Successful Field Day At Central Bedouque

The Dairy Field Day at Dunk River Creamery, Central Bedouque, yesterday was a huge success.

At 1 o'clock demonstrations began at the Creamery, showing exactly how the work is carried out, by Messrs. Melville Johnson, Manager, and Orville Johnson, assistant. The graded, cans cleaned and scalded, and ticketed with number of pounds, grade, etc., being put in each can returned the hauler.

The working and printing of butter, making of moisture test, was illustrated.

Samples of milk and cream were tested for butter fat, etc.

At 3:30 the crowd went in a body to the field adjoining the Bedouque Rink, where a cattle judging demonstration was conducted by Mr. W. R. Shaw, Livestock Superintendent. Milch cows of different breeds from different patrons' farms were used in this work. Mr. Shaw very ably and plainly gave reasons for the placings and the point to look for in a good dairy cow. Much interest was evidenced and the talk closely followed.

At 4 o'clock Mr. Alder Wright, President of Dunk River Dairy Co., welcomed the visitors and patrons. Mr. W. R. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, replied and also conveyed the regrets of Hon. W. H. Dennis, Minister of Agriculture, at not being able to be present.

Mr. Warren L. Brenton, Dairy Superintendent, then gave an address on "The Creameryman's Problems and the patron's part in conducting a successful dairy business." While talking on the causes of variations in cream tests, Mr. Brenton used large illustrated charts, explaining fully the causes and how to overcome same. In closing he commented highly the creamery management, Messrs. Johnson Brothers, and the secretary and salesman, Mr. William Callbeck, to whom he ascribed the large share of the good business ethics of Bedouque Creamery.

Dr. J. A. Clark Superintendent of the dairies in Experimental Station then gave an address on "Pasture and Pasture Improvement." This talk was of a high educational order and was listened to with rapt attention.

Mr. William Callbeck then gave the history of the Dunk River Dairy Co. since its inception until the present day.

Mr. Stewart C. Wright, Provincial Field Promoter, was the next speaker, and dealt fully with cow testing and herd improvement policies of the Department of Agriculture.

The ladies served a sumptuous supper in the rink, the proceeds going to rink purposes.

Showers Fail To Break Drought

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

CHICAGO, July 9—Scattered showers cheered bits of drought's western domain today as the respite breaking seven day heat siege assailed eastern states with the hottest weather of the summer.

Deaths in the United States for the past three days of blistering weather totalled at least 206 and the list was growing steadily as 111 degrees was measured on the official thermometer at Aberdeen, S. D.

Early afternoon temperatures from Michigan east to the seaboard soared toward new high marks for the year. Adrian, Mich. reported 106 degrees. New York City's 102.3 was a new all time top. Washington, D. C., expected 100. Philadelphia perspired in 101. Several eastern cities counted their first heat deaths from a trace at Rapid City, S. D., to 2.42 inches at Effingham, Ill., stirred hopes for late and forage crops.

But the rains weren't enough, said forecaster J. R. Lloyd of the weather bureau station here. He said that while more rains were sighted for North Dakota, parts of Minnesota, Wisconsin, and upper Michigan tonight or tomorrow, they would have no material effect on the general drought.

The dry spell, which already has rolled up losses exceeding $300,000,000 and made government dependents of 204,000 farm families, continued to dominate the domestic grain trade.

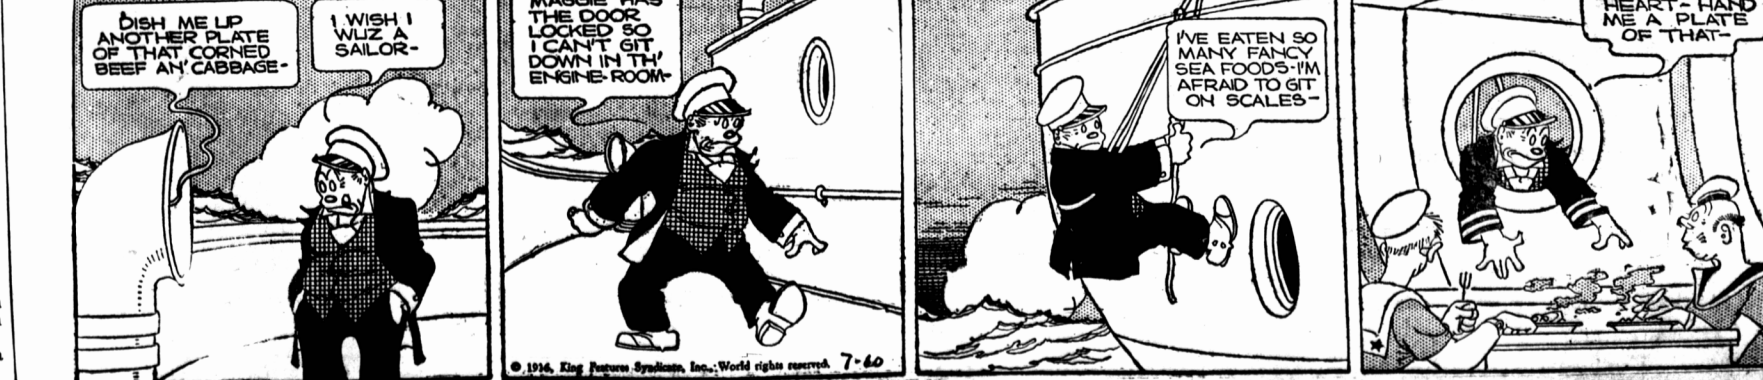

Wheat resumed its advance after yesterday's setbacks, when later advices from Canada indicated that 10,000,000 to 12,000,000 acres of prairie wheat were still in grave danger despite Wednesday's rains. July delivery closed here at $1.06 1-8 to 1-4, with prices generally 3-8 to 1-5-8 higher. About 20 cents a bushel has been added to wheat's value here since drought destruction got underway in the northwest spring wheat belt a month ago.

Late field reports continued to emphasize need for rain within a week if the important corn crop was to be saved.

New York's concern over a possible scarcity of milk and other foodstuffs in the metropolitan area prompted state agriculture commissioner Peter Ten Eyck to call a conference for Saturday to discuss the situation.
