VARIETIES.

An Arkansas "Noatis." — In a recent tour through one of the most sparely settled regions of Arkansas, (the land made classic by the effusions of that versatile genius, "Peter Whetstone,") I arrived at the Ferry on Cache River. A little log house grocery stood on the near bank, about fifteen steps from where the ferry flat lay, tied to a snag in the edge of the water. Several bear skins, deer skins, and coon skins, were nailed up to dry against the walls of the grocery, but the door was closed, and no bar-keeper, ferryman, or other person was in sight. I halloed at the top of my voice some half a dozen times, but no one answered. Seeing an advertisement on the door, I read as follows:

NOATIS

ef enny boddy cums hear arter liker, or to get Akross the River They kin gest blo This hear Horne and ef i dont cum when my wife Betsey up at the Hous heres the Horne a bloin shele cum down and sell the licker or set em Akross the ruver ime guine a Fishin no creddet when ime awa from Hoame john wilson NB. them that cant rede will hev too go too the house arter Betsey taint put half a mile thar
j w

In obedience to the "noatis," I took blowing the horn, which stuckin a crack of the wall close by the door, and gave it a " toot," or two, which reverberated far around through the cane and swamp, and in a few moment was answered by a voice scarcely less loud and reverberating then that of the horn–it seemed to be about half a mile distant up the river; and in about fifteen minutes a stalwart femala made her appearauce, and asked if I wanted "licker."

"No madam, I want to croos the river, if you please."

"Dont you want some licker fust?"

"No madam, don't drink—never touch liquor."

"Never tetch licker! why, ye must be a preacher, then, aint ye?"

"No, madam, I'm only a Son of Temperance; I wish to get across the river, if you please; do you row the boat?"

"O, yes I can take you over in less than no time. Fetch up yonr hoss!"

I obeyed, asking, as I led the horse into the boat—" Did your husband write that advertisement on the door there?"

"No, sir-ree! Schoolmaster Jones writ that. John haint got no larnin!"

And the good woman rowed the boat stately across the ugly stream; aud handing her the ferriage-fee, I bade her good morning, beleave then, as I still do, that she was one of the happiest women and best wife I ever saw—perfectily contented with her lot, because shs knew no better.

Touching Incident.—The Buffalo Republic says:—A little boy, poorly clad, standing in front of the Western Hotel, was accosted by a rude young man, with the question, "Does your mother know you're out?" The little fellow looked at the interrogator a moment while his bosom heaved, and tears gathered in his eyes, as he replied, "Sir, my dear mother is dead.'"

The young lady who refused to walk over a potato-patch because the potatoes had eyes, and the young lady who left the table because the salad was not dressed, entered into copartnership about a month ago, and all went smooth as a marriage-bell' until Tuesday night last, when a quarrel disturbed the "even tenor of their way," in reference to a pair of slippers, one declining to sleep in the same room with them, as they were fellows.

Why is a married man like a eandle? Because he sometimes goes out at night when he aught not.

A Greek maid, being asked what fortune she would bring her husband, replied: "I will bring him what gold cannot purchase—a heart unspotted, and virtue without a stain—all that descended to me from my parents."

It was not Snooks' wife who "loved to make bread 'cause it cleaned her hands so beautifully," nor who wanted a dark colored tea-set, that "would'nt show dirt." It was a base slander on Mrs. Snooks.

The use of tar and feathers in the punishment of crime, is one of great antiquity. Richard I., in his voyage to the holy land, ordained thus: "If any one is convicted of theft, let his head be shaved, like a Champion's; let melted pitch be poured upon it, and feathers shaken over it, that he may be known; and let him be set ashore at the first land to which the ship approaches."

Twelvetrees Brothers' Soap Powder

(an entirely new invention.)

IS the cheapest, safest, best, and most effectual article for all washing purposes, a packet of which is equal to ten Pennyworth of Soap!

The saving of Time and Labour is so astonishingly great, that a WEEK'S WASH can be accomplished BEFORE BREAKFAST—no rubbing being required.

