Performance Today Of Ch'town Entry In Drama Festival

The cast of "Papa Is All", Charlottetown's entry in the Dominion Drama Finals, steps onto the stage of the famous Grand Theatre in London, Ontario, this morning at nine o'clock for the first time, prepatory to their performance this afternoon.

After a week of very heavy activities the entire cast is eager to get into their last rehearsal on the mammoth stage, and fully realize the heavy competition which they are meeting. Plays which have been presented each evening this past week and on Wednesday afternoon have been of a very high standing, and have met with much praise from adjudicator Jose Ruben of the United States.

The local group have been entertained after the performances each evening in the Green Room of the Grand Theatre, and have been guests at dinners and informal gatherings in the afternoons. These social events have been in addition to rehearsals in the mornings with dashes to discussions on theatre activities whenever time permitted.

Examined For C.L.U. Degree

To the average layman "life insurance" is considered simply on the basis—can I afford it? and, the persuasive ability of the life underwriter to complete the sale, and in a measure he is correct. But today life insurance represents considerably more than that, while it is highly competative, yet the demand for competent service in years past has been met with ready response on the part of several companies; and the underwriter as an individual is constantly on the alert for ways and means of bettering his ability in order to give a conscientious, clear cut solution to each individual case or problem presented to him.

It is no longer a case of one particular plan to supply the insurance needs of a client, but a combination of plans selected and recommended as a result of the information disclosing the needs of each client, arrived at after careful discussion with the client and his wife in the light of present day cost of living, education, taxation, and their future needs, with old age security one of the guiding factors.

For the past twenty-five years the Life Underwriters Association of Canada, in conjunction with the Extension Department of the University of Toronto, have gradually developed a course of studies which now covers a period of three years, dealing with Life Insurance Law; Fundamentals and Practice; Estate Administration; Business Finance; and Life Underwriting; leading to the degree of Chartered Life Underwriter.

At present 14 underwriters hold this much coveted degree in this Province and during the past week Messrs. Gerald E. F. Stokoe, R. R. E Younker, of Charlottetown, and W. Boyd Beairsto, of Kensington, have been testing their skill and knowledge in the various subjects. Mr. Stokoe is in his final year and Messrs. Younker and Beairsto their second year. The examinations started on Tuesday and concluded yesterday, with Mr. W. G. Hogg, C.L.U.—first to win this degree in Prince Edward Island—as examiner

All plays were presented by the Women's Institute in the various districts. The first two plays were presented at Rustico in the Kings and Queens County play-offs Wednesday night. The last two were shown at Central Bedeque in the Prince County final Thursday night.

Last night at York in the City play-offs, plays presented by St. Peter's A. Y. P. A. and the Little Theatre won the awards. St. Paul's A. Y. P. A. also contended in the City drama competition.

The four rural and the two City winners will compete in the Provincial finals which will be held in Parkdale May 29 to 31 inclusive.

In adjudicating the play "For All Eternity", Captain Briggs, stated that this play is a fantasy and is extremely difficult to put across. He said that the setting was good, as it was quite realistic, and the whole play moved along well.

Speaking about the St. Peter's A.Y.P.A. play, "The Red Key," Captain Briggs stated that the play went very well. He said that the acting was done well and that the setting was very good.

The setting of the play "The Spider Ring", was good and the acting well done, he stated. Captain Briggs congratulated all players for their fine performances.

Best actress of the evening was Mary Moran who played Lorna Bellamy in "The Spider Ring". Peter Shama, acting as Nicholas in "The Red Key", and J.T. Place, playing Frank Bellamy in "The Spider Ring," were adjudged the best actors of the evening.

Honorable mention was given to Helen Acorn and Barbara Pickard, who played in "The Red Key" and Hilda Jenkins who acted in "The Spider Ring".

Following is the cast of each play: "For All Eternity," by St. Paul's A. Y. P. A., Eleanor Clapp, Florine Evans, Donald Nause and Robert Beggs. The play was directed by Charles Bentley.

Ready-Mix Concrete Plant Is Re-opened

Schurman's Ready Mix concrete plant in Charlottetown opened for the building season this week. It prepares and delivers ready mixed concrete on order to any place within a five mile radius of the city. The capacity of its trucks are two cubic yards.

This plant was built and opened for business last summer. It is the first plant of its kind, and still the only one, to be operated in the province. Its rain purpose is to provide ready mixed concrete at the site of any construction job, large or small.

Last year the demand exceeded expectations and unfortunately could not be met because of the shortage of cement. This year the situation is expected to be much better. While it is impossible to foretell the supply of cement for the coming season, every effort is being made to insure a steady supply. However the defence program may at any time curtail the amount available. Nevertheless, if orders are received well in advance, it is felt that it will be possible to obtain allocation of cement for residential, farm and essential uses.

