Golden Wedding

MR. AND MRS. SAMUEL ARSENAULT

An event of unusual interest took place in Kensington on Feb. 4th when Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Arsenault celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Fifty years ago Samuel Arsenault and Mary Gallant were married in Bloomfield Church with a Nuptial Mass to bless their marriage. The celebration of their golden wedding day was appropriately blessed by a Mass offered in their honor by their pastor, Rev. Louis Callaghan, in Holy Family Church, Kensington.

During the day, Mr. and Mrs. Arsenault received many callers as well as cards and messages of congratulation. In the evening a large number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Alfred Arsenault to honor this worthy couple.

Mr. J. L. Saunders was master of ceremonies and spoke briefly in English first, followed by remarks in French, congratulating the Jubilarians. He then called on Mrs. Arsenault who made a presentation of a purse on behalf of the family.

This was followed by an address read by Mrs. Percy McCarville on behalf of the Catholic Women's League, accompanied by a gift of china presented by Mrs. Leo Brennan.

On behalf of the community an address was read by Mrs. Lillian Condon while Mrs. Leo McCarville and Mrs. Thomas Dunphy made the presentation of a well filled purse and a pair of blankets.

Mr. and Mrs. Arsenault both spoke briefly, expressing their gratitude, the former finishing his speech quite eloquently in French. Congratulatory speeches were made by Rev. Louis Callaghan, Rev. R. F. McDonald, Mr. Athol Cotton, Mr. P. N. LeBlanc (in French), Miss Ellie Gillis, Mrs. J. Pendergast, Mrs. Mabel Chisholm and Mrs. J. L. Saunders. On behalf of the grandchildren, Mr. Victor Brown of Richmond, offered congratulations very appropriately.

All present joined in the time-honored chorus, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows", after which a bountiful supper was served by their three daughters, Mrs. Leonard McNeill of Richmond and Mrs. Ben Thibeau and Mrs. Alfred Arsenault of Kensington, assisted by several young ladies. A fourth daughter, Mrs. Edmund Gallant who lives in Hamilton, Ont., was regrettably unable to be present.

The sons are Frank and Raymond at home, and Joseph, with the U. N. forces in Europe, who was also absent.

The decorations in the living-room were in gold and white, and in the dining room a beautiful wedding cake adorned the table. The guests departed with many sincere wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Arsenault for health, happiness and prosperity.

PARIS — (Reuters)—The special political committee of the United Nations called on Russian satellite countries to return an estimated 10,000 Greek children kidnapped by the Communists during the Greek civil war. By a vote of 44 to 0, with five countries abstaining, the committee passed a resolution which "viewed with alarm" the fact that Soviet-bloc nations have not taken steps to return the children.

Post-Nuptial Shower

A post-nuptial miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. George Read, Summerside East, on Wednesday evening, Jan. 30, when friends and neighbors assembled to tender her son Morton and his bride congratulations and best wishes. After the bridal couple were escorted to a seat of honor under a decorated arch by Mrs. Francis MacQuarrie and Mr. Balfour Read, Mr. Bradford Cairns called the gathering to order to explain the purpose of their meeting.

A heavily laden basket of gifts was carried in by the Misses Norma and Eileen Crozier. The attractively wrapped packages were opened by Mrs. Bradford Cairns and Mrs. Eileen Simmons while the accompanying verses of good wishes were read by Mrs. Joseph Martin and Mrs. Lyman Hall and arranged on the table by Mrs. Bennett Crozier.

Morton, on behalf of his wife and himself, thanked all for the lovely gifts, after which all joined in singing "For They're Jolly Good Fellows".

The remainder of the evening was spent in cards, when eight tables of Progressive Auction were in play, and prizes were awarded to Mrs. F. MacQuarrie, Mrs. W. Matheson, Mr. W. Cairns and Mr. M. Read. Delicious refreshments were served by the ladies.
