STUDENT CAFETERIA NEWS

The next monthly special to be served in the Dining Hall will be on Wednesday, February 22nd. The theme will be Mexican. The food will be tacos, tortillas, chili con carne, gazpacho, and other Mexican specialties.

The Beaver staff will all be wearing Mexican type costumes and encourage anyone else to dress up as well. Non-residents are also welcome to join in. The cost is $4.00.

The event after this is a P.E.I. Provincial evening; details will follow at a later date.

The new drapes for the Residents' Dining Hall are now nearly completed. At present, two of the new orange burlap type material curtains are in position and provide an idea of what effect this will have in brightening up the atmosphere. These were donated by Reuben Cross, of the Wool and Yarn Shop in Confederation Plaza.

MARCH BREAKERS!

Would appreciate a drive to Montreal; share gas/driying. Sean Mooney, 2-3778.

CANADIAN UNIVERSITY PRESS

Canadian University Press is looking for a national President for the 1978-79 term, starting April 1, 1978. CUP, with its main office in Ottawa, is a co-operative of sixty student newspapers whose main interest is news and information exchange for the benefit of the newspapers and students.

The President is responsible for liaison with other organizations; with the national advertising co-operative based in Toronto; with national staff, regional executive and newspapers in CUP; and for internal communications. The President assists field staff and regional executive with student union relations and emergency newspaper situations, assists in planning the national conference, and works on the weekly news service and features service produced from the national office of CUP. The President should be familiar with CUP's financial workings. The President must be free to travel extensively, but be based in Ottawa, Ontario. The applicant must have a working knowledge of Canadian University Press and student newspapers. Bilingualism is an asset.

The position of President runs for 56 weeks, starting April 1, 1978. The salary is $180 per week, with cost of living increases quarterly and a full medical and dental plan. Deadline for applications is February 10, 1978. Interviews will be held in February at the spring regional conferences of Canadian University Press in Sackville, NB; Montreal, Quebec; Toronto, Ont.; and Edmonton, Alta. Address all applications and enquiries to:
