American flag. The day may come when an officer will no longer permit a vessel to go through respect for the flag. Something will happen—not to the flag—but to the boat that is used, and there may be trouble between Spain and the United States."

"Another thing that we do not like," said he, "is insisting that the Moraes claim be paid just when Spain needs money for war-purposes. The claim is unjust and should never be paid. All the arbitrators have decided against it. It does not come with good grace for the United States to pay a million and a half now, and the manner in which the claim has been pressed makes Spaniards sore. The United States does not pay the award made by the Behring Sea Commission, and is getting the reputation of being a bad debtor among nations; and yet claim is made that Spain must pay the unjust Moraes claim, and we must do it at once. All these things make our blood boil. We expect fair treatment from a friendly nation. Instead of that, we have an insurrection in Cuba, which was not inspired by Americans, and which would last a month if it did not have the aid and encouragement of the people in this country."

THE CUBAN INSURRECTION.

According to official reports, information which has been received by the government authorities at Havana and elsewhere, shows that serious dissensions exist among the insurgent leaders. This is said to be due to the fact that some of them are not willing to destroy, by burning or other means, the property of planters and others. Another report from official sources, is to the effect that some of the other insurgent leaders are desirous of deposing Gomez from the position of general-in-chief of the insurgents, and in his place electing another. Information given out from official sources is that the insurgents attacked the column of Major Babia, on the plantation of Natalya, in the district of Souga la Grande. The insurgents were routed and dispersed, leaving three dead. The troops lost one dead.

A report given out at Havana is to the effect that the insurgents attacked a detachment of troops on the plantation of Corazon Jesus. The garrison within was surrounded, but made a valiant defense, and the insurgents were obliged to retire. It is stated that they lost approximately three dead and two wounded.

A MODEST ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.

Private Hayhurst's response to the splendid welcome home given him by the citizens of Toronto was a verification of the phrase with which the address opened that a soldier is a man of deeds, not words. It was a modest acknowledgement of the honor that had been done him, which was in the highest degree creditable to one who has brought so much distinction to his regiment by the hand of his adoption. "Mr. President, Ladies and gentlemen," he said, "I cannot find language to express my thanks for the manner in which you have expressed your appreciation of my service, but I hope you will take the will for the deed. I am very proud to have been a representative of the Canadian militia at Bisley, and very proud to be the winner of the Queen's prize. I only trust and hope that in future years other representatives of the Dominion at Bisley will be successful in winning laurels to bring back with them. I thank you again very heartily."

This unusual little speech was followed by a cheering and by the rattling strains of the good old song, "We won't go home till morning."

AN INQUIRY.

Sir,—Is it true that one of the help aboard the "Elin" has been discharged on the ground of economy, or is it owing to the impression of the Government Engineer that the "Elin" is run by Roman Catholics? It appears to many that there is some truth in the latter, as four Roman Catholics have recently been discharged from the Government service and three of them belong to the "Elin" which has recently been discharged. If Peters nineteenth century ship of dishonesty sailed by his crew of flunkies are guilty of such bigamy their conduct is too low for even contempt to reach them.

"USE IT AND PROVE IT."

Mr. Davies, Mr. Fielding, Mr. Fraser and other French speaking orators from Quebec are expected to take part in the Westmorland contest. Perhaps some one of the important speakers can tell the people what Mr. Laurier's policy is on the Manitoba question.

CENTRAL CREAMERY MEETING.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of farmers and others interested in central creamery and cold storage was held this afternoon in Macsachern's building. Lieutenant Howland presided, and in stating the object of the meeting spoke strongly in favor of a central creamery and cold storage.

Mr. Dillon, on being called upon, stated that a building suitable for a central creamery and cold storage combined, could be built for about $10,000, size about 30x140 feet. He strongly advocated the forming of a company and said a site might be secured in the locality of the Hotel Davies. He also stated that the freight on the shipment of cheese by the Company to Montreal was $500, the insurance $100, and cold storage in Montreal 3 cents per box per month. This might all be kept here.

Roderick Munn thought it would be a good idea, but we were not prepared to do much to-day till the different factories were consulted.

Mr. Dillon, in answer to Mr. Munn, said it was proposed to pay for separating the cream and butter for $10,000, to creamery and manufacture the butter for 3 cents per pound provided 10,000 pounds of milk could be secured.

Moved by Henry McLeod, Marshallfield, seconded by Alexander McDonald, Cornwall. That it was desirable to organize a company to build a central creamery and cold storage warehouse.

A discussion participated in by T. A. McLean and others then took place, after which the motion was put and carried unanimously.

After considerable discussion it was moved by J. Anderson, Kensington, seconded by T. A. McLean, Charlottetown: That a committee of five be appointed by this meeting to procure a central creamery and cold storage at Charlottetown. Carried.

The following were appointed members of said committee: T. J. Dillon, Thomas A. McLean, Richard Jenkins, Alfred Dewar, Robert B. Stewart.

Moved by Henry McLeod seconded by William Jenkins: that this meeting recommend that the shares in the proposed company be $10 each. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Dillon and carried: that when we adjourn we do so next the 13th day of September to hear the report of the committee.

Mr. Dillon moved, seconded by Roderick Munn, that the thanks of this meeting be tendered to His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Howland for the great interest manifested by him in the meeting by attending and presiding. Carried unanimously.

Lieutenant-Governor Howland, in acknowledging his vote, took occasion to speak of the fruit growing industry of this province.

The meeting closed with three cheers and a tiger for Lieutenant-Governor Howland. WALTER SIMPSON, Secretary. August 16, 1895.

NEWS NOTES.

The defunct Commercial Bank of Manitoba has paid another dividend of 13 per cent, making a total of 50 per cent on original claims.

It is rumored that a British legal expert will attend the trial of the Newfoundland Bank directors on behalf of the English shareholders.

The movement of gold from the United States to Europe is again beginning to disturb the Washington authorities. Since the 1st of the month $7,000,000 has been drawn from the Treasury for transmission abroad, and to keep the reserve up to the hundred million mark the bond syndicate has, within twenty-four hours, had to pay into the Treasury in exchange for currency notes a sum of $3,000,000. This is a business, however, that can only be kept up for a limited time, and unless commercial conditions change so as to make shipping gold to Europe an unprofitable transaction there will arise the necessity of floating new bonds.

OBITUARY.

Entered into rest on the 19th ult., Mr. Neil Currie, of Albion Bay, in the 73rd year of his age. Possessing the advantages of a liberal education and of a strangely retentive memory, he was a deep reader and could enter into the minutiae of the important events of history from Herodotus to Froide. He was resolute and hated all shams and hypocrisy with the hatred of a Carlyle. Having a still tongue and a faithful breast, avoiding on all occasions needless offence, he was respected by all classes of people. He tried to do his duty, and in his profession was a master workman, second to none. Wholly resting on the mercy of God in Christ Jesus, the exit to that land from whose home no traveler returns was perfect peace. And like a wayfaring man weary with his journey, he laid down to rest and refresh himself, and fell into a deep slumber.—Com. (N. Y. Tribune and Winnipeg Free Press please copy.)

SPICIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Ireland's Grievances. LONDON, Aug. 17.

The House of Commons yesterday debated the address in reply to the Queen's speech. An amendment moved last night by Mr. Dillon to the amendment proposed by Mr. Redmond was rejected by 157 to 123. Mr. Redmond's amendment called upon the Government to declare its policy in regard to Home Rule for Ireland, and in regard to reform in land law, compulsory purchase of land, evicted tenants and the industrial condition of Ireland. Mr. Dillon's amendment demanded immediate legislation in respect to judicial rents.