This wonderful Article is MORE SERVICEABLE THAN SOAP, as it produces a better and much quicker lather, and is adapted for purposes for which Soap cannot be safely or effectually used.

It will not injure the hands, or the most delicate material; but whilst it is incomparable for permanently whitening Linens, &c., after they have become discoloured by age, or injured by bad Washing, it is also unsurpassable for improv ing the colors of FLANNELS, BLANKETS, WOOLLENS, Colored PRINTS, MUSLIN and LACE.

A single morning space!"

While others, in more mature life,—by some imprudence and a slight cold neglected,—in the hectic flush, the painful cough,

"The prints of their parting steps appear."

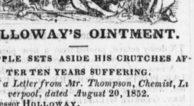
Never Failing Remedy!



HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About 10 years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him, that he could not move without crutches for nearly 10 years; recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor. (Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsbro', dated March 1st, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter, from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31, Bailey Street, in this town, to inform you, that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill health, accompanied by a dis ordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this, she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pills and Ointment, and she states that in a wonderful short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain dear Sir, yours faithfully,
(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS—AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker and Co., Chemists, Bath.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise.

We remain, Dear Sir,
Your's faithfully,
(Signed) WALKER & Co.

CHERRY PECTORAL,

For the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

Among the numerous discoveries Science has made in this generation to facilitate the business of life—increase its enjoyment, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than this contribution of Chemistry to the Healing Art. A vast trial of its virtues throughout this broad country, has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicine or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely control and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease which have hitherto swept from our midst thousands and thousands every year. Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe a Remedy has at length been found which can be relied on, to cure the most dangerous affections of the lungs. Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures effected by its use, but we would present the following:—and refer further enquiry to my American Almanac, which the agent below named, will always be pleased to furnish free, wherein are full particulars, and indisputable proof of these statements.

Office of Transportation, Laurens R. R., S. C., Aug. 4, 1853.

J. C. Ayer. Dear Sir,—My little son four years old has just recovered from a severe attack of malignant Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten, and every person that visited him, pronounced him a dead child. Having used your Cherry Pectoral in California, in the winter of 1850, for a severe attack of Bronchitis, with entire succes, I was induced to try it on my little boy. I gave him a tea-spoon-ful every three hours, commencing in the morning, and by ten o'clock at night, I found a decided change for the better, and after three days use he was able to eat or drink without pain.

Its use in the above named disease will save many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the anxiety of many a fond parent.—For all affections of the Throat and Lungs, I believe it the best medicine extant. A feeling of the deepest gratitude, prompts me in addressing you these lines,—but for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been in another world.

I am yours, with great respect,
J. D. POWELL, Supt. Trans., L. R.R.

Rock Hill, (Somerset Co.,) N. J., July 21, 1852.

Dr. J. C Ayer,—Since your medicine has become known here, it has a greater demand than any other cough remedy we have ever sold. It is spoken of in terms of unmeasured praise by those who have used it, and I know of some cases where the best they can say of it, is not too much for the good it has done. I take pleasure in selling it, because I know that I am giving my customers the worth of their money, and I feel gratified in seeing the benefit it confers.

Please send me a further supply, and believe me
Yours, with respect,
JOHN C. WHITLOCK.

Almost any number of certificates can be sent you, if you wish it.

Windsor, C. W., June 26, 1852.

J. C. Ayer. Sir; This may certify that I have used your Cherry Pectoral for upwards of one year; and it is my sincere belief that I should have been in my grave ere this time if I had not. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, and I do not overstate my convictions when I tell you it is a priceless remedy.

Yours very respectfully,
D. A. McCULLIN, Attorney at Law.

Wilksbarre, Pa., September 28, 1850.

Dr. J. C. Ayer, My dear Sir,—Your medicine is much approved of by those who have used it here, and its composition is such as to insure and maintain its reputation. Invariably recommend it for pulmonary affections, as do many of our principal physicians.

I am your friend,