Many of the handling problems of sand, gravel and cement experienced last year have been overcome. A new service is expected to be inaugurated this year as well. Preparations are now being completed to offer gravel screened to 1¼ to ⅝ inch, ⅝ to 1 inch, and 1 to 1½ inch in addition to the ready mixed concrete. — S

FREDERICTON, May 18 —(CP) —A single-engined Cornell aircraft crashed on take-off near here today when its pilot attempted to become airborne from a farmer's field, once an airport. Store Sales Stunt Provides Fun For-all

There was fun and excitement for both the young and old at the Co-op Store last night.

In connection with their mammoth Food Carnival sale, the store offered free lemonade and packages of peanuts to all shoppers during the evening. There was, too, a doll that laughs, sings, recites and says her prayers and which proved a big attraction. Free ballons to the kiddies, accompanied by their parents, were distributed.

The staff of the store had a busy time as they catered to the throng of shoppers and eager youngsters. It was a novelty feature and tonight marks the climax when the store plans to release hundreds of balloons, many of them containing dollar bills.

Mr. C. M. MacLean, store manager, was highly pleased with the result of the sales promotion stunt.

Army Training Well Featured In Parade Yesterday

There was a wartime appearance to city streets yesterday as hundreds of citizens lined the sidewalks to watch the first big recruiting parade which featured all the vehicles used in local Army training.

The parade demonstration travelled through a winding route for nearly an hour to give as many people as possible a chance to see the equipment. The big tanks were missing but it was reasonably felt they might cause too much damage to asphalt streets

Heading the parade was the famous band of the P.E.I. Regiment (17th Recce) led by Capt. R. J. Mahar. Immediately following were two large Signals Regiment transmitting vehicles with drivers Sgt. Emmett Martin and Cpl. Tony Van Der Pluigm and Sgt. Don Bruce at the controls. The Ack Ack gun was drawn by a heavy vehicle driven by W.O.2 H. J. Gallant while the "Pom Pom" of the same regiment was driven by Sgt. D. Moreside with Sgt. Joe Peters at the gun controls.

In addition to those mentioned there were several of the sixty hundredweights and 15 hundredweights, scout cars, jeeps, wheeled track vehicles and the ambulance of the R.C.A.M.C. driven by Sgt. Percy Sentner.

Hunter River Man 86 Today

Major W.G. Darke will observe his 86th birthday today at his home in Hunter River. Although not in the best of health at present, Major Darke still derives a great deal of enjoyment from meeting with his friends and neighbors and it is a common sight to see him on his verandah conversing with one or another of his friends.

Major Darke has had a remarkably distinguished life. As a progressive farmer he was a breeder and exhibitor of championship Guernseys. Older residents will recall his fine showing of Guernseys at the Canadian National Exhibition in 1927. In the Provincial Exhibitions Major Darke was consistently high among the winners.

Joining the Orange Order at an early age, he has been a valuable member of the organization, holding several offices of importance. At present, after sixty-five years as an active member, he is an honorary member.

Despite his activity in these fields he has had time to serve his country in a military aspect. Joining the 82nd Regiment, he was present at the first camp of that unit at Milton, P.E.I., in 1883. After serving for 30 years he was retired with the rank of major and was awarded the Long Service Medal.

Major Darke's wife died some years ago. Mrs. John Crabbe of North Milton and Mrs. Samuel Newson of Kingston are sisters.

During the last number of years he has lived in retirement in Hunter River, whose residents join with others throughout the Province in extending congratulations and well wishes on this occasion.

GLOBAL ACTION

The Russians did not say so in words but it was obvious from their attacks on the resolution and the United States that they will ignore it. They refused to participate in the vote.

Eight countries abstained. They were Afghanistan, Burma, Egypt India, Indonesia, Pakistan, Sweden, Syria.

Embargo action developed also in Washington. Conferees of the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives voted to strengthen legislation banning American Economic aid to nations which ship war goods to China, Russia or other members of the Moscow bloc.

Under the new, tougher provisions, other countries would have to certify that they have not sent arms or other war materials to the Communist areas before they could receive further aid.

Before the vote in the U. N. General Assembly, Sir Benegal Rau of India appealed briefly for the U N. to declare that its victory would be achieved by clearing South Korea and halting at the 38th parallel. He said after the meeting that he was just throwing out a suggestion.

Nau said one of the reasons for his suggestion was a report from Washington that Snator Edward C. Johnson (Dem. Colo.) had proposed Thursday that the U. N. seek to halt the Korea conflict June 25, the first anniversary of the war.

The reaction of other delegates to that was that if the war could be halted by U. N. action, what was wrong with halting it May 18--today.
