OBITUARY

Inserted by the Family.
JAMES EMMET POWER
He Giveth His Beloved Rest.

This thought expressed itself to many friends and relatives, when it was learned on Tuesday Aug. 17th that Emmet had been called from Time into Eternity.

Emmet was the youngest son of the late James Power and Mary McMahon, and was born in Emerald Junction, October 19, 1897. He received his early education Emerald School, and then studied Telegraphy with his brother Peter Power at that time Station Agent, St. Peters. He joined the services of Canadian National Railway in 1918. For a period of time he did relief work at different stations.

At a later date he was Operator at Emerald and Kensington. In 1934 he was assigned the duties of Station Agent, Miscouche, from where he retired in 1962. Emmet was a good citizen, always ready to lend a helping hand, he had a jovial disposition, and many will remember with pleasure the happy hours he spent in his home. His health had been failing for the past year, in June 1965 he entered the Charlottetown Hospital for treatment. All looked forward to his ultimate recovery but God willed otherwise, so he has gone from our midst, a man among men and we must not think of his going as Death, but rather a glorious transition where grief and sorrow never enter. Through all his illness he showed that Spirit of patient resignation to Gods Holy Will.

Besides his sorrowing widow formerly Maud Connich, Nogboro, three sons and two daughters survive: Arnold, Miscouche, George, James, Mary and Florence at home; one grandson, Larry Power, also two brothers and four sisters: Peter, Charlottetown; George, Emerald; Mrs. Sylvester Monaghan, South Melville; Mrs. Margaret Devine, Charlottetown; Katherine and Florence, Emerald.

His remains were transferred from the Davison Funeral Home August 18th to his late residence Miscouche from where the largely attended funeral was held on Friday morning, Aug. 20th to St. John the Babtist Church, Miscouche where Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by his pastor, Rev. J. D. Kelly as celebrant, Rev. Austin Bradley, Deacon, Rev. Leonard MacDonald, Sub-Deacon.

Active pallbearers were Donnie Gillis, Elgin Veno, Gerald Monaghan, Daniel Connick, Wm. Gillis and J. A. Greenan.

Burial Summerfield cemetery, service conducted by Rev. Basil Croken after which all that was mortal of a good husband and a kind and loving father was tenderly laid to rest.

CARD OF THANKS

The wife and family of the late Emmet Power wish to express their sincere thanks, to the Sisters and Nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital, Clergy, Dr. J. A. MacMillan and J. L. Davison, Undertaker, to all their kind friends and neighbors who helped in any way during their sad bereavement, also those who sent flowers, Mass cards, Spiritual Bouquets, enrollments and messages of sympathy.

OBITUARY

HAROLD W. DUNN

The death occurred at the Charlottetown Hospital on July 2, 1965 of Harold Dunn, Summerville. Although in failing health for some months, his death came unexpectedly to his family.

A son of the late Thomas Dunn and Christine MacLean, he was born at Summerville on Nov. 3, 1895. He spent his entire life, engaged in farming, in that community where he was a valued friend and neighbor.

He is supervived by his widow the former Hilda Corcoran, and the following sons and daughters: Vernon, Hamilton, Ont.; Raymond, Joseph, and Gerald, Summerville; Thomas, London, Ont.; Frances (Mrs. Gerald Walsh, Elliotvale); Dorothy, (Mrs. Louis Power, Ch'town); Mary, (Mrs. Joseph Byrne, Ch'town) and Florence (Mrs. Joseph Curran, Cardigan Head). He was predeceased by a brother Eugene and a sister Stella (Mrs. Augustus O'Holloran).

During his illness he was spiritually comforted by his pastor Rev. Urban Gillis and Rev. Clifford Murphy. Last rites of the Church were administered by Rev. Fr. Reid.

The largely attended funeral was held from the Jenkins Funeral Home to St. Joachiam's Church, Vernon River, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Fr. Gillis. The service at the grave was conducted by Fr. Murphy. Pallbearers were the five sons of the deceased and a grandson, George Power.

CARD OF THANKS

The wife and family of the late Harold Dunn wish to thank Dr. Inman and Nurses of Montague Hospital; Dr. Ian MacMillan, Sisters and Nursing Staff of the Charlottetown Hospital; management of the Jenkins Funeral Home; Rev. Fr. Gillis, Rev. Fr. Murphy; Rev. Fr.
